PREFACE

The present publication 'Education in Haryana—A Decade of Progress 1967-1976' has been brought out keeping in view the increased demand of statistics for the planned development of education in the State. It contains a detailed and comprehensive account of statistics of the progress at all levels and types of education in Haryana.

It is hoped that this brochure will not only serve as a reference book but will prove useful to educational planners and administrators for the formulation of development programmes and projects in the specified fields. It will also be of great interest to educationists and research workers, who desire to know about the progress achieved so far in the field of education in the State.

The present publication has been compiled in the Statistical Unit of the Directorate of Education on the basis of material received from the District Education Officers, Registrars of Universities; Directors of various departments engaged in imparting technical, professional and vocational Education and other field agencies.

The information contained in this publication is purely factual and no conclusion from the presented data have been drawn.
