I N T R O D U C T I O N

Statistics are numerical statements of fact capable of analysis and interpretation.

The Statistical Handbook of West Kameng : 1986 presents a crystal clear picture of various developmental activities and also the socio-economic aspects of the district. The compilation of this issue has been done in conformity with the state level publication. The handbook of this district marks an hiatus of one year due to some unavoidable factors. However, all efforts have been made to present in the current issue yearwise data on various developmental activities for the financial years 1984-85 and 1985-86.

I take this opportunity to extend my thanks and gratitude to all the district heads of departments for their co-operation in bringing out this publication. Thanks are also due to the staff of the District Statistical Cell, particularly, Shri T.Welli, SIS , Shri L K Megejee, SIS and Shri H.P.Das, F.I for their sincere efforts.

Constructive suggestions for improvement of the standard and contents of the subsequent issues will be gladly accepted.

NOTIONAL MAP OF WEST
KAMENG DISTRICT

A SYNOPSIS ON WEST KAMENG DISTRICT

West Kameng District of Arunachal Pradesh is lying approximately between $91^{\circ} 30'$ to $92^{\circ} 40'$ East longitudes and $26^{\circ} 54'$ to $28^{\circ} 01'$ North latitudes. The district is surrounded by Tibet region of China in the North, Bhutan on the West, Towang and East Kameng Districts of Arunachal Pradesh are in the North-West and East respectively. The southern boundary adjoins Sonitpur District of Assam.

HISTORICAL GENESIS:

The name of the district is derive from the Kameng river, a tributary of the Brahmaputra, that flows through the district. Till 1914, the district was a part of the Darrang district of Assam. By a Government of India Notification of 1914, the area covered by this district became a part of the 'Western Section' of the 'North East Frontier Tract' to which the entry of a British subject was regulated by an 'Inner line'. In 1919 this tract was renamed as the 'Balipara Frontier Tract' having its headquarter at Charduar of Assam. In 1946, the district area was curved out of the Balipara Frontier Tract with the name of 'Sela Sub-Agency', and its headquarter continued to be at Charduar. In 1954, Sela Sub-Agency was renamed as the Kameng Frontier Division and its headquarter was later transferred to Bomdila. Like other parts of NEFA, it was also under the Ministry of External Affairs and over all incharge of the district was a Political Officer. On 1st September, 1965 the Ministry of Home Affairs took over the Administrative charge of NEFA from the Ministry of External Affairs and Kameng Frontier Division was renamed as Kameng District and the Political Officer was redesignated as Deputy Commissioner.

On 1st June 1980, Kameng District was bifurcated into East and West Kameng District. East was formed covering the area of the then Seppa Sub-Division and rest of the area of erstwhile Kameng District was placed under West Kameng. Finally on 6th October, 1984, West Kameng District was again bifurcated and curving out the area of Towang Sub-Division, Towang District was formed.

PHYSIOGRAPHY:

The topography of the district is mostly mountainous. A greater part of it falls within the higher mountain zone, consisting a mass of tangled peaks and valleys.

In West Kameng, there are three principal mountain ranges - a part of Sela range, Bomdila range and Foot-hills range. The Sela range consists a series of mountains arranged in the form of zig line from Tibet in the north, Bhutan in the West and thus forming a tough terrain to pass through it. The altitude of Sela range varies from 14000' to 15000' and Sela Pass is 13714 feet high. The Bomdila range having an average height of 9000 feet is separated by a 4500' high valley of river Dirang chu, a tributary of Kameng river. On this range the district headquarter-Bomdila lies at an altitude varying from 3100' to 9000' above sea level. South of the Bomdila range lies the Foot-hills range having hills of quite low altitudes and the area is mostly plain. The area of Foot-hills range is full of tropical forests with trees of great economic values and various types of wild game.

The Kameng river flows through the district and leaving the district at Bhalukpung it ultimately joins the river Brahmaputra in plains of Assam. Tenga, Bichom and Dirang chu are the main tributaries of the river Kameng.

CLIMATE:

The district is situated within the temperate zone, and is remote from the sea. The sea has thus no influence on its climate and the distance from the Equator is immaterial owing to the influence of the snow-clad mountains. The only factor which determines the climate is the direction and height of mountains and the nature of soil.

Although the district lies close to the tropic, it furnishes every gradation of climate, from the sultry and suffocating tropical heat of Foot-hills area to the arctic cold of snow-clad peaks. Thus the climate is hot and humid upto 4000' in southern area, temperate upto 7000' and cold beyond it.

Humidity is generally high throughout the year, the winter months being less humid.

POPULATION:

The district is having 156 villages with a population of 41,567 (as per 1981 census). The average density of population per Sq.Km is 7. The literacy rate is recorded at 25.28 and the sex ratio indicates 836 females per 1000 males. The Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribes population of the district are 246 and 23,101 persons respectively.

LOCAL INHABITANTS:

There are four major tribes in West Kameng, namely, Monpas, Mijis, Akas and Sherdukpens.

THE MONPAS: The Monpas belong to the Tibeto Mongoloid stock. They are well built, fair in complexion and medium to tall in stature. They are hospitable, gentle and unassuming in temperament. Some of them have good business acumen. Their houses are made of stone and timbers.

A Monpa family is patriarchal. Monogamy is the general rule though Polygamy is also practised. Monpas have castes and clans with no social hierarchy.

Due to slight variations in dialects Monpas can be divided into five linguistic groups, namely, Towang Monpa, Dirang Monpa, Lish Monpa, Doct Monpa and Kalaktang Monpa. Each group has its own dialects.

Monpas are Mahayana Buddhist by religion with close cultural and religious affinities with Bhutanese and Tibetans. All houses have small altars and chapels with statues of Buddha. Offering water in little cups and burning butter lamps are daily ritual. The people believe in transmigration of the soul and reincarnation.

The Monpas perform many pantomime dances out of which the 'Ajilamu' dance is very popular. Losar and Choskar are the major religious festivals of Monpas. Losar is celebrated to commemorate the advent of New Year. There is great merry-making and dancing during Losar festival. In Choskar festival the Lamas read religious scriptures in the Gompa for a number of days. Thereafter the villagers carry the religious books on their back in a procession under the guidance of a senior lama and the procession goes round the cultivation fields. The significance of this performance is to ensure better cultivation and protect the grains from the insects and wild animals and also for the prosperity of the villagers in general.

The Monpas are agriculturists. They practise both shifting and permanent types of cultivation. They keep horses, yaks, cows, goats, sheep, pigs and fowls. They do hunting by means of bows and arrows. They also practise fishing by net, angle and trap. The Monpas are known for wood-curving, painting, religious scrolls called THANKAS, carpet-making and weaving.

MIJIS (Dhamnai): The Mijis live in the valley of Bichon river and they are a small group of people. According to their own tradition and belief they had originally migrated from the plains and even claim to have connections with the Ahom kings who ruled over Assam. Marriage among the Mijis usually takes place by negotiation. Normal bride price is given by the parents of the bridegroom.

The Mijis belong to the Mongoloid stock. They are divided into two classes, the Nyubbu and the Nyullu, who do not inter-marry. Their religion is indigenous but they have come under certain amount of Buddhist influence.

The Miji family is patriarchal. The Mijis put prominent tattoo mark on faces. Basketry is a popular handicraft among the nonfolk. The Mijis are agriculturist and practise shifting cultivation. They also do hunting and fishing.

The Mijis observe a number of ceremonies in the village, the most important celebration is known as Fungplin or Chindang. The Mijis believe in many Gods. Janglungnui is the most powerful of all of them. A festival is observed in honour of the spirit in the month of October. Each village has a Deori or priest who officiates in the ritual.

There is a village council in each Miji village and the council consists of village headman and other elders of the village.

AKA: The Akas are inhabitants of the South Eastern part of West Kameng. Their main concentration is noticed in the Thrizinc area.

The Aka society is said to be mainly based on two broad groups: Kutsun and Kovatsun. An aka family is patriarchal and polygamy is practised. Marriage takes place either by the common way of negotiations or by elopement. Cross cousin marriage is preferred to others. Mithuns are an essential part of the bride price for marriage. The Aka house is an elongated structure. The Akas have prominent tattoo marks on the faces. The Akas observe a number of ceremonies in the village. The most important community festival is known as Nechido, performed by the village priest once in a year.

The Aka women make colourful bags. Basketry is the popular handycraft amongst the menfolk. The most common form of art is wood carving.

The Akas are agriculturist and they practise shifting cultivation. They keep Mithun, cow, horse, goat, pig and poultry. They practise hunting and chasing by means of spears, bows and arrows. The Akas have a number of songs and dances for different socio-religious festivities.

SHERDUKPEN: The Sherdukpens belong to Tibeto Mongolian stock and they are fair in complexion. Their main concentration is spread over four main villages of Rupa, Sigaon, Shegaon and Thongre. However, at present some of them have settled in Kamengbari area of West Kameng.

The Sherdukpen society is based on two classes: Thong and Chao. The Thongs are said to be descendants of King Japung. Bura and Chao are the descendants of his partners and servants class. As such the class Thong is superior to Chao. The two classes are again divided into several clans.

A Sherdukpen family is patriarchal and they practise monogamous type of marriage. The Sherdukpen houses are generally erected on substantial stone foundations. The floor and walls are made of thick wooden planks.

Like Moapas, the Sherdukpens are also Buddhist and deeply religious. They observe a number of ceremonies, the important ones are a) Choskar b) Losar c) Wang and d) Khiksaba. The Choskar, Losar and Wang are Buddhist ceremonies. Khiksaba is a non-Buddhist ceremony and celebrated at the out-skirts of the village.

The Sherdukpens are agriculturist and practise both shifting and permanent cultivation. They keep livestock like Ponies, cows, goat, sheep, fowls and bullocks. They hunt with bows and arrows. They practise fishing by means of nets, angles, traps. The Sherdukpen women are skillful weavers. The Sherdukpens perform many dances, the principal dances are the Yak dance, the Deer dance and Ajilamu dance which are both exciting and entertaining.

An interesting feature of Sherdukpen life is their annual migration during the winter month to Doimara and in the adjoining foot-hills area for purposes of trade and maintaining their age-long relations with the plains.

ADMINISTRATIVE SET-UP :

The administrative set up is based on single line Administration which aims at keeping a close co-operation amongst various development departments with the administration and thus work together for speedy development of the people and the area.

The entire district is divided into two Sub-Divisions viz. Bomdila and Nafra Buragaon. Bomdila Sub-Division has got four circles - i.e Dirang, Kalaktang, Bomdila(Sadar) and Bhalukpung whereas Nafra Buragaon Sub-Division has two circles, namely Nafra and Thrizino.

The Deputy Commissioner, being the overall incharge of the district, maintains law and order with the help of administrative officers and Police force. The villagers have their own customary administrative system in the form of traditional village councils. The councils consist of the Gaon Buras and Members. The Assam Frontier Regulation, 1945, authorises the village councils to settle all civil matters and certain criminal matters falling within their jurisdictions. However, for all matters, the Deputy Commissioner and some other Administrative Officers have jurisdiction under the supervision of the Assam High Court which holds the appellate and the revisional authority.

The district has been covered by 3 blocks namely, Dirang, Kalaktang and Nafra-Buragaon.

The Panchayat Raj has been introduced in the district with the North East Frontier Agency, Panchayat Raj Regulation, 1967. Under this regulation (1) the Gram Sabhas exist at the village level (2) the Anchal Saniti cover the level of blocks and Zilla Parishad operates at the district level. The regulation provides for effective participation of the people in the administration through the institutions set up under the Panchayat Raj scheme.
