Foreword

The all-round development of the District is being taken by number of developmental initiatives by the Central as well as State Government. These initiatives have a bearing on the development indicators and the resources of the district. The most important pre-requisite for formulation, implementation, monitoring & evaluation of developmental plan is a reliable data base. The District Statistical Hand Book is an important document which contains statistical information on the Socio-Economic aspect of the district.

The present issue of District Statistical Hand Book, Keonjhar-2020 contains important up-to-date information, which will be of immense use for Administrators, Planners, Researchers, People's Representatives, Govt. Officials, readers as well as general public.

The efforts of Deputy Director (Planning & Statistics), DPMU, Keonjhar and his staff for issue of this publication is commendable.

Constructive suggestions for improvement of this book in its next issue will be awaited with thanks.
