NB: During the year 1999-2000, the Govt. of India has restructured the centrally sponsored Schemes by introducing a single programme called swarnjayanti Gram Swarozgar Yojana (SGSY) by including IRDP, TRYSEM, DW CRA, GKY, MWS and Tool -Kits in it so as to create self employment avenues for rural poor. The Jawahar Rozgar Yojana (JRY) has been renamed as Jawahar Gram Samridhi Yojana (JGSY) with focus on creation of rural infrastructure. The Indira awas yojana has been revamped by substantial increased in physical target and outlay for construction of new houses and upgradation of existing houses. The employment Assurance scheme has been restructured with the primary objective of creating wage employment avenues for the BPL (below poverty line) families by the way of creating rural infrastructure.
