II. Background of the Institution

Rajiv Gandhi National Institute of Youth Development (RGNIYD), Bheemanthangal, Sriperumbudur, Tamilnadu is an autonomous organization under the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Government of India, established in the year 1993. The Institute was established as a national level training institute to bring under one umbrella all youth development activities viz., training, research, extension, documentation and dissemination. The Institute is registered as a society under the Tamil Nadu Societies Registration Act XXVII of 1975, S.No. 67 of 1993. The Institute is fully funded by the Government of India. The endeavour of the Institute is to facilitate the nation's youth with a conducive environment that will enable them to make the most of their natural potential to realize their aspirations. RGNIYD is functioning as a resource centre coordinating Training, Orientation, Research, Extension and Outreach initiatives for State, Central Governments and national level youth organizations. It also functions as an Institute of advance study in the field of youth development and to develop such professional excellence as may be required for the purpose.

The policy and management of the Institute is determined by a 15 member Executive Council. The Union Minister of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India is the Chairperson of the Council. The Director of the Institute is the Chief Executive responsible for the day-to-day-administration of the Institute. The activities of the Institute are run through the following five divisions:-

- (i) Training, Orientation and Extension (TOE)
- (ii) Research, Evaluation and Documentation / Dissemination (READ)
- (iii) Social Harmony and National Unity (SHANU)
- (iv) Panchayati Raj Institutions and Youth Affairs (PRIYA)
- (v) International Centre for Excellence in Youth Development (ICEYD)

The Institute has started offering the following programmes through regular mode from the academic year 2008-09:-

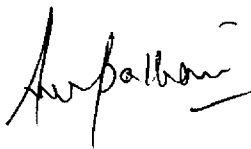

M.A. – Youth Development

M.A. – Career Counselling

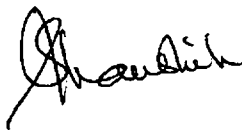

M.A. – Gender Studies

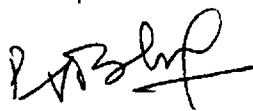

M.A. – Local Governance

M.A. – Life Skills Education

The Institute organizes training programmes for youth functionaries from Government and the Non Government sector. Training modules on promoting social harmony and national unity, personality development and leadership, life skills, gender equity, panchayati raj and youth, career counseling, counseling, education for sustainable development, human rights, right to information, national rural employment guarantee scheme, poverty alleviation programmes, globalization, etc. Every year on average 100-150 programmes are organized on these issues.

Research

The Institute undertakes ^{sponsorship} research and evaluation studies which help in formulating policies and programmes to cater to the current needs and aspirations of the youth. It evaluates the programmes and schemes implemented by Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports. Studies on knowledge, attitude and practices of the youth on the issues like HIV/AIDS, STI, Panchayati Raj Institutions etc. have been conducted. Action research studies are also undertaken on issues like Mental Health of Adolescents in Schools through intervention strategies, assessing the manpower requirements of the local industries and matching the skills of the local youth to enhance their employability, etc.

Extension

As part of RGNIYD's extension activities to enhance employability among the less educated rural youth, new skill training programmes on Information Technology (IT), Construction skill and manufacturing leather products were taken up in collaboration with the National Institute of Information Technology (NIIT), Larsen & Toubro (L&T) and Indian Institute of Leather Products (IILP), Chennai. The NYKS, Thiruvallur and Kancheepuram identified potential candidates, who were further screened by the officials of NIIT, L&T, IILP and

3. The Institute was established as a national level training institute to bring under one umbrella all youth development activities viz., training, research, extension, documentation and dissemination.
4. The Institute is functioning as a resource centre for coordinating, training, orientation, research, extension and outreach initiatives for the State and Central Governments and National level youth organizations. It is also functioning as an Institute of advance study in the field of youth development and to develop such professional excellence as may be required for the purpose.
5. The Institute is at present offering five PG programmes in the disciplines of Youth Empowerment, Career Counseling, Gender Studies, Local Governance and Life Skills Education.
6. Some of the existing faculty of the Institute have qualifications and experience in the fields of youth empowerment, career counseling, gender studies, local governance and life skills education. However, a few faculty members do not possess the qualifications as prescribed by UGC.
7. The Institute over a period of 15 years has organized meaningful training programmes both at national and international level focusing on youth related issues, problems and interventions.
8. The faculty has developed field-tested user friendly training manuals on various aspects of youth development which could be widely used across the country.

Supriya

9. The Institute has also rich experience in organizing training programmes for the personnel working with youth in SAARC and Commonwealth countries.
10. The Institute has adequate experience in undertaking research in collaboration with nationally renowned universities and institutions on themes of youth development and empowerment in states like Jammu & Kashmir and North-East region.
11. The Institute has established dynamic linkages with various universities and research institutions across the country and jointly organized workshops, seminars, faculty development programme and innovative training and academic programmes.
12. The Institute has made a discernible impact among the youth of the North-Eastern region by imbibing certain core national values through its training programmes without undermining the unique characteristics of the region.
13. Around three-fourth of the students admitted in the five Post-Graduate programmes are from weaker sections of the community. They are thus given an opportunity to study in a national institute with good facilities.
14. The academic programmes designed and introduced have tremendous concern for the youth, their security, their welfare, development and empowerment. All the five programmes have been designed in a holistic and integrated fashion and the students who undergo the programmes will emerge as professionals in their area of specialization.

15. The institute is equipped with good infrastructure facilities which include well-equipped air-conditioned Conference Halls, Classrooms, Seminar Halls and an auditorium with a seating capacity of 500 persons with latest audio-visual equipment to provide the necessary support to organize training programmes. It has 41.35 acres of land at its headquarters in Sriperumbudur.
16. The Institute has a library with limited text books and journals relevant to the programmes.
17. The male students, at present, are accommodated in the guest house and the female students are housed in one of the staff quarters.
18. The Institute has adequate administrative staff, sports facilities, regular supply of water and power backup.
19. The Institute has submitted a future plan indicating various programmes to be offered and various departments to be established in course of time. The same is at Annexure- XII.

Suggestions of the Expert Committee

1. The Institute should strictly follow the governance structure as suggested by the UGC in its MoA / Rules. It should also establish all the statutory bodies as per the norms of UGC.
2. The faculty selection process, designation, qualification prescribed, pay scale, work load, career growth should be as per the norms of the UGC.

- 342-
3. The library should be strengthened by adding more space and more books. It also needs to be strengthened further with e-journals, reference books, facilities for digitization of books and data bank on youth. It can also become the member of the UGC INFLIBNET consortium.
 4. As envisaged by the Institute, a Computer Centre needs to be established with adequate number of computers and internet access to students for their studies.
 5. A Media Centre with the facilities like video camera, projection, editing facilities and other necessary equipment may be established to document and disseminate various issues, problems and intervention strategies related to youth.
 6. The facilities for the student hostel need to be augmented to admit more students.
 7. The overall facilities like canteen, staff quarters, housing for non-teaching staff, sports etc. need to be strengthened keeping the growth of the Institute in mind.
 8. In order to update and strengthen the academic and research activities of the faculty, the Institute should make necessary provisions for deputing the faculty for refresher and orientation programmes.
 9. At present, there are only two permanent faculty in each department. In order to emerge as a good teaching and research institute, each department has to have at least one Professor, Two Readers and adequate number of Lecturers on permanent basis with supporting staff.

- 343
10. There is adequate space for each department at present. However, the Institute should initiate earnest efforts to augment this facility if the faculty strength is increased in future.
 11. In order to attract students from various States, provisions need to be made provide scholarships, fee concession for the students.
 12. The Institute can also make necessary provisions for research fellowships, stipends, study grant to promote research in the areas of youth studies.
 13. The Institute may also contemplate to establish few visiting professorships similar to the UGC scheme in this area.
 14. All the systems in the Institute need to be networked for effective e-governance.
 15. An interactive website with all the relevant information for the stakeholders needs to be hosted.
 16. The Institute may also introduce more courses of similar innovative nature. Similarly, new departments may also be established keeping in view the objectives of the Institute.

V. RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMITTEE

The Expert Committee, having visited the Institute and having verified all the physical and academic infrastructure has observed that:-

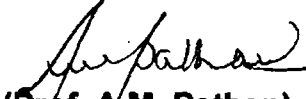

- a. the courses run by the institute are in emerging areas of youth development and innovative in nature.
