STATISTICAL DIARY
(2011-12)

DEPARTMENT OF PLANNING AND STATISTICS
U.T. ADMINISTRATION OF DAMAN AND DIU
SECRETARIAT, DAMAN.

FOREWORD

Information technology has enhanced the capacity of Statistical data and various results of survey and studies carried out. With this motive, the Department of Planning and Statistics, which is a nodal agency for all statistical activities in UT of Daman and Diu has published Statistical Diary : 2011-12. This publication serves as a measuring rod of various programmes and focus on socio-economic development of Daman and Diu.

I am sure that this Diary will be very useful for planners, researchers, general public, data users and will serve as a handy reference booklet on almost all aspects.

The work done by the Department of Planning and Statistics, in preparation of this Diary is appreciable.

Secretary (Planning & Statistics )

P R E F A C E

The Department of Planning and Statistics has been bringing out Statistical Diary of U.T. of Daman and Diu every year. This is the 23rd edition of ‘Statistical Diary : 2011-12’ of this U.T. The main object of this Diary is to present up-to-date statistical data on various socio-economic aspects of the U.T. of Daman and Diu. It contains various kinds of Statistics such as Administrative Statistics, Population Statistics, Socio Economic Statistics, Developmental Statistics, Financial Statistics etc, pertaining to the financial year 2011-12.

It is hoped that this publication will be useful for Government Officers and employees, planners, policy makers, researchers and various agencies and will serve the purpose of a reference book of basic statistics about U.T. of Daman and Diu.

I am grateful to all concerned Government / Semi -Government Offices of Administration of Daman and Diu as well as Central Government, local bodies and other Organizations for their cooperation in providing requisite information for incorporation in the publication.

I express sincere thanks to our Secretary ( Planning & Statistics ), for his valuable guidance for preparation of this Diary.

I appreciate the work done by Research Assistant of Department of Planning and Statistics regarding co-ordination and supervision over preparation of this Diary.

The collection of data, compilation and data entry has been done by a Statistical Investigator of this Department. I acknowledge and appreciate her efforts rendered in bringing out the works presented in the Diary.

I am also thankful to all Staff of Department of Planning & Statistics, as well as Government Printing Press, Daman who were involved in preparation of this Diary.

The Department is constantly endeavouring to improve the quality of the publication. Any suggestions for further improvement in the content of this Diary would be most welcome for our future issues.

Date : 24 /09/2012

2. GENERAL INFORMATION

2.1 LOCATION

U.T. of Daman and Diu comprises two districts namely Daman and Diu. Both Districts are situated on western coast of India at a distance of about 700 kms. Daman is the head Quarter of this U.T.

Daman is on main land near southern portion of Gujarat State. Vapi is the nearest Railway Station ( 13 kms) which is on Western Railway between Mumbai and Surat. Vapi is 167 kms from Mumbai Central and 95 kms from Surat.

Diu is an island near Una of Junagarh District in Gujarat State. Nearest Railway Station is Delwada at the distance of 9 kms from Diu. But important trains are linked with Veraval which is 90 kms from Diu. A portion of Diu District is on main land which is named as Ghoghla. A small part of Diu known as Simar is situated in Gujarat at a distance of 25 kms from Diu.

2. 2 HISTORY

After Liberation on 19th December, 1961 from Portuguese Rule of more than four centuries, Daman and Diu became a part of the U.T. of Goa, Daman and Diu under Government of India. After delinking of Goa, which attained statehood, U.T. of Daman and Diu came into existence on 30th May, 1987.

Brief history of Daman and Diu Districts are furnished below as per District Census Hand Book of Census of India, 1981.

DAMAN DISTRICT :

The District of Daman is known to have formed part of the country known as Lata which was one the seven divisions of the Aparant or Konkan Vishaya, between 2nd Century B.C. to 13th Century A.D. The Daman District is included in the intervening region and therefore must have formed part of the Mauryan empire at least at the time of Ashoka. After the Mauryan power was weakened, the district was under the rule of Satkarni I, the Satavahana ruler in the end of 2nd Century B.C. After that during the 1st Century A.D. the District of Daman seemed to have been ruled by Kshaharatas who were the provincial governors i.e Kshatrapas under the Kushana emperors. During A.D. 125, Satkarni drove away the Kshaharatas and ruled the districts. But the Satavahana rule was shortlived. The Kshaharatas of Ujjain reconquered the district by about A.D 150 from the Satavahana ruler Satakarni and Daman District again passed under the rule of Kshaharatas of Ujjain till A.D. 249. After the Kshatrapas, the district was ruled by the Abhir Kings till A.D. 416.

After the rule of Abhir kings, the district was under the rule of Traikutakas during the 5th Century A.D. who were the feudatories of the Abhirs. By A.D. 500, the Traikutaka power seems to have been destroyed by the Vakataka king Harishena. The District then was under the power of the Kalachuris of Mahishmati King Krishnaraja and his successors till A.D. 609. King Mangales of Chalukyas of Badami routed out the last king Budharaja of Kalachuris by about A.D. 609. The Chalukyas of Badami ruled the district till A.D. 671 and their descendants known as Lata or Navasari Chalukyas ruled from Navasarika, modern Navasari, on the bank of the river Purna to the north of Daman. They ruled independently as feudatories of the Badami Chalukyas of the Deccan. In the next eight centuries, Daman came under the control of a large number of Hindu kings and chieftains.

Madmud Shah Begada, Sultan of Gujarat, seems to have conquered fort Parnera on the river Par and port of Daman and levied tribute from Jagatshah in 1465. Naranshah who succeeded Jagatshah ruled from A.D. 1470 to 1500 and Dharmshah II from 1500 to 1531.

Daman was acquired by the Portuguese from the Shah of Gujarat. They noticed the port of Daman for the first time in 1523. They attacked it several times and finally obtained it in 1559 by means of a treaty with the Shah. Thereafter, it was under the rule of Portuguese till its liberation in 1961.

DIU DISTRICT :

The documented history of the District of Diu begins with the Maurya rule (c.322-220 B.C.). Emperor Chandragupta Maurya had extended his supremacy over Saurashtra and had appointed Pushagupta as Governor of the province of Saurashtra with the Head-quarters in village Girnar near Junagadh. Yavanaraj Tushappa ruled over Saurashtra as Governor of Emperor Ashoka (c.273-237 B.C.). Emperor Ashoka had sent Yavana Thero named Dhammarakhito as evangelist to the western sea board including Diu. His grandson Samprati (c.229-220 B.C.) seems to have ruled over Saurashtra from Ujjain. He propagated Jainism and erected many Jain Temples. The Jain traditions from Diu seems to belong to this period.

The District seems to be under the rule of Indo-Greek kings Eukratides (c.171-150 B.C.), Meanandar (c.115 to 90 B.C.) and Appollodotes II of the 1st Century B.C. No historical information is available for the period of 150 years from the 1st Century B.C. to about A.D. 50. During the A.D. 1st Century , the district seems to have been ruled by Kshaharatas who had established their rule over western part of India including Saurashtra. For more than the next thousand years, Diu formed part of the kingdoms of dynasties that ruled over the western India including Gujarat. The last king of the Vaja dynasty ruler of Somnath Patan ruled over Diu in the first decade of the fifteenth century. Thereafter, Diu came under the control of the Muslims Sultans of Gujarat who seem to have ruled Diu for the next one and a half centuries.

Early in 1535, the Portuguese Governor De Cunha had led his expedition for the capture of the town in Diu, but was defeated by the Sultan. However, around that period, the Gujarat Sultan Bahadur Shah's kingdom was overwhelmed by Mughal invasion. Pressed by Mughal king Humayun on one side and the Portuguese at the gates of Diu, Bahadur Shah entered into a treaty with Nuno da Cunha on October 25, 1535 who agreed to assist Bahadur Shah against his enemy by land and sea. In turn he received permission to construct a fortress at Diu and a site was granted for this purpose in the harbour. After the Mughal danger was receded, the Shah of Gujarat realised his mistake in allowing the Portuguese to construct the fort. Finally Diu was conquered by the Portuguese in 1546 who ruled there till 1961.
