DIST. COLLECTOR.

WARANGAL.

30th September 1985

MESSAGE

I am extremely happy to note that the Chief Planning Officer, Warangal is bringing out the Hand Book of Mandal Statistics. This attempt being the first in the district will be an important achievement in the direction towards Micro-level planning. The publication is very much useful in visualising the salient features of the Mandal Economy. The data recorded at the grass-root level and compiled into the Hand Book will help all those involved in the planning for the economic development of the Mandals.

I wish the planners to make use of the information in the preparation of systematic plans for the Mandals.

PANKAJ DWIVEDI COLLECTOR.

FOREWARD

In the month of August, 1985, Hand Books of Statistics for each of the 50 Mandals in the District were printed and published. Subsequently, it has been directed to bring out an abstract of all the Mandals. This consolidated volume with Mandalwise information would be more usefull in formulating the schemes for the development of infrastructural facilities at and around the Mandal Headquarters, and for creating institutions essential for the Welfare of the rural population.

Hereafter, Mandal being the unit of Planning and administration, this Hand Book helps to locate the existence of amenities, and to identify the functional and institutional gaps within the geographical limits of the Mandal. The important economic indicators given at the end of the volume exhibit the comparative levels at which the economy of the Mandal stands, and suggest to the Planners as to the course of action inevitable for all-round development of the Mandals.

In this herculean task, the District Collector's co-operation and assistance have played an effective role in bringing out the Publication not only intime but also strictly as per the specifications indicated by the Government.

Similarly, prompt and proper direction from the Director, Bureau of Economics and Statistics has helped the District Planning machinery in this venture, and to rise upto the expectations.

The co-operation from the Block Development Officers and Mandal Revenue Officers in sparing the services of Progress Assistants and Taluk Statistical Assistants for compiling the Hand Books needs appreciation.

Finally, I thank all those directed, advised, co-operated and assisted in making this particular programme a success.

September, 1985
Warangal.
