The survey was conducted in two phases, the first part focused on evolving a broad frame while the second and final phase to the collection of data on financial and structural parameters of NPIs in Delhi. The main features include no. of traced and functional NPIs, purpose classification of their main activities, the target group they serve, details of employment & volunteers, sources of income and expenditure heads capital formation, value added and a host of other features in an exhaustive manner which can serve as a firm basis in laying a path for quantifying the contribution of this sector and their final usage in the compilation of National Income and GSDP estimates

The Report has been prepared by Publications Unit of DES under the able guidance of Shri N. T. Krishna, Deputy Director. The pains and diligence taken by Indian Institute of Public Administration(IIPA) in the crucial aspect ,namely, conduct of field work of the survey is acknowledged .I am indebted to the guidance provided by the officers of NAD ,CSO in the conduct of survey and preparation of report..The whole hearted cooperation extended by Industries Department, GNCTD in the supply of frame related information and NPI functionaries in furnishing reliable and qualitative data during field survey deserves special mention. SECTION ONE

INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The voluntary sector in India has been playing a significant role in the economic and social change of the country and contributed in a big way to the development in both rural and urban areas. In the process of compilation and release the estimates of National Accounts Statistics (NAS). and Gross State Domestic Product (GSDP) statistics, by the CSO and DES respectively, groups all institutional units in the economy under three broad institutional sectors, namely, (i) Public Sector (ii) Private corporate sector and (iii) Household sector. The Non-Profit Institutions (NPIs) sector is not shown separately as an institutional sector in both sets of data but is merged with the above stated three institutional sectors to whom they serve primarily due to paucity of data,. Keeping in view the necessity to have separate accounts for the NPI sector in totality in the national accounts statistics, the Central Statistical Office (CSO) in the M/o Statistics &Program Implementation (MOSPI) has launched a survey in collaboration with the states/UTs DES on NPIs to collect data on output, employment and other financial parameters by purposes of their activities from the functioning NPIs. The results of the survey would eventually enable the CSO to implement the UN Handbook on Nonprofit Institutions (NPIs) in the System of National Accounts and also provide separate accounts for the Non-Profit Institutions Serving Households (NPISH) sector.
- 1.2 To begin with, the survey on NPIs requires a proper frame giving their number across different set of activity groups to assess the magnitude of work involved and other related logistics. Accordingly the project of Survey on NPIs in India was planned to be conducted in two phases with the collaboration of States/UTs Governments. The first phase of the NPI survey was exclusively devoted to laying hands on the manual records of NPIs available with registering authorities at different places/levels in respective States/UTs and computerize them on a uniform format and platform so that the frame of the registered societies in the country becomes available at one place to serve as a launching pad for the subsequent phase. In the second phase, all the listed societies were visited by field investigators to verify their existence and simultaneously collect employment and financial data from the functioning societies so that the same could be integrated into the national accounts statistics of the country.

MEANING, DEFINITION, SCOPE & COVERAGE OF NPI SURVEY

- 1.3 NPIs are those organizations that do not exist primarily to generate profits, either directly or indirectly, and that are not primarily guided by commercial goals and considerations. NPIs may accumulate surplus in a given year, but any such surplus must be ploughed back into the basic mission of the agency and not distributed to the organizations; owners, members, founders or governing board And this is consistent with the 1993 SNA definition of an NPI.
- 1.4 In India, though NPIs are found to be registered under various Acts/ authorities. the major Acts of registration are: Societies' Act, 1860; Indian Trust Act, 1882; Public Trust Act,1950; Indian Companies Act 1956 (Section 25); Religious Endowment Act,1863; The Charitable and Religious Trust Act, 1920; Mussalman Wakf Act, 1923; Wakf Act, 1954; and Public Wakfs (Extension of Limitation Act) Act, 1959. Out of them the present survey covers only the societies registered under the Societies Registration Act 1860 or the Mumbai Public Trust Act or its state variants. It is primarily for the reason that about 90% of the NPIs are registered under these Acts. The survey covered all States and UTs of India.

Administrative Set up in Delhi

1.5 In the Govt., of NCT Delhi Registrar (Firms& Societies), O/o Commissioner of Industries is the appropriate authority for registration of NPIs under the Societies Registration Act, 1860. However, the work of registration has now been decentralized w.e.f 1.4.2010 and kept at the disposal of respective Dy.Commissioners in the 9 districts of Delhi.

NPI Survey in Delhi

1.6 DES being the nodal agency for conduct of this survey, collected the computerized frame readily available with the Registrar (Firms& Societies), O/o Commissioner of Industries and carried out the coding /classification adopted by CSO to make it usable for field survey. Owing to manpower shortages the task of conducting field work in phase II was outsourced to Indian Institute of Public Administration (IIPA) .The survey was conducted during December 2009 to September 2010. The task of data entry in the uniform software supplied by CSO was done in house by using the services of EDP staff.

Key variables for data collected

- 1.7 The key variables on which data was collected in the form of schedule/questionnaire (Annex) during the second phase of the NPI survey include:
 - Core monetary variables such as market output, non-market output, output for own use, CE, imputed value of the volunteer employment, intermediate consumption, CFC, taxes on production, other property incomes, other current and capital transfers, final consumption expenditures, financial assets and liabilities etc)
 - Structural variables like number of entities, paid employment, voluntary employment, members, memberships etc.
 - Output and Capacity variables,
 - Clients and users variables,

Impact and performance variables

System deficiencies / Limitations

- 1.8 The first phase of the survey, namely, building up of a comprehensive frame for use during phase II was subjected to following limitations
 - NPIs are not in the habit of intimating the change in the address of their registered office/address for communication, change in the composition of their officer bearers, changes in the name of institutions etc though it is mandatory under the Act. In some cases even though they inform the Registrar there is no systematic mechanism to take stock of the changes in the post registration period for various administrative reasons. As a result some of the NPIs could not be traced despite best efforts by the survey agency though they may be in existence
 - Registration of NPIs under the Act is a one-time affair in Delhi. Subsequently some of them become non functional/defunct. However registration authorities did not undertake any measures to update the registration record and is not representative of true picture prevailing at the ground level.
 - Some societies are in the healthy habit of submitting the annual accounts regularly to Registrar required under the Act and it was observed during the course of our survey that no arrangement what so ever is available either to take stock of those returns & their preservation in an orderly manner for the benefit of any users not to speak of their analysis. Defaulters are hardly taken to task resulting in poor compliance of act provisions.
 - Though the industries deptt., has taken early initiatives to coputerise the records and also introduced the online registration of societies in Delhi ahead of other States/UTs the quality and accuracy of computerization of old records was observed to be very poor due to the absence of proper superintendence over the operations of outsourced agency. The resulted in avoidable gaps & glaring omissions like incomplete format, absence of complete address & related details, no provision for activity classification etc., which are available in the hard coy of format used for registration.

Recommendations

1.9 To remedy the situation and promote effective compliance & monitoring of the Act and proper utilization of Annual reports submitted a statistical unit with one Statistical officer and one Statistical Asst., may be setup under proposed India Statistical Strengthening Project (IISP) sponsored by M/o Statistics &PI G.O.I. Further, Registrar (Firms & societies) may also delegate certain powers to statistical unit to collect Annual Reports regularly from societies under the Act as is being proposed in other states/UT.,

Structure of the Report

1.10 The Report is structured on the following lines. Section 2 provides survey design, concepts & Definitions adopted under the survey and limitations & recommendations. Section was devoted to analysis of the findings of the survey. Section 5 contains detailed statistical tables and annexure contains Schedule used during the survey.

SECTION TWO SURVEY DESIGN

CONCEPTS & DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 The NPI survey evolved a census approach meaning there by complete coverage of Societies' Act, 1860 up to 31.3.2008. The main aspects relating to survey design and concepts adopted under the survey are explained in this section.
- 2.2 Non Profit Institution: Non-profit institution which by convention produce only individual services and not collective services can be defined as legal or social entities created for the purpose of producing goods and services whose status does not permit them to be a source of income, profit, or other financial gain for the units that establish, control or finance them. The central feature of NPIs that separates them from other set of institutions is that they generate either surpluses or deficits and any surpluses they happen to make cannot be appropriated by other institutional units."
- 2.3 Reference period: The reference period for collection of data in the prescribed schedule was 1.4.2007-31.3.2008 for the NPIs that provide data from books of accounts. . However in case of societies where books of accounts were not available / finalized for this period this condition was relaxed and the earliest Year for which books of accounts were available was considered, On the other hand societies that have no books of accounts information was collected orally from the knowledgeable functionary of the society through interview method for the same period.

2.4 Types of Schedules:

For collection of employment and financial parameters of the societies, two types of schedules Detailed Data Schedule 2.0: D and Key Data Schedule 2.0: K were devised.(Annexure) Schedule 2.0: D is to be used in case of those societies where accounts are prepared and are available whereas, Schedule 2.0: K may be used in case of those societies where accounts are prepared but not available or accounts are not maintained.

2.5 Period of Field work:

Census approach was adopted under the NPI survey for the reason that there were no reliable outputs regarding the proportion of live NPIs in the field, This work was completed in two phases in NCT Delhi. Under the first phase of the survey computerized records of societies available with the registering authority, namely, Department of Industries were obtained during Dec 2008. Examination of Data supplied by Industries Department revealed that data was not in the required format and therefore not fit for ready usage. Further, various gaps like incomplete address, casual mention of main activities, absence of telephone numbers and details of office bearers etc. were also observed Second phase of the work involving collection of data from NPIs through field work was conducted from December 2009 to September 2010 on the basis of the final computerized list of 1st phase. In NCT of Delhi field work was outsourced to Indian Institute of Public Administration (IIPA) keeping in view of the manpower shortage in DES.

Type of NPI

2.6 NPI s can broadly be classified on the basis of their activity, which is technically called purpose based classification and secondly on the basis of target group served by them.

1) By activity

As per purpose based classification all NPIs can be classified under any of the following categories;

Culture and recreation; Education and research; Health; Social Services; Environment; Development and housing; Law, advocacy and politics; philanthropic intermediaries & voluntarism promotions; International activities; Religion; Business and professional Associations, unions; Brief details are as under

2) Serving agencies

Based on the target group of population they mainly serve through their operations all the NPIs have been grouped under the three groups viz. serving government, serving industries and serving households described as under.

- The societies which are mainly financing their activities through government aid/grants were classified as 'societies serving government'
- The societies created by farmers, manufacturers, traders, professionals like doctors, lawyers, auditors, etc. for the benefit of their respective businesses/industries may be classified as 'societies serving industries'. They consist of chamber of commerce, trade associations, market associations, market federations, etc.
- The 'societies serving households' consist of societies which provide or sell goods or services to households and are not mainly financed by government. These societies may include religious societies, social, cultural, recreational and sports clubs, trade unions, labour unions, consumers associations, resident welfare associations, parents teachers associations. These also include charities, relief and aid organizations financed by voluntary donations and offerings, in cash or in kind.

Value Added

2.7 Value Added represents that part of production which is the actual contribution of an NPI to the economy. Value added of NPI is equivalent to the sum expenditure on salary & Wages, honorarium paid, rent paid, depreciation if any and taxes paid etc., if information was collected from the books of accounts .On the other hand Value added of NPI in respect of which data was collected not from books of accounts, value added is equivalent to the sum total of expenditure incurred on salary & wages and honorarium paid.

SECTION THREE

Legal frame-work for volunteerism

3.1 There are no specific laws or regulations which regulate specifically volunteerism in India. However, legislation addressing the non-profit sector affects formal forms of volunteerism undertaken within the framework of NGOs and volunteer involving organizations (VIOs) in terms of nature, expression, scope and target groups.

Prior to the enactment of the Societies Registration Act of 1860, voluntary action was guided mainly by religious and cultural ethos. Subsequently, a series of legislations addressing the non-profit sector were adopted. The starting point in this respect was Article 19 of the Indian Constitution which recognized a number of civic rights including the right "....to form associations or unions". It constitutes the legal basis of relevant legal provisions applicable to the non-profit sector. There are also non mandatory provisions that allow any group with the intention of starting a non-profit, voluntary or charitable work to organize itself into a legally registered entity. However, given the optional nature of these provisions, there is a large group of voluntary bodies which are not registered. The main statutory laws governing the various types of registered nonprofit organizations are:

A. Non-profit organizations created for the larger public good

- 1. The Societies Registration Act, 1860
- 2. The Indian Trusts Act, 1882
- 3. Public Trust Act, 1950
- 4. The Indian Companies Act (Section 25), 1956

B. Religious non-profit organisations

- 5. Religious Endowments Act, 1863
- 6. The Charitable and Religious Trust Act, 1920
- 7. Mussalman Wakf Act, 1923
- 8. Wakf Act, 1954
- 9. Public Wakfs (Extension of Limitation) Act, 1959

Societies Registration Act, 1860

3.2 Purpose of the Act is to provide for registration of literary, scientific and charitable societies. Societies Registration Act is a Central Act. However, 'unincorporated literary, scientific, religious and other societies and associations' is a State Subject (Entry 32 of List II of Seventh Schedule to Constitution, i.e. State List). Thus, normally, there should have been only State Laws on this subject. However, Societies Registration Act was passed in 1860, i.e. much before bifurcation of power between State and Centre was specified. Though the Act is still in force, it has been specifically repealed in many States and those States have their own Acts. The following societies can be registered under Societies Registration Act 1860, namely, Charitable societies; Military orphan funds or societies; Societies established for promotion of science, literature, or for fine arts; Societies established for instruction and diffusion of useful knowledge; diffusion of political education; Societies established for maintenance of libraries or reading rooms for general public; Societies established for Public museums and galleries for paintings or other works of art; and collections of natural history, mechanical & philosophical inventions, instruments or designs [section 20]. Any seven or more persons associated for literary, scientific or charitable purpose can register a society by subscribing their names to memorandum of association.

The Indian Trusts Act, 1882

3.3 Trust and trustees is a concurrent subject [Entry 10 of List III of Seventh Schedule to Constitution]. Thus, the Act applies all over India except when specifically amended / altered by any State Government. The Indian Trusts Act was passed in 1882 to define law relating to private trusts and trustees.

The Indian Companies Act (Section 25), 1956

3.4 Under this Act, a company can be established 'for promoting commerce, art, science, religion, charity or any other useful object', provided the profits, if any, or other income is applied for promoting only the objects of the company and no dividend is paid to its members.

Public Trust Act, 1950

3.5 Public Trust means an express or constructive trust for either public or charitable purpose or both and includes a temple, a math, a wakf, church, synagogue, agiary or any other religious or charitable endowment and a society formed either for religious or charitable purpose or both and registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860. In order to be a public trust, it is not essential that the trust should benefit the whole of mankind or all the persons living in a particular state or city. It is said to be a public trust if it benefits a sufficiently large section of the public as distinguished from specified individuals. Also if the beneficiaries of the trust are uncertain or fluctuating, then the fact that the beneficiaries belong to a certain religion/caste does not make any difference.

Religious Endowments Act, 1863

3.6 An Act to enable the Government to divest itself of the management of Religious Endowments. Whereas it is expedient to relieve the Boards of Revenue and the local Agents, in the presidency of Fort William in Bengal, and the Presidency of Fort Saint George, from the duties imposed on them by Regulation XIX, 1810, of the Bengal Code (for the due appropriation of the rents and produce of lands granted for the support of Mosques, Hindu temples, Colleges and other purposes; for the maintenance and repair of Bridges, Salaries, Kattras and other public buildings; and for the custody and disposal of Nazul Property of Escheats) and Regulation VII, 1817, of the Madras Code (for the due appropriation of the rents and produce of lands granted for the support of Mosques, Hindu Temples and Colleges or other public purposes; for the maintenance and repair of Bridges, Choultries, or Chattrams, and other public buildings, and for the custody and disposal of Escheats), so far as those duties embrace the superintendence of lands granted for the support for mosques or Hindu temples and for other religious uses; the appropriation of endowments made for the maintenance of such religious establishments; the repair and prevention of endowments made for the maintenance of such religious establishments; the repair and preservation of buildings connected therewith and the appointment of trustees of managers thereof; or involve any connection with the management of such religious establishment.

The Charitable and Religious Trust Act, 1920

3.7 An Act to provide more effectual control over the administration of Charitable and Religious Trusts. Whereas it is expedient to provide facilities for the obtaining of information regarding trust created for public purposes of a charitable or religious nature, and to enable the trustees of such trusts to obtain the directions of a Court on certain matters, and to make special provision for the payment of the expenditure incurred in certain suits against the trustees of such trusts. It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir provided that the Government at any State may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that this Act, or any specified part thereof, shall not extend to that State or any specified area therein, or to any specified trust or class of trusts.

Mussalman Wakf Act, 1923

3.8 An Act to make provision for the better management of the wakf property and for ensuring the keeping and publication of proper accounts in respect of such properties.

Wakf Act, 1954

3.9 This Act was enacted by Parliament provide for the better administration and supervision of wakfs.

Public Wakfs (Extension of Limitation) Act, 1959

3.10 An Act to extend the period of limitation in certain cases for suits to recover possession of immovable property forming part of Public Wakfs. It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir. In this Act, "public wakf" means the permanent dedication by a person professing Islam of any immovable property for any purpose recognised by Muslim law as a public purpose of a pious, religious or charitable nature.

National Policy on the Voluntary Sector

- 3.11 The National Policy on the Voluntary Sector, adopted in May 2007, pledges to encourage, enable and empower an independent, creative and effective voluntary sector, with diversity in form and function, so that it can contribute to the social, cultural and economic advancement of the people of India. It constitutes the beginning of a process to evolve a new working relationship between the government and the voluntary sector, without affecting the autonomy and identity of voluntary organizations (GoI/Planning Commission, 2007).
- 3.12 The state of NCT Delhi has no separate Act apart from the above central Acts to regulate the said activities. Although there are number of Acts under which non-profit institutions are registered in India, the NPI survey covered only the societies registered under the Societies Registration Act 1860 or the Mumbai Public Trust Act or its state variants. It is primarily for the reason that about 90% of the NPIs are registered under these Acts.

SECTION FOUR

SUMMARY FINDINGS

4.1 Total No. of Registered NPIs Covered

The field work of NPI survey focused on 60687 societies registered up to March, 2008 to ascertain their actual location, functional status and there after obtain data in prescribed schedules on the financial & other characteristics to come out with a detailed profile on this sector. At the outset 10127 no. of NPIs were only traced and surveyed.

Statement 4.1 Distribution of Registered & Surveyed Societies Year wise

| Years of | Total Registration | Percentage to | No of NPIs Traced | Percentage to |
|--------------|--------------------|---------------|---------------------|---------------|
| Registration | , o | total | / Visited Societies | total |
| Up to 1950 | 687 | 1.14 | 55 | 0.54 |
| 1951-1960 | 1867 | 3.09 | 123 | 1.21 |
| 1961-1970 | 2924 | 4.83 | 118 | 1.17 |
| 1971-1980 | 7428 | 12.28 | 378 | 3.73 |
| 1981-1990 | 7646 | 12.64 | 520 | 5.13 |

| All | 60481 | 100 | 10127 | 100 |

The proportion of NPIs covered/ traced during the survey come to 16.74% of the total. The low coverage can be attributed to the reasons like closure, change of location etc and even Registrar (Firms & Societies) GNCTD had no information on these aspects. Analysis of the pattern of registration of NPIs in the past 6 decades revealed that 38.22 of the societies were registered after the year 2000 while 27.8% during 1991-2000 and after 12.64% during 1971-1980 and so on. At the outset, more than 78% of societies in Delhi were registered beyond 1980. Likewise the out of the total societies surveyed nearly 56% pertain to the period 2000-2008 followed by 32.23% during 1991-2000.

Activity-wise distribution of Registered & Surveyed Societies is presented in Statement 4.2.
