PREFACE

Women had been ostracized and being denied justice by the patriarchal societies in our State for a long time. The violence activities, the defamatory comments, inappropriate behaviour and sexual assaults against women are still prevailing covertly and overtly in every nook and cranny of our Society. Empowering women is the only solution for all questions and it is also an aid to help women to achieve equality with men or, to reduce gender gap considerably. Women contribute a lot directly or indirectly for the economic and social development of our State. For this, our Government has implemented a number of schemes and programmes through the Social Justice Department and other departments and agencies to trim down gender discrimination and to uplift them to live with self respect and to improve economics status of the women.

The Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment (GEWE) Policy was approved by the Government of Kerala on 16th April 2015 to strengthen gender equality and women's empowerment in the State .For the smooth implementation of this scheme in our State, a reliable database would be needed. Being the nodal agency for data collection and coordination in our State, the Department of Economics and statistics has been assigned to do this task and to put this issue in the spotlight. Although it is a Herculean and painstaking task to gather and consolidate data from the reliable source, DES has done it with avid interest in a short span of time. The Report on Gender Statistics 2014-15 has touched upon an array of topics such as violence against women, economic empowerment, leadership & participation, health, education etc. I am pretty sure that this report would be the cornerstone of the whole women oriented research programmes and it helps our Government to carry out women empowerment activities.

First of all, my sincere gratitude to the Social Justice department, the co-ordinator of the State Gender Action Plan and the various departments for their interminable support and colossal cooperation for the realization of this dream work. Secondly, my heartfelt thanks to Sri.Babu.P.V, Additional Director, who has not only played a decisive role, but also stood through thick and thin for bringing this report out and Smt.C.S.Latha Kumari, Joint Director, Smt.Divya.G, Assistant Director, Smt.Asha.N, Research Assistant, Smt.Vidhya.V.S, Smt.Jinsi.C.R, Sri. Siva Kumar, Statistical Assistants, Smt.Prameela.M, Selection Grade Typist, Smt.Deepa.P.S, Office Attendant of the Gender Statistical Cell of the Department of Economics and statistics and those who have played hard behind the scenes in preparation of this report is sincerely acknowledged.

I hope the report will be useful to planners, Policymakers and researchers and other data users.

Feedbacks for improvement are most welcome.

Message

I am delighted to know that the Directorate of Economics and Statistics is going to release a report on Gender Statistics 2014-15. I am further happy to note that this report has touched upon an array of topics such as violence against women, economic empowerment, leadership & participation, health and education. Government of Kerala has been taking a number of initiatives to reduce gender discrimination and achieve gender parity in the social, economic and political arena with the active support and help from the Social Justice Department. Even though Gender is one of the main components of the Social Justice Department, they have given this herculean task to the Directorate of Economics and Statistics to breathe a life to it. I have come to know that the Directorate of Economics and Statistics has instantly taken up this task and has played a commendable role to bring out this excellent report on time.

On this occasion, I congratulate the Director General and the Officials of the Department of Economics and Statistics who have worked hard behind the scenes for the preparation of this report.

MESSAGE

I am very happy to learn that the Directorate of Economics and Statistics is going to release a report on Gender Statistics 2014-15. Issues relating to Gender discrimination have been agitated through print and visual media for a long time in our country . Even though Government have taken a number of steps to counter it, unequal treatment of women is still widely prevalent, covertly and overtly , in every nook and cranny of our country. It is high time we uprooted this prejudice against women from the minds of the people. I am confident that this report of DES would play an important role in bringing down Gender inequality against women to some extent .

I appreciate the efforts of the Director General and entire team of the Gender Statistics cell of the DES for bringing out Gender Statistics 2014-15

As per 2011 Census population, growth rate is now declining, with a high average age at marriage, a high level of family planning acceptance and fertility control, a moderate decline in mortality and a high degree of population mobility. With Kerala registering the lowest growth rate of population in the last one decade, the State is all set to achieve "zero population growth" in the coming years. The decadal growth rate of Kerala worked out to 4.90 %. Chapter 3

LITERACY AND EDUCATION

Literacy And Education

Education is neither a privilege nor favour but a human right to which all girls and women are entitled. The educational scenario in Kerala is in a better position than the rest of the country. The Kerala model of development owes its attributed success to the achievements in the area of education and health. Most of the changes and development in the field of education has occurred since independence. The State had pursued a liberal higher education policy from 1956 through mid eighties in terms of quantitative expansion and access to higher education. Today, it boasts other States in terms of high literacy rate of 93.99% as against 72.99% in the national level.

The drop out ratio is very low in Kerala. Girls outnumber boys in all classes comprising percentage of boys is 49.13% of the total students enrolment in schools. In the university level education too girls stood first, which means that much emphasis has been given on enrolment and retention of girls in schools and universities.

Literacy and education are important indicators in a society as they play the prime role in social development. As per 2011 census, Kerala ranks first in the country with a literacy rate of 93.91%. Kerala's literacy rate is comparable to the most advanced regions of the world. Kerala's literacy rate, which was only 47.18 % in 1951, has almost doubled by 2011. The Male, female literacy gap which was 21.9% in 1951 has narrowed down to 4.04% in 2011. The pace of progress in the female literacy rate from 36.43 percent(1951) to 91.96 percent(2011) was remarkable and reasonably a good indicator of development in the society. Kerala holds the first rank in the country in female literacy with 92%.

Kerala with its rich culture of respecting womanhood and being the State with the highest literacy rate among women, has the lowest infant mortality rates and the highest life expectancy among other States. The literacy levels are highly correlated with the health status of the population. The pace of progress in the female literacy was remarkable and reasonably a good indicator of development in the society. Women's literacy in Kerala with insignificant gender and spatial disparities has been cited as a principal mover of many of the positive demographic indicators of the State. These indicators had resulted in the enhanced health status of women in Kerala. Female literacy and education are crucial determinants to reduce infant mortality, sound health and hygiene. Literacy, together with participation in political and economic front which gave women access the power of self reliance and economic independence.

The State ranks the highest in India in terms of the Gender Development Index and the educational and literacy accomplishments of women. Yet the impressive statistics do not reveal many of the social problems and unequal gender discrimination that have contributed to domestic conflicts, family violence, and suicide still prevailing among women in Kerala.

Chapter 4

PARTICIPATION IN ECONOMY

Participation in Economy

Kerala has the highest incidence of unemployment both for Males and Females in rural as well as in urban areas. Employment status is the key factor that determines the overall socio economic status. Unemployment is found to be much higher among women compared to men.. Kerala, which ranks first among the Indian States in terms of Human Development Index (HDI) and Gender Development Index (GDI), presents, however, a poor picture in terms of Female work participation.

Low Female work participation rate indicates the existence of a large proportion of unemployed women in the labour force. It is often held that education improves the employability of women and raises her earning potential compared to other States of India. Kerala, the State having the highest rate of Female unemployment, is also the State having the largest proportion of women in rural areas engaged in domestic duties. The data on employment indicate that women even when they are gainfully employed tend to concentrate in jobs which do not require high levels of educational qualifications and technical skills and which yield low earnings.

This is especially true among the educated Females both in urban and rural. In Kerala, employment in the organized sector is coming down. But in the case of Female employment in organized sector is raised marginally from 2014 to 2015 by 4.77 to 5.62. The share of women in public sector employment in Kerala is 34.16 per cent whereas in the case of private sector it is 65.84 per cent .According to the live register of the Employment Exchanges in the State, there are 35 lakh unemployed persons, out of which 21.2 lakh are women. The area wise analysis of employment shows that the majority comes under State Government service which is 53.12% and the lowest is in local bodies which are 5%.

Representation of women in agriculture sector in Kerala declined. The growth of the service sector comprising education, health care, public administration, judiciary, and water supply and sanitation, has been remarkable in Kerala.

Chapter 5

Industries Sector

Industries Sector

Industries Sector is playing its due role in the economic development of the State and in generating employment opportunities for the unemployed youth. Kerala, with all its limitation, is putting efforts for speedy Industrial Development in the State.

Although Women constitute half of the population, involvement of Women in entrepreneurial sector is few. Majority of the working Women were engaged in the unorganized sector as casual or low profile job.

Micro Small and Medium Enterprises sector is fast emerging income generating & employment providing sector with relatively lower capital cost and also help in industrialisation of rural & backward areas, targeting various social groups like SC, ST, Women, Youth, Physically Handicapped etc. thereby, reducing social/regional imbalances, assuring more equitable distribution of income and wealth. Women participation in business has considered as a major indicator of gender development. The remarkable growth of Women enterprises in Kerala is largely due to the implementation Women Industries programme that offers various types of financial incentives offered to MSME units started by Women. It not only gives them an independent income but also provides self reliance and social status. Promotion of self - employment of educated Women has additional advantage of creating more jobs for aspiring educated Women. Self- employed Women enterprises are creating employment particularly for Women in Rural area and uplift economic and social status of Women.

Women in Small Scale Sector

In Kerala, growth of Women enterprises in SSI/MSME sector is remarkable. This is a positive sign of Women empowerment and gender equity. Women owned SSI/ MSME units are increasing at a rate faster than the general growth rate in the Small Scale Industrial sector of the State and the trend continues since 1990-91. The total number of working Women enterprises increased from 58774 in 2013-14 to 62506 in 2014-15 with an increase of 6.35 Per cent. During 2014-15, there were 62506 Women owned SSI/ MSME units comprising 25 Per cent to the total registered Micro small and medium enterprises in the State.

Industrial Cooperative societies.

Cooperative sector is considered as the best type of organization which provides group entrepreneurship and departmental control. The Self Help Groups promoted by Local Governments forms a thrust for the promotion of cooperative units in the Women sector. In 2013-14, the participation of Women cooperatives in the small scale sector was 24.4 percent which has been increased to 28 percent in 2014-15.

Moreover, Kerala has the highest proportion of Women in manufacturing sector, mainly because Women have historically dominated industries like coir, cashew, bamboo and handloom and to some extent fish-processing. All the traditional industries are facing serious threat due to unfair terms of trade and substitution of machine-made and synthetic products. Due to adverse effects of both exogenous and endogenous situations female workforce in the unorganized manufacturing sector in Kerala has been at a disadvantage. It is evident that the household industry sector, largely comprising of cashew, coir and to some extent handlooms has witnessed a very sluggish growth of around one percent during the inter-censal period. Kerala is lagging behind other southern States in terms of number of handloom weavers and number of handloom units. In 2014-15, out of the 23071 adult workers, 57.38% are females.

In the private sector, the tea industry, which is dominated in Wayanad and Idukki districts, continue to be the few existing industries where female employment is predominant. In fact, the existence of tea industry has been the main reason of the high levels of female economic activity and high female workforce participation rate in these two districts.

The interventions initiated after the formation of Kerala State Bamboo Mission include promoting cultivation of bamboo, creation of new designs for innovative products in the handicrafts sector along with appropriate skill development, promotion of bamboo based modern industries supported by technology adaptation and development. It is expected that this will bring in greater business opportunities at various levels, especially among Women and hence improve the living standards of the rural people, there by contributing to the overall growth of the sector.

AGRICULTURE AND ALLIED ACTIVITIES

Agriculture and Allied Activities

Agriculture has been historically the mainstay of Kerala economy and traditionally, the most significant sector of Female employment, especially in the rural areas. However, it is evident from the census figures that women cultivators and agricultural laborers together account for only 17.2 percent of the Female workforce in the main category as per 2011 Census, which has fallen dramatically from 22 percent in 2001. The nature and extent of women involvement in agriculture varies greatly from region to region.

Agriculture is no longer the main channel of employment among the Kerallite women. Only 3.7 per cent and 13.5 percent of Female main workers are from cultivators and agricultural labourers respectively. It is apparent that there has been a large-scale shift in Female labourers, particularly wagelabour in agriculture, by hired Male workers. By all accounts, long-term employment in agriculture among women is gradually withering away.

Decline in women's work participation in agriculture, all over Kerala, seems to be a significant change in Female workforce participation, depressing the rate in the State and responsible for the much lower levels in some districts. In Kerala, Female labour activity in agriculture is mainly confined to the cultivation of food-crops, mainly paddy. Some tasks in paddy cultivation, such as transplanting, weeding and harvesting are typically Female-intensive and are gradually giving way for mechanisation.

Being highly market sensitive in nature and owing to more liberalized norms of international trade and commerce since 1991, had prompted large scale switch over to commercial, perennial and annual crops like Rubber, Banana, coconut, condiments and spices etc. As a result Female wage labour has thus been largely replaced by hired Male labour, mostly from migrant agricultural labourers.

Fisheries sector also occupies a very important place in the socio-economic development of the State. Kerala is also blessed with a large number of water bodies—fresh water and brackish water—rivers, interconnected backwaters (Kayals), estuaries & backwaters. The State is also endowed with vast resources in terms of ponds & tanks, rivers & canals, reservoirs, lakes and other water bodies having immense scope for development of fisheries to strengthen the food security, generate employment opportunities and earn foreign exchange with the ultimate objective of improving the socio economic status of fishers and other people engaged in the sector.

Fishing has been the primary source of livelihood in the coastal province of Kerala. The fisherwomen in Kerala play an important role in the fisheries sector in terms of their involvement in fishery related activities viz., fish vending, fish drying, prawn peeling, sorting, grading, fish packing, and net making. The role of women in the economic activities of coastal fishing communities supplements the region's livelihood. Women are usually engaged in the processes that begin with the arrival of fresh catch on the beaches and end in the markets.

CHAPTER 7

PARTICIPATION IN DECISION MAKING

Women's Participation in Decision Making

To measure Women's empowerment, Gender Empowerment measurement (GEM) takes three indicators, Women's participation in economic, political and professional activities. Within political power what is measured is mainly Women in parliament, judiciary or in local bodies. It is also now often pointed out that Women's empowerment must be seen as a process where in we must consider Women's awareness, consciousness, choices with live alternatives, resources at their disposal, voice, agency and participation. These are all related to enhancement of Women's capabilities and decisions they take individually or collectively for themselves. Women representation is limited and inadequate in political parties, trade unions and in other positions of political power as well as in decision making processes in professional bodies. Women representation both in mass organizations and high level committees of political parties is not up to the expected level. CHAPTER 9

WELFARE OF SCHEDULED CASTE AND SCHEDULED TRIBE

Welfare of SC and ST Community

Before the independence, the SC/ST Community were trampled and kept away from the main stream of the society by the majorities. They were not allowed to enter the temples and the education was also restricted to them for a long time. All types of their freedom were gagged and their dreams were smothered. Our Father of Nation had worked hard throughout his life for the betterment of the Schedule Caste / Schedule Tribes and for bringing them to the main stream of the society. He also believed that our country could attain the dream goal as a developed nation, only through the upliftment of socially backward community. After the independence, Dr B. R Ambedkar, was one of the architects of the Indian Constitution, efforts to eradicate the social evils like untouchability and caste restrictions were remarkable. Throughout his life, fought for the rights of the Dalits and other socially backward classes. The text prepared by Ambedkar provided Constitutional guarantees and protections for a wide range of civil liberties for individual Citizens, including freedom of religion, the abolition of untouchability, and the outlawing of all forms of discrimination.

The Constitution included the same human rights for the SC/ST community as enjoyed by other Castes of the society. Based on which several laws and schemes were created and implemented by the State and Central governments for making the welfare and development of SC/ST Community. From the past 6 decades, various measure are being carried out for the welfare and development of the SC/STs .For this the Kerala government created the SC/ST welfare department through which many welfare and developments schemes are done as well as modified each time according to the contemporary needs. The aim of the State government for creating and implementing various schemes are for quality education, better living conditions, health care, employment opportunities for SC/ST Communities. It is an honor that when compared with the other States of India, the SC/ST Communities in Kerala are reaching desirable social advances.

Welfare of Women and Children

Gender discrimination was around much before independence. The roots of such behavior can be traced to the Manusmriti. A part of the text focuses on guarding women from sexual freedom and possible infidelity. It says 'A girl should be controlled by her father, be under the custody of her husband after marriage and in her son's care when widowed. In no circumstances should she be allowed to assert herself independently. A change in the Male mindset is the need of the day. This can be achieved by a multifaceted approach. Apart from women empowerment through education, opportunity, safe environs and legislation, gender sensitization has to be introduced in schools. Misogynist behavior should be suitably punished. A gender sensitive society will not only help women reach their full potential but also help the country reach its potential. For this, our nation implemented the National policy for the empowerment of women in 2001. This policy aims at Gender equality, Gender justice, Social security, Elimination of discrimination against women in all walks of life, Economic development and integration of women into main stream of Economy.

Children are considered to be important assets for a country's future. Poverty, poor sanitation, malnutrition, diseases and infections, lack of primary health care, limited access to primary education are some of the main factors which affect the children in our State. A significant number of new born are died due to socio-economic reasons. Setting up of Anganwadis across the State, has been playing a wonderful role in imparting education and providing nutritious food to underprivileged children. Government implemented important legislation such as Juvenile Justice, the Dowry Prohibition Act, Domestic Violence Act, Immoral Traffic Act, the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act etc to protect women and children from hands of criminals.

DISABILITY STATISTICS

Disability Statistics

Across the world people with disabilities have poorer health outcomes, lower educational achievements, less economic participation and higher rate of poverty than that of people without disabilities. This is partly because people with disabilities experience barriers in accessing services that many of us have long taken for granted, including health, education, employment and transportation as well as information. These difficulties are exacerbated in less advantaged communities.

In order to achieve the long lasting, vastly better development prospects, we must empower people with disabilities and remove the barriers which prevent them from participating in their communities for getting a quality education, finding a decent work and having their voice heard.

As per the U N convention of the rights of the persons with disabilities article 1 "Person with Disabilities include those who have long term physical, mental, intellectual or sensory impairments may hinder their full and effective participation in society on an equal basis with others". In India as per the National Census 2011 the disabled population is 2.1% that comes 2, 68, 10557 and the Male female ratio is 58:42.

According to the 2011 census in Kerala there are about 7, 61843 disabled persons and the Male population is 51.81% and female population is 48. 19%. The persons with disabilities deserve proper care, protection, training, employment and rehabilitation.
