CHAPTER II

The Institutes

Incorporation of institutes

4. (1) Each of the Institutes mentioned in Section 2 shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal and shall, by its name, sue and be sued.

(A) The College of Engineering and Technology, Delhi shall, on such incorporation, be called the Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi.

(2) The body corporate constituting each of the said Institutes shall consist of a Chairman, a Director and other members of the Board for the time being of the Institute.

Effect of incorporation of institutes

5. On and from the commencement of this Act,--

(a) any reference to a society in any law (other than this Act) or in any contract or other instrument shall be deemed as a reference to the corresponding Institute;

(b) all property, movable and immovable, of or belonging to a society shall vest in the corresponding Institute;

(c) all the rights and liabilities of a society shall be transferred to, and be the rights and liabilities of, the corresponding Institute; and

(d) every person employed by a society immediately before such commencement shall hold his office or service in the corresponding Institute by the same tenure, at the same remuneration and upon the same terms and conditions and with the same rights and privileges as to pension, leave, gratuity, provident fund and other matters as he would have held the same if this Act had not been passed, and shall continue to do so unless and until his employment is terminated or until such tenure, remuneration and terms and conditions are duly altered by the Statutes:

Provided that if the alteration so made is not acceptable to such employee, his employment may be terminated by the Institute in accordance with the terms of contract with the employee or, if no provision is made therein in this behalf, on payment to him by the Institute of compensation equivalent to three months' remuneration in the case of permanent employees and one month's remuneration in the case of other employees.

6. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every Institute shall exercise the following powers and perform the following duties, namely:--

Institutes

(a) to provide for instruction and research in such branches of engineering and technology, sciences and arts, as the Institute may think fit, and for the advancement of learning and dissemination of knowledge in such branches;

(b) to hold examinations and grant degrees, diplomas and other academic distinctions or titles;

(c) to confer honorary degrees or other distinctions;

(d) to fix, demand and receive fees and other charges;

(e) to establish, maintain and manage halls and hostels for the residence of students;

(f) to supervise and control the residence and regulate the discipline of students of the Institute and to make arrangements for promoting their health, general welfare and cultural and corporate life;

(g) to provide for the maintenance of units of the National Cadet Corps for the students of the Institute;

(h) to institute academic and other posts and to make appointments thereto (except in the case of the Director);

(i) to frame Statutes and Ordinances and to alter, modify or rescind the same;

(j) to deal with any property belonging to or vested in the Institute in such manner as the Institute may deem fit for advancing the objects of the Institute;

(k) to receive gifts, grants, donations or benefactions from the Government and to receive bequests, donations and transfers of movable or immovable properties from testators, donors or transferers, as the case may be;

(l) to co-operate with educational or other institutions in any part of the world having objects wholly or partly similar to those of the Institute by exchange of teachers and scholars and generally in such manner as may be conducive to their common objects;

(m) to institute and award fellowships, scholarships, exhibitions, prizes and medals; and

(n) to do all such things as may be necessary, incidental or conducive to the attainment of all or any of the objects of the Institute.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), an Institute shall not dispose of in any manner any immovable property without the prior approval of the Visitor.

Institutes to be open to all races, creeds and classes.

7. (1) Every Institute shall be open to persons of either sex and of whatever race, creed, caste or class, and no test or condition shall be imposed as to religious belief or profession in admitting or appointing members, students, teachers or workers or in any other connection whatsoever.

(2) No bequest, donation or transfer of any property shall be accepted by any Institute which, in the opinion of the Council, involves conditions or obligations opposed to the spirit and object of this section.

Teaching at Institute.

8. All teaching at each of the Institutes shall be conducted by or in the name of the Institute in accordance with the Statutes and Ordinances made in this behalf.

Visitor.

9. (1) The President of India shall be the Visitor of every Institute.

(2) The Visitor may appoint one or more persons to review the work and progress of any Institute and to hold inquiries into the affairs thereof and to report thereon in such manner as the Visitor may direct.

(3) Upon receipt of any such report, the Visitor may take such action and issue such directions as he considers necessary in respect of any of the matters dealt with in the report and the Institute shall be bound to comply with such directions.

Author-
Institutes.

10. The following shall be the authorities of an Institute, namely:--

- (a) a Board of Governors;
- (b) a Senate; and
- (c) such other authorities as may be declared by the Statutes to be the authorities of the Institute.

11. The Board of an Institute shall consist of the following persons, namely:-- ors.

Board of

- (a) the Chairman, to be nominated by the Visitor;
- (b) the Director, ex officio;
- (c) one person to be nominated by the Government of each of the States comprising the zone in which the Institute is situated, from among persons who, in the opinion of that Government, are technologists or industrialists of repute;
- (d) four persons having special knowledge or practical experience in respect of education, engineering or science, to be nominated by the Council; and
- (e) two professors of the Institute, to be nominated by the Senate.

Explanation .-- In this section, the expression "zone" means a zone as for the time being demarcated by the All-India Council for Technical Education for the purposes of this Act.

12. (1) Save as otherwise provided in this section, the term of office of the Chairman or any other member of the Board shall be three years from the date of his nomination.

- (g) exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be conferred or imposed upon it by this Act or the Statutes.

Senate 14. The Senate of each Institute shall consist of the following persons, namely:--

- (a) the Director, ex-officio who shall be the Chairman of the Senate;
- (b) the Deputy Director, ex-officio ;
- (c) the professors appointed or recognised as such by the Institute for the purpose of imparting instruction in the Institute;
- (d) three persons, not being employees of the Institute, to be nominated by the Chairman in consultation with the Director, from among educationists of repute, one each from the fields of science, engineering and humanities; and
- (e) such other members of the staff as may be laid down in the Statutes.

Func-
Senate

15. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Statutes and the Ordinances, the Senate of an Institute shall have the control and general regulation, and be responsible for the maintenance, of standards of instruction, education and examination in the Institute and shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be conferred or imposed upon it by the Statutes.

Chairman of Board.

16. (1) The Chairman shall ordinarily preside at the meetings of the Board and at the Convocations of the Institute.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Chairman to ensure that the decisions taken by the Board are implemented.

(3) The Chairman shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by this Act or the Statutes.

17. (1) The Director of each Institute shall be appointed by the Council with the prior approval of the Visitor.

Director.

(2) The Director shall be the principal academic and executive officer of the Institute and shall be responsible for the proper administration of the Institute and for the imparting of instruction and maintenance of discipline therein.

(3) The Director shall submit annual reports and accounts to the Board.

(4) The Director shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by this Act or the Statutes or Ordinances.

18. The Deputy Director of each Institute shall be appointed on such terms and conditions as may be laid down by the Statutes and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by this Act or the Statutes or by the Director.

Deputy Director.

19. (1) The Registrar of each Institute shall be appointed on such terms and conditions as may be laid down by the Statutes and shall be the custodian of records, the common seal, the funds of the Institute and such other property of the Institute as the Board shall commit to his charge.

Registrar.

(2) The Registrar shall act as the Secretary of the Board, the Senate, and such committees as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(3) The Registrar shall be responsible to the Director for the proper discharge of his functions.

(4) The Registrar shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by this Act or the Statutes or by the Director.

20. The powers and duties of authorities and officers other than those hereinbefore mentioned shall be determined by the Statutes.

Other authorities and officers.

21. For the purpose of enabling the Institutes to discharge their functions efficiently under this Act, the Central Government may, after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in this behalf, pay to each Institute in each financial year such sums of money and in such manner as it may think fit.

Grants by Central Government.

22. (1) Every Institute shall maintain a Fund to which shall be credited--

Fund of the Institute.

(a) all moneys provided by the Central Government;

(b) all fees and other charges received by the Institute;

(c) all moneys received by the Institute by way of grants, gifts, donations, benefactions, bequests or transfers; and

(d) all moneys received by the Institute in any other manner or from any other source.

(2) All moneys credited to the Fund of any Institute shall be deposited in such Banks or invested in such manner as the Institute may, with the approval of the Central Government, decide.

(3) The Fund of any Institute shall be applied towards meeting the expenses of the Institute including expenses incurred in the exercise of its powers and discharge of its duties under this Act.

Accounts and audit

23. (1) Every Institute shall maintain proper accounts and other relevant records and prepare an annual statement of accounts, including the balance-sheet, in such form as may be prescribed by the Central Government in consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.

(2) The accounts of every Institute shall be audited by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India and any expenditure incurred by him in connection with such audit shall be payable by the Institute to the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.

(3) The Comptroller and Auditor-General of India and any person appointed by him in connection with the audit of the accounts of any Institute shall have the same rights, privileges and authority in connection with such audit as the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India has in connection with the audit of the Government accounts, and, in particular, shall have the right to demand the production of books, accounts, connected vouchers and other documents and papers and to inspect the offices of the Institute.

(4) The accounts of every Institute as certified by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India or any other person appointed by him in this behalf together with the audit report thereon shall be forwarded annually to the Central Government and that Government shall cause the same to be laid before each House of Parliament.

Pension
and Provi-
Fund.

24. (1) Every Institute shall constitute for the benefit of its employees, including the Director, in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Statutes, such pension, insurance and provident funds as it may deem fit.

(2) Where any such provident fund has been so constituted, the Central Government may declare that the provisions of the Provident Funds Act, 1925 (Act 19 of 1925) shall apply to such fund as if it were a Government Provident Fund.

25. All appointments on the staff of any Institute, except that of the Director, shall be made in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Statutes, by-- ments.

(a) the Board, if the appointment is made on the academic staff in the post of Lecturer or above or if the appointment is made on the non-academic staff in any cadre the maximum of the pay-scale for which exceeds six hundred rupees per month;

(h) any other matter which by this Act or the Statutes is to be or may be provided for by the Ordinances.

Ordi-
made.

29 . (1) Save as otherwise provided in this section, Ordinances shall be made by the Senate.

(2) All Ordinances made by the Senate shall have effect from such date as it may direct, but every Ordinance so made shall be submitted, as soon as may be, to the Board and shall be considered by the Board at its next succeeding meeting.

(3) The Board shall have power by resolution to modify or cancel any such Ordinance and such Ordinance shall from the date of such resolution, stand modified accordingly or cancelled, as the case may be.

30 . (1) Any dispute arising out of a contract between an Institute and any of its employees shall, at the request of the employee concerned or at the instance of the Institute, be referred to a Tribunal of Arbitration consisting of one member appointed by the Institute, one member nominated by the employee, and an umpire appointed by the Visitor.

Tribunal
tration.

(2) The decision of the Tribunal shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court.

(3) No suit or proceeding shall lie in any court in respect of any matter which is required by subsection (1) to be referred to the Tribunal of Arbitration.

(4) The Tribunal of Arbitration shall have power to regulate its own procedure.

(5) Nothing in any law for the time being in force relating to arbitration shall apply to arbitrations under this section.

CHAPTER III

The Council

31. (1) With effect from such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf, there shall be established a central body to be called the Council.

(2) The Council shall consist of the following members, namely:-

(a) the Minister in charge of technical education in the Central Government, ex-officio, as Chairman;

(b) the Chairman of each Institute, ex-officio;

(f) the Chairman of the Council of the Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore, ex-officio;

(g) the Director of the Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore, ex-officio;

(h) three persons to be nominated by the Central Government, one to represent the Ministry concerned with technical education, another to represent the Ministry of Finance and the third to represent any other Ministry;

(i) one person to be nominated by the All-India Council for Technical Education;

(j) not less than three, but not more than five, persons to be nominated by the Visitor, who shall be persons having special knowledge or practical experience in respect of education, industry, science or technology;

(k) three Members of Parliament, of whom two shall be elected by the House of the People from among its members and one by the Council of States from among its members.

(3) An officer of the Ministry of the Central Government concerned with technical education shall be nominated by that Government to act as the Secretary of the Council.

Term of office of, vacancies among, and allowances payable to, members of Council.

32. (1) Save as otherwise provided in this section, the term of office of a member of the Council shall be three years from the date of his nomination or election, as the case may be.

(2) The term of office of an ex officio member shall continue so long as he holds the office by virtue of which he is a member.

(3) A member of the Council referred to in clause (h) of sub-section (2) of section 31 shall hold office during the pleasure of the Central Government.

(4) The term of office of a member elected under clause (k) of sub-section (2) of section 31 shall expire as soon as he ceases to be a member of the House which elected him.

(5) The term of office of a member nominated or elected to fill a casual vacancy shall continue for the remainder of the term of the member in whose place he has been nominated or elected.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, an out-going member shall, unless the Central Government otherwise directs, continue in office until another person is nominated or elected as a member in his place.

(7) The members of the Council shall be paid such travelling and other allowances by the Central Government as may be determined by that Government, but no member shall be entitled to any salary by reason of this sub-section.

Functions of Council

33. (1) It shall be the general duty of the Council to co-ordinate the activities of all the Institutes.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Council shall perform the following functions, namely:--

(a) to advise on matters relating to the duration of the courses, the degrees and other academic distinctions to be conferred by the Institutes, admission standards and other academic matters;

(b) to lay down policy regarding cadres, methods of recruitment and conditions of service of employees, institution of scholarships and freeships, levying of fees and other matters of common interest;

(c) to examine the development plans of each Institute and to approve such of them as are considered necessary and also to indicate broadly the financial implications of such approved plans;

(d) to examine the annual budget estimates of each Institute and to recommend to the Central Government the allocation of funds for that purpose;

(e) to advise the Visitor, if so required, in respect of any function to be performed by him under this Act; and

34 . (1) The Chairman of the Council shall ordinarily preside at the meetings of the Council.

Chairman of Council.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Chairman of the Council to ensure that the decisions taken by the Council are implemented.

(3) The Chairman shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as are assigned to him by this Act.

35. (1) The Central Government may make rules to carry out the purposes of this Chapter.

Power to make rules in respect of matters in this Chapter.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:--

(a) the manner of filling vacancies among the members of the Council;

(b) the disqualifications for being chosen as, and for being, a member of the Council;

(c) the circumstances in which, and the authority by which, members may be removed;

(d) the meetings of the Council and the procedure of conducting business thereat;

(e) the travelling and other allowances payable to members of the Council; and

CHAPTER IV
Miscellaneous

Acts and Proceedings not to be invalidated by vacancies, etc.

36. No act of the Council, or any Institute or Board or Senate or any other body set up under this Act or the Statutes, shall be invalid merely by reason of--

(a) any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution thereof, or

(b) any defect in the election, nomination or appointment of a person acting as a member thereof, or

(c) any irregularity in its procedure not affecting the merits of the case.

Power to remove
ties.

37. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provision or give such direction not inconsistent with the provision or purposes of this Act, as appears to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.

Transitional provi-

38. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act,--

(a) the Board of Governors of an Institute functioning as such immediately before the commencement of this Act shall continue to so function until a new Board is constituted for that Institute under this Act, but on the constitution of a new Board under this Act, the members of the Board holding office before such constitution shall cease to hold office;

(b) the staff Committee constituted in relation to the College of Engineering and Technology, Delhi and any Academic Council constituted in relation to any other Institute before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to be the Senate constituted under this Act until a Senate is constituted under this Act for that Institute;

(c) until the first Statutes and the Ordinances are made under this Act, the Statutes and Ordinances of the Indian Institute of Technology, Kharagpur as in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall continue to apply to that Institute and shall, with the necessary modifications and adaptations, also apply to any other Institute, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

Repeal
savings.

39. (1) The Indian Institute of Technology (Kharagpur) Act, 1956 (Act 5 of 1956) is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, the provisions of the said Act set out in the Schedule shall continue to have effect:

Provided that in the said provisions, the expression "this Act" means the said provisions.

THE SCHEDULE
(See section 39)

Provisions of the Indian Institute of Technology (Kharagpur) Act, 1956, continued in force.

2. Whereas the objects of the institution known as the Indian Institute of Technology at Kharagpur in the district of Midnapore in the State of West Bengal are such as to make the institution one of national importance, it is hereby declared that the institution known as the Indian Institute of Technology, Kharagpur, is an institution of national importance.

3. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,--

- (b) "Board" means the Board of Governors of the Institute;
- (c) "Chairman" means the Chairman of the Board;
- (e) "Director" means the Director of the Institute;
- (g) "Institute" means the Institute known as the Indian Institute of Technology, Kharagpur, incorporated under this Act.

4. (1) The first Chairman, the first Director and the first members of the Board who shall be the persons appointed in this behalf by the Central Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, and all persons, who may hereafter become or be appointed as officers or members of the Board, so long as they continue to hold such office or membership, are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name of the Indian Institute of Technology, Kharagpur.

2. The Board

(1) The bodies entitled to nominate or elect representatives on the Board shall be invited by the Registrar to do so within a reasonable time not ordinarily exceeding eight weeks from the date on which such invitations are issued by him. The same procedure shall be followed for filling casual vacancies on the Board.

(3) Meetings of the Board shall be convened by the Chairman either on his own initiative or at the request of the Director or on a requisition signed by not less than three members of the Board.

(4) Six members shall form a quorum for a meeting of the Board.

Provided that if a meeting is adjourned for want of quorum, it shall be held on the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other day and such other time and place as the Chairman may determine and if at such a meeting, a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding a meeting, the members present shall be a quorum.

(5) All questions considered at the meetings of the Board shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present including the Chairman. If the votes be equally divided, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

(6) The Chairman, if present, shall preside at every meeting of the Board. In his absence, the members present shall elect one from amongst themselves to preside at the meeting.

(7) A written notice of every meeting shall be sent by the Registrar to every member at least three weeks before the date of the meeting. The notice shall state the place, the date and time of the meeting.

Provided that the Chairman may call a special meeting of the Board at short notice to consider urgent special issues.

(8) The notice may be delivered either by hand or sent by registered post at the address of each member as recorded in the office of the Board and if so sent, shall be deemed to be duly delivered at the time at which notice would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

(9) Agenda shall be circulated by the Registrar to the members at least ten days before the meeting.

(10) Notices of motions for inclusion of any item on the agenda must reach the Registrar at least one week before the meeting. The Chairman may, however, permit inclusion of any item for which due notice has not been received.

(11) The ruling of the Chairman in regard to all questions of procedure shall be final.

(12) The minutes of the proceedings of a meeting of the Board shall be drawn up by the Registrar and circulated to all members of the Board present in India. The minutes, along with any amendment suggested, shall be placed for confirmation at the next meeting of the Board. After the minutes are confirmed and signed by the Chairman, they shall be recorded in a minute book which shall be kept open for inspection of the members of the Board and the Council at all times during office hours.

(13) If a member of the Board fails to attend three consecutive meetings without leave of absence from the Board, he shall cease to be a member of the Board.

3. Authentication of Orders and Decisions of the Board

All orders and decisions of the Board shall be authenticated by the signature of the Registrar or any other person authorised by the Board in this behalf.

4. The Senate

(1) In addition to the persons mentioned in Section 14 of the Act, the following shall be the members of the Senate, namely:--

- (a) Heads of Departments, Centres, Schools or Divisions other than Professors;
- (b) The Librarian of the Institute;
- (c) One Warden by rotation in order of seniority in service as Warden, for a period of one year;
- (d) Workshop Superintendent of the Institute;
- (e) Not more than six other members of the staff for their special knowledge appointed by the Chairman after consultation with the Director for such period as may be specified by the Chairman.

(2) Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Senate shall have the power to--

- (a) frame and revise curricula and syllabi for the courses of studies for the various Departments;
- (b) make arrangements for the conduct of examinations; appoint examiners, moderators, tabulators and the like;
- (c) declare the results of the examinations or to appoint Committees or Officers to do so and to make recommendations to the Board regarding conferment or grant of degrees, diplomas and other academic distinctions or titles;
- (d) appoint Advisory Committees or Expert Committees or both for the Departments of the Institute to make recommendation on academic matters connected with the working of the Department, the Head of the Department concerned shall act as convener of such Committee;
- (e) appoint Committees from amongst the members of the Senate, other teachers of the Institute and experts from outside to advise on such specific academic matters as may be referred to any such Committee by the Senate;
- (f) consider the recommendations of the Advisory Committees attached to various departments and that of Expert and other Committees and take such action (including the making of recommendations to the Board) as circumstances of each case may require;
- (g) make periodical review of the activities of the departments and take appropriate action (including the making of recommendations to the Board);

(h) supervise the working of the Library;

(i) promote research within the Institute and require reports on such research from the persons engaged thereon;

(j) provide for the inspection of the classes and the Halls of Residence in respect of the instructions and discipline therein, supervise the co-curricular activities of the students of the Institute and submit reports thereon to the Board;

(k) award stipends, scholarships, medals and prizes and make other awards in accordance with the Ordinances and such other conditions as may be attached to the awards;

(l) make recommendations to the Board with regard to (i) the creation of posts on the Academic Staff and the abolition thereof and (ii) the emoluments and duties attached to such posts.

(3) The Senate shall meet as often as is necessary but not less than four times during a calendar year.

(4) Meetings of the Senate shall be convened by the Chairman of the Senate either on his own initiative or on a requisition signed by not less than 20% of the members of the Senate. Requisition meeting shall be a special meeting to discuss only those items of agenda for which requisition is made. The Requisition meeting shall be convened by the Chairman of the Senate on date and time convenient to him within 15 days of the notice given for such a requisition.

(5) One half of the total number of members of the Senate shall form a quorum for a meeting of the Senate.

(6) The Director, if present, shall preside at every meeting of the Senate. In his absence, the Deputy Director shall preside and in the absence of both the Director and the Deputy Director, the senior-most of the Professors present shall preside at the meeting.

(7) A written notice of every meeting, together with the agenda, shall be circulated by the Registrar to the members of the Senate at least a week before the meeting. The Chairman of the Senate may, however, permit inclusion of any item for which due notice could not be given.

(8) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-statute (7), the Director may call an emergency meeting of the Senate at short notice to consider urgent special issues.

(9) The ruling of the Chairman of the Senate in regard to all questions of procedure shall be final.

(10) The minutes of the proceedings of a meeting of the Senate shall be drawn up by the Registrar and circulated to all the members of the Senate present in India, provided that any such minute shall not be circulated if the Senate considers such circulation prejudicial to the interests of the Institute. The minutes, along with amendments, if any, suggested shall be placed for confirmation at the next meeting of the Senate. After the minutes are confirmed and signed by the Chairman of the Senate, they shall be recorded in a minute book which shall be kept open for inspection of the members of the Senate, the Board and the Council at all times during office hours.

5 . Finance Committee

(1) It is hereby declared that the Finance Committee, hereafter in this Sub-Statute referred to as 'Committee', shall also be an authority within the meaning of Section 10 of the Act and shall consist of the following persons, namely:--

- (a) the Chairman, ex officio , who shall be the Chairman of the Committee;
- (b) two persons nominated by the Central Government;

- (a) examine and scrutinise the annual budget of the Institute prepared by the Director and make recommendations to the Board;
- (b) give its views and make its recommendations to the Board either on the initiative of the Board or of the Director, or on its own initiative of any financial question affecting the Institute.

(3) The Committee shall meet at least once a year.

(4) Three members of the Committee shall form a quorum for a meeting of the Committee.

(5) The Chairman, if present, shall preside over the meeting of the Committee. In his absence, the members present shall elect one from amongst themselves to preside over the meeting.

(6) The provisions in these Statutes regarding notices of the meeting, inclusion of items in the agenda and confirmation of the minutes applicable to the meetings of the Board shall, so far as may be, be followed in connection with the meeting of the Committee.

(7) A copy of the minutes of every meeting of the Committee shall be sent to the Board.

6 . Building and Works Committee

(1) It is hereby declared that the Building and Works Committee, hereafter in this sub-Statute referred to as 'Committee', consisting of not less than five and not more than seven members as may be appointed by the Board, shall also be, an authority within the meaning of section 10 of the Act.

(2) The Committee shall perform the following functions and have the following powers, namely:--

(a) It shall be responsible under the direction of the Board for construction of all major capital works after securing from the Board the necessary administrative approval and expenditure sanction.

(b) It shall have the power to give the necessary administrative approval and expenditure sanction for minor works and works pertaining to maintenance and repairs, within the grant placed at the disposal of the Institute for the purpose.

(c) It shall cause to be prepared estimates of cost of buildings and other capital works, minor works, repairs, maintenance and the like.

(d) It shall be responsible for making technical scrutiny as may be considered necessary by it.

(e) It shall be responsible for enlistment of suitable contractors and acceptance of tenders and shall have the power to give directions for departmental works where necessary.

(f) It shall have the power to settle rates not covered by tender and settle claims and disputes with contractors.

(3) The Committee shall perform such other functions in the matter of construction of buildings and development of land for the Institute as the Board may entrust to it from time to time.

(4) In emergent cases the Chairman of the Committee may exercise the powers of the Committee. Such cases shall be reported by him to the Committee and the Board at the next meeting of the Committee and of the Board.

(5) The Committee shall meet as often as is necessary, but at least twice a year.

(6) Three members shall form a quorum for a meeting of the Committee.

(7) The provisions in these Statutes regarding notices of meeting, inclusion of items in the agenda and confirmation of the minutes applicable to the meeting of the Board shall, so far as may be, be followed in connection with the meeting of the Committee.

7 . The Chairman

(1) The Chairman shall have the power to fix, on the recommendations of the Selection Committee, the initial pay of an incumbent at a stage higher than the minimum of the scale in respect of posts to which appointments can be made by the Board under the provisions of the Act.

(2) The Chairman shall have the power to send the members of the Staff of the Institute for training or for a course of instruction outside India subject to such terms and conditions as may be laid down by the Board from time to time.

(3) Contract of service between the Institute and the Director shall be in writing as set out in Schedule "A" and be expressed to be made in the name of the Institute, and every such contract shall be executed by the Chairman but the Chairman shall not be personally liable in respect of anything under such contract.

(4) In emergent cases the Chairman may exercise the powers of the Board and inform the Board of the action taken by him for its approval.

8. Travelling Allowances

(1) Members of the Board and other Authorities of the Institute and members of the Committees constituted under the Act or these Statutes or appointed by the Board and other authorities, other than Government employees and employees of the Institute, shall be entitled to travelling allowance and daily allowance for attending the meetings of the Authorities and their Committees as laid down by the Board from time to time.

(2) Members of the Board and other Authorities of the Institute and the Committees who are Government employees shall receive travelling allowance and daily allowance from the source from which they draw their salaries at rates admissible to them. If so, required, the Institute shall reimburse the Department/Government concerned.

If, however, required by the members, the Institute shall reimburse the TA or DA as laid down by the Board from time to time, to the members concerned if they declare that they shall not claim TA or DA from other sources.

Provided that the Institute may pay to the aforesaid Government employees travelling allowance and daily allowance at the rates admissible to them, if they have been authorised by the appropriate Government to receive such travelling allowance and daily allowance.

9. The Director

(1) Subject to the budget provisions made for the specific purpose, the Director shall have the power to incur expenditure in accordance with the procedure as may be laid down by the Board from time to time.

(2) The Director shall have the power to reappropriate funds with respect to different items constituting the recurring budget upto a limit of Rs.10,000 for each item, provided that such reappropriation will not involve any liability in future years. Every such reappropriation shall, as soon as possible, be reported to the Board.

(3) The Director shall have the power to waive recovery of overpayment upto Rs.500 to a member of the staff whose basic pay is Rs.500 per mensem or less, not detected within twenty-four months of payment. Every such waiver shall, as soon as possible, be reported to the Board.

(4) The Director shall have the power to write off irrecoverable losses upto Rs.1,000 and of irrecoverable value of stores lost or rendered unserviceable due to fair wear and tear upto Rs.5,000/- in any individual case subject to such stipulations as may be made by the Board from time to time.

(5) The Director shall have the power to fix, on the recommendations of the Selection Committee, the initial pay of an incumbent at a stage higher than the minimum of the scale, but not involving more than five increments, in respect of posts to which appointment can be made by him under the powers vested in him by the provisions of the Act.

(6) The Director shall have the power to employ technicians and workmen paid from contingencies involving emoluments not exceeding Rs.7 per head per day.

(7) The Director shall have the power to send members of the staff for training or for a course of instruction inside India subject to such terms and conditions as may be laid down by the Board from time to time.

(8) The Director shall have the power to sanction remission or reduction of rents for buildings rendered wholly or partially unsuitable.

(9) The Director shall have the power to sanction temporary allocation of any building for any purpose other than that for which it was constructed.

(10) In exceptional cases, subject to the availability of funds, the Director shall have the power to create temporary posts with the approval of the Chairman, of not more than two years' duration on approved scales of pay under report to the Board, provided that no such post, of which the Director is not the appointing authority, shall be so created.

(11) The Director shall have the power of a Head of Department for purposes of rules in the Account Code, the Fundamental and Supplementary Rules and other rules of the Government in so far as they are applicable or may be made applicable to the conduct of the business of the Institute.

(12) If, for any reason, the Registrar is temporarily absent for a period not exceeding one month, the Director may take over, or assign to any member of the staff of the Institute, any of the functions of the Registrar as he deems fit. Provided that if, at any time, the temporary absence of the Registrar exceeds one month, the Board may, if it thinks fit, authorise the Director to take over or assign the function of the Registrar as aforesaid, for a period exceeding one month.

(13) All contracts for and on behalf of the Institute, except the one between the Institute and the Directors shall, when authorised by a resolution of the Board passed in that behalf, be in writing and be expressed to be made in the name of the Institute, and every such contract shall be executed on behalf of the Institute by the Director, but the Director shall not be personally liable in respect of anything under such contract.

(14) The Director may, during his absence from headquarters, authorise the Deputy Director or the senior-most Professor present, to sanction advances for travelling allowance, contingencies and medical treatment of the staff and sign and countersign bills on his behalf and authorise him for assuming such powers of Director as may be specifically delegated to the Deputy Director or Senior-most Professor or Dean present by him in writing.

(15) The Director may, at his discretion, constitute such Committees as he may consider appropriate.

(16) In the event of the occurrence of any vacancy in the office of the Chairman by reason of his death, resignation, or otherwise, or in the event of the Chairman being unable to discharge his functions owing to absence, illness or any other cause, the Director may discharge the functions assigned to the Chairman under Statute 7.

(17) The Director may, with the approval of the Board, delegate any of his powers, responsibilities and authorities vested in him by the Act and Statutes to one or more members of academic or administrative staff of the Institute.

10 . The Deputy Director

The Deputy Director shall assist the Director in academic and administrative work and in maintaining liaison with other institutions of higher learning and research and also with industrial undertakings and other employers.

11 . Classification of the Members of the Staff of the Institute

(4) In the absence of the Director, any member of the staff of the Institute, who is appointed to perform the current duties of the Director, shall be the Chairman of the Selection Committees in the place of the Director.

(5) In the absence of the Deputy Director, the Director may nominate any member of the staff of the Institute to work on the Selection Committees in his place.

(6) Where a post is to be filled on contract basis or by invitation, the Chairman, may, at his discretion, constitute such ad hoc Selection Committees, as circumstances of each case may require.

(7) Where a post is to be filled by promotion from amongst the members of the Institute or temporarily for a period not exceeding twelve months, the Board shall lay down the procedure to be followed.

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Statutes, the Board shall have the power to make appointments of persons trained under "approved" programmes in such manner as it may deem appropriate. The Board will maintain a schedule of such "approved" programmes.

(9) If the post is to be filled by advertisement, the terms and conditions of the post shall be advertised by the Registrar and all applications received within the date specified in the advertisement shall be considered by the Selection Committee.

Provided that the Selection Committee may, for sufficient reasons, consider any application received after the date so specified.

(10) The Selection Committee shall examine the credentials of all persons who have applied and may also consider other suitable names suggested, if any, by a member of the Selection Committee or brought otherwise to the notice of the Committee. The Selection Committee may interview any of the candidates as it thinks fit and shall, at the discretion of its Chairman, cause a written test or tests to be held for all or some of the candidates as the Chairman may think fit, and shall make its recommendations to the Board or the Director, as the case may be, the names of the selected candidates being arranged in order of merit.

(11) No act or proceeding of any Selection Committee shall be called in question on the ground merely of the absence of any member or members of the Selection Committee.

Provided that, if any meeting of the Selection Committee is found necessary, the Registrar shall give notice of the meeting to the members of the Committee at least a fortnight before the date of the meeting.

(12) Unless otherwise provided for under these Statutes, a Selection Committee constituted for the purpose of making recommendations for appointment to a post shall be eligible to exercise its functions in relation to that post until the time the appointment is made.

(13) A candidate applying for a post under the Institute shall be charged application fees at the rates detailed below:--

| (c) Post carrying a scale of pay, the initial salary of which is Rs.400 or over per mensem | Rs. 7 50 |

Provided that the candidates belonging to Scheduled castes and Scheduled Tribes and displaced persons may be granted such concessions in the payment of application fees as may be decided by the Board from time to time.

(14) Candidates selected for interview for a post under the Institute may be paid such travelling allowances as may be determined by the Board from time to time in this behalf.

(15) All appointments made at the Institute shall be reported to the Board at its next meeting.

13. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE OF PERMANENT EMPLOYEES

Permanent employees of the Institute shall be governed by the following terms and conditions, namely:--

(1) Every appointment shall be subject to the conditions that the appointee is certified as being in sound health and physically fit for service in India by a medical authority nominated by the Board.

Provided that the Board may, for sufficient reasons, relax the medical requirements in any particular case or cases or dispense with such medical examination in any case or class of cases, subject to such conditions, if any, as may be laid down by the Board.

(2) Subject to the provisions of the Act and the Statutes, all appointments to posts in the Institute shall ordinarily be made on probation for a period of one year after which the appointee, if confirmed, shall continue to hold his office subject to the provisions of the Act and the Statutes, till the end of the month in which he attains the age of 60 years.

Provided that where the Board considers that in the interests of students and for the purposes of teaching and guiding the research scholars, any member of the academic staff should be re-employed, it may re-employ such a member till the end of the semester or the academic session as may be considered appropriate in the circumstances of each case.

Provided further that where it becomes necessary to re-employ any such member beyond the end of the semester or academic session as the case may be, the Board may, with the previous approval of the Visitor re-employ any such member for a period upto three years in the first instance and upto two years thereafter and in no case exceeding the end of the academic session in which he attains the age of 65 years.

Provided also that in no circumstances such member shall be re-employed for any purposes other than those of teaching and guiding the research scholars.

(3) The appointing authority shall have the power to extend the period of probation of any employee of the Institute for such periods as may be found necessary, provided that if, after the period of probation, the official is not confirmed, and, his probation is also not formally extended, he shall be deemed to have continued on a temporary basis and that his services may then be terminable on a month's notice or on payment of a month's salary in lieu thereof.

(a) Every graduate engineer appointed at the Institute on or after 1st July 1969, shall, if so required, be liable to serve in India or abroad in any defence services or post connected with the defence of India for a period of not less than four years including the period spent on training, if any.

Provided that such person --

(i) shall not be required to serve as aforesaid after the expiry of ten years from the date of such appointment, and

(ii) shall not ordinarily be required to serve as aforesaid after attaining the age of forty years.

(4) An employee of the Institute shall devote his whole time to the service of the Institute and shall not engage directly or indirectly, in any trade or business or any other work which may interfere with the proper discharge of his duties, but the prohibition herein contained shall not apply to academic work and consultative practice undertaken with the prior permission of the Director, which may be given subject to such conditions as regards the acceptance of remuneration as may be laid down by the Board.

(5) The appointing authority shall have the power to terminate the service of any member of the staff without notice and without any cause assigned during the period of probation.

(6) The appointing authority shall have the power to terminate the services of any member of the staff by three months' notice or on payment of three months' salary in lieu thereof, if, on medical grounds, certified by a medical authority nominated by the Board, his retention in service is considered undesirable by such appointing authority.

(7) The Board shall have the power to terminate the services of any member of the staff on grounds of retrenchment or economy by giving the persons concerned six months' notice in writing or on payment of six months' salary in lieu thereof.

(8) An employee of the Institute may terminate his engagement by giving the appointing authority three months' notice, provided that the appointing authority may, for sufficient reasons, either reduce this period or call upon the employee concerned to continue till the end of the academic session in which the notice is received.

(9) The Director may place a member of the staff appointed at the Institute under suspension--

(a) where a disciplinary proceeding against him is contemplated or is pending, or

(b) where a case against him in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation or trial.

During the period of suspension, the member of the staff shall be entitled to the following payments, namely:--

(a) a subsistence allowance at an amount equal to the leave salary which the staff member would have drawn if he had been on leave on half average pay or on half pay and in addition, dearness allowance, if admissible on the basis of such leave salary:

Provided that where the period of suspension exceeds six months, the Director shall be empowered to vary the amount of subsistence allowance for any period subsequent to the period of the first six months as follows:

(i) The amount of subsistence allowance may be increased by a suitable amount not exceeding 50% of the subsistence allowance admissible during the period of the first six months, if, in the opinion of the Director the period of suspension has been prolonged for reasons to be recorded in writing, not directly attributable to the staff member;

(ii) the amount of subsistence allowance may be reduced by a suitable amount, not exceeding 50% of the subsistence allowance admissible during the period of the first six months, if, in the opinion of the Director, the period of suspension has been prolonged due to reasons, to be recorded in writing, directly attributable to the staff member;

(iii) the rate of dearness allowance will be based on the increase, or, as the case may be, the decreased amount of subsistence allowances admissible under sub-clauses (i) and (ii) above.

(b) Any other compensatory allowance admissible from time to time on the basis of pay, of which the staff member was in receipt on the date of suspension subject to the fulfilment of other conditions laid down for the drawal of such allowances.

However, no payment shall be made unless the staff member furnished a certificate that he is not engaged in any other employment, business, profession or vocation.

The following penalties may, for good and sufficient reasons, and as hereinafter provided, be imposed on any member of the staff, namely:--

- (i) censure;
- (ii) withholding of increments or promotion;
- (iii) recovery from the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the Institute by negligence or breach of orders;
- (iv) reduction to lower service, grade or post or to a lower time-scale, or to a lower stage in a time-scale;
- (v) compulsory retirement;
- (vi) removal from service which shall not be a disqualification for future employment under the Institute;
- (vii) dismissal from service which shall ordinarily be a disqualification for future employment in the Institute.

No order imposing on any member of the staff any of the penalties specified at (iv) to (vii) above shall be passed by any authority subordinate to that by which he was appointed and except after an enquiry has been held and the member of the staff concerned has been given reasonable opportunity of showing cause of the action proposed to be taken in regard to him.

No order imposing on any member of the staff any of the penalties specified at (i) to (iii) above shall be passed by any authority subordinate to that by which he was appointed and unless the member of the staff concerned has been given an opportunity to make a representation to the Appointing Authority.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, it shall not be necessary to follow the procedure mentioned above in the following cases, namely:--

(a) where an employee is dismissed or removed or reduced in rank on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction on a criminal charge;

(b) where the authority empowered to dismiss or remove the person or to reduce him in rank is satisfied that, for some reason to be recorded by that authority in writing, it is not reasonably practicable to give that person an opportunity of showing cause; or

(c) where the Visitor is satisfied that, in the interests of the security of the State, it is not expedient to give that person such an opportunity.

If any question arises whether it is reasonably practicable to give any person an opportunity of showing cause under clause (b) above, the decision thereon of the authority empowered to dismiss or remove such person or to reduce him in rank, as the case may be, shall be final.

(10) A member of the staff aggrieved by any order imposing penalty passed by the Director against him shall be entitled to prefer an appeal to the Board against the order and there shall be no further appeal from the decision of the Board and a member of the staff aggrieved by any order passed by the Board against him inflicting a penalty on him shall be entitled to prefer an appeal to the Visitor against the order.

No appeal under this sub-Statute shall be entertained, unless it is submitted within a period of three months from the date on which the appellant receives a copy of the order appealed against, provided that the Appellate Authority may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period, if it is satisfied that the appellant has sufficient cause for not submitting the appeal in time.

(11) The authority to whom an appeal against an order imposing penalty lies under sub-Statute (10) may, of its own motion or otherwise, call for the records of the case in a disciplinary proceeding, review any order passed in such a case and pass such orders as it deems fit as if the member of the staff concerned had preferred an appeal against such order.

Provided that no action under this sub-Statute shall be initiated more than six months after the date of the order to be reviewed.

(12) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Statute, the Visitor may, on his own motion or otherwise, after calling for the records of the case, review any order which is made under this Statute or is appealable thereunder, and--

- (a) confirm, modify or set aside the order;
- (b) impose any penalty or set aside, reduce, confirm or enhance the penalty imposed by the order;
- (c) remit the case to the authority which made the order or to any other authority directing such further action or enquiry as he considers proper in the circumstances of the case; or
- (d) pass such other orders as he deems fit.

Provided that--

(i) an order imposing or enhancing a penalty shall not be passed unless the person concerned has been given an opportunity of making any representation which he may wish to make against such enhanced penalty;

(ii) if the Visitor proposes to impose any of the penalties specified in clause (iv) to (vii) of sub-Statute (9) in a case where proper enquiry has not been held and thereafter, on consideration of the proceedings of such enquiry and after giving the member of the staff concerned an opportunity of making any representation which he may wish to make against such penalty, he may pass such orders as he deems fit.

(13) The decision of the Appellate Authority under sub-Statute (10) or (11) shall, subject to the provisions of sub-Statute (12), be final.

(14) (i) When a member of the staff of the Institute who has been dismissed, removed or suspended is re-instated, the authority competent to order the re-instatement shall consider and make a specific order:--

- (a) regarding the pay and allowances to be paid to the member of the staff of the Institute for the period of his absence from duty; and
- (b) whether or not the said period shall be treated as a period spent on duty.

(ii) Where such competent authority holds that the member of the staff of the Institute has been fully exonerated, or in the case of suspension, that it was wholly unjustified, the member of the staff of the Institute shall be given the full pay to which he would have been entitled had he not been dismissed, removed or suspended, as the case may be, together with any allowance of which he was in receipt prior to his dismissal, removal or suspension.

(iii) In other cases, the member of the staff of the Institute shall be given such proportion of such pay and allowances as such competent authority may prescribe.

Provided that the payment of allowances under clause (ii) or clause (iii) shall be subject to all other conditions under which such allowances are admissible.

(iv) In cases falling under clause (ii) the period of absence from duty shall be treated as a period spent on duty for all purposes.

(v) In cases falling under clause (iii) the period of absence from duty shall not be treated as a period spent on duty, unless such competent authority specifically directs that it shall be so treated for any specified purpose.

(15) The employees of the Institute shall be entitled to travelling and daily allowances according to the scales laid down by the Board from time to time.

(16) The employees of the Institute shall be entitled to reimbursement of medical expenses incurred on themselves and their families as set out in Schedule "A".

(17) The employees of the Institute shall be governed by the Conduct Rules as laid down in Schedule "B".

(18) It shall be for the Council to decide as to the class of employees of the Institute who shall be entitled to vacation.

Decision of the Council:

Vacation Staff: Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor, Lecturer, Associate Lecturer and Assistant Lecturer, Instructor.

Non-Vacation Staff: Director, Deputy Director, Registrar, Asst. Registrar, Accounts Officer, Stores Officer, Office Superintendent, Auditor, Estate Officer, Medical Officer, Scientific Officers, Research Assistants, Librarian, Deputy Librarian, Workshop Superintendent, Foreman, Mechanics, Overseers, Horticultural Assistant, Technical Assistants, Draughtsman, Physical Training Instructors, House Surgeon and other Medical Staff, Storekeepers, Steward and other staff sanctioned by the Institute.

14. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE OF TEMPORARY EMPLOYEES

(i) The service of a temporary employee shall be liable to termination at any time by notice in writing given either by the employee to the appointing authority, or by the appointing authority to the employee. The period of such notice shall be one month, unless otherwise agreed to by the Institute and the employee.

(ii) The other terms and conditions of service of such employee shall be such as may be specified by the appointing authority in his letter of appointment.

15. APPOINTMENT ON CONTRACTS :

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Statutes, the Board may, in special circumstances, appoint an eminent person on contract for a period not exceeding five years, with a provision of renewal for further period, provided that every such appointment and the terms thereof shall be subject to the prior approval of the Visitor.

(2) Subject to the provisions contained in the Act, the Board may appoint any person on contract in the prescribed scales of pay and on the terms and conditions applicable to the relevant post for a period not exceeding five years with a provision of renewal for further period. For making such appointments, the Chairman may, at his discretion, constitute such adhoc Selection Committees, as the circumstances of each case may require.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Statutes, the Council may appoint an eminent person as Director on contract for a period not exceeding five years, with a provision for renewal for further periods provided that every such appointment and terms there of shall be subject to the prior approval of the Visitor.

16. CONTRIBUTORY PROVIDENT FUND

(1) A Compulsory Contributory Provident Fund shall be constituted, maintained and administered for the employees of the Institute in accordance with the provisions set out in Schedule 'C'. All accumulations of the subscribers in the Contributory Provident Fund, maintained for the benefit of the employees of the Institute immediately before the commencement of these Statutes, shall stand transferred to the Compulsory Provident Fund constituted under the Statute and shall be credited to the accounts of the employees entitled thereto in the Fund so constituted. A subscriber shall contribute to the Fund so constituted an amount not less than 8-1/3% of his emoluments but the contribution of the Institute to the said Fund shall be limited to 8-1/3% of the emoluments of the subscriber.

(2) SUBJECT to the provisions contained in Schedule 'C', all permanent employees of the Institute who are appointed either for the first time or re-appointed on or after the 1st April 1962, but not after the 1st January 1971, and who have not otherwise exercised an option to join the Contributory Provident Fund-cum-Gratuity Scheme referred to in Statute 16-A or the General Provident Fund-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity Scheme referred to in Statute 16-B shall join the Contributory Provident Fund.

(3) No employée of the Institute whose services in the Institute entitle him to a pension and gratuity, or on whose account the Institute contributes towards pension, or who has been appointed by the Institute on a consolidated salary or on special terms which exclude the benefits of the Provident Fund shall be entitled to the benefits of the Contributory Provident Fund.

(4) Save as otherwise provided in Statute 16A or 16(B), in the case of an employee leaving the Institute of Central University to join any of the other Institutes or any Central University his accumulation in the contributory provident fund shall be transferred to the Institute or, as the case may be, the University he joins.

16-A CONTRIBUTORY PROVIDENT FUND-CUM-GRATUITY SCHEME

(1) Every employee of the Institute, -

(i) who is referred to in clause (2) of Statute 16, or

(ii) who holds an appointment on a temporary basis but is subscribing or is required to subscribe to the Contributory Provident Fund in terms of sub-paragraph (2A) of Schedule C, or

(iii) who may be appointed either for the first time or re-appointed on or after the 1st January 1971, may exercise an option to join the Contributory Provident Fund-cum-Gratuity Scheme sponsored by the Institute for the benefit of its employees:

Provided that no such option shall be exercised by an employee who has been appointed by the Institute on a consolidated salary or on special terms which exclude the benefits of the Contributory Provident Fund or who has exercised an option for the General Provident Fund-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity Scheme referred to in Statute 16-B.

(2) Any such option shall be exercised in Form I prescribed for the purpose in Appendix I to Schedule E, -

(i) in case of an employee referred to in sub-clause (i) or (ii) within a period of three months from the 1st January 1971 and

(ii) in case of an employee referred to in sub-clause (iii), within a period of three months from the date of completion of one year's temporary continuous service or confirmation whichever is earlier;

(3) On receipt of such option from any of the employees referred to in sub-clause (i) or (ii), all accumulations of any such employee in the Contributory Provident Fund maintained for the benefit of the employees of the Institute immediately before such option was exercised shall stand transferred to the new Contributory Provident Fund less one-third percent of the contribution of the Institute, together with interest thereon which shall revert to the Institute and be credited to its fund.

(3A) (a) Every employee of the Institute -

(i) who is governed by Statute 16 or who has exercised an option under sub-statutes (1) and (2) of Statute 16B or

(ii) who may be appointed either for the first time or reappointed on or after the 1-7-1977 may exercise an option to join the contributory Provident Fund-cum-gratuity scheme sponsored by the Institute for the benefit of its employees:

Provided that no such option shall be exercised by an employee who has been appointed by the Institute on a consolidated salary or on special terms which exclude the benefits of the retirement benefit scheme.

(b) Any such option shall be exercised in Form I prescribed for the purpose in Appendix I to Schedule E within a period of three months from date of issue of this notification and any such option once exercised shall be final.

On receipt of such option from any of the employees referred to in sub clause (i) or (ii) of clause (a) all accumulations of any such employees in the CPF, or GPF-cum-pension-cum-pension-cum-gratuity schemes, maintained for the benefit of the employees of the Institute immediately before such option was exercised, shall stand transferred to the contributory provident fund less one third percent of the contribution of the Institute together with, interest thereon from contributory Provident fund of those governed by Statute 16 shall revert to the Institute and be credited to its fund.

(4) Any such employee shall contribute to the fund so constituted an amount not less than eight and one third per cent of his emoluments but the contribution of the Institute to the said fund shall be restricted to eight per cent of his emoluments.

(5) Any such employee shall, in addition, be also entitled to gratuity, equal to one-fourth of his emoluments for each completed six-monthly period of service subject to a maximum of ~~sixteen~~ ^{and a} times the ~~half~~ ^{half} emoluments or rupees ~~thirty~~ ^{thirty} thousand whichever is less.

(6) Any such employee leaving the Institute or Central University to join any of the other Institutes or any Central University shall join the corresponding scheme of the new Institute or, as the case may be, the University and his accumulations in the fund shall be transferred to the corresponding fund of new Institute or University.

(7) The liability of total gratuity ultimately payable to any such employee shall be distributed between the Institutes in proportion to the length of qualifying service at each Institute.

(8) Save as otherwise provided in this Statute, in all other respects the provisions as contained in the Schedule E to these Statutes shall be applicable for the purposes of this scheme.

16-B. GENERAL PROVIDENT FUND-CUM-PENSION-CUM-GRATUITY SCHEME

- (1) Every employee of the Institute, -
- (i) who is referred to in clause (2) of Statute 16; or
 - (ii) who holds an appointment on a temporary basis, but is subscribing or is required to subscribe to the Contributory Provident Fund in terms of sub-paragraph (2A) of Schedule C; or
 - (iii) who may be appointed either for the first time or re-appointed on or after the 1st January 1971 may exercise an option to join the General Provident Fund-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity Scheme, sponsored by the Institute for the benefit of its employees:

Provided that no such option shall be exercised by an employee who has been appointed by the Institute on a consolidated salary or on special terms which exclude the benefits of the Contributory Provident Fund Scheme or who has exercised an option for the Contributory Provident Fund-cum-Gratuity Scheme referred to in Statute 16-A:

- (2) Any such option shall be exercised in form I prescribed for the purpose in Appendix I to Schedule F, -
- (i) in the case of an employee referred to in sub-clause (i) or (ii) within a period of three months from the 1st January 1971; and
 - (ii) in the case of an employee referred to in sub-clause (iii), within a period of three months from the date of completion of one year's temporary service or confirmation whichever is earlier;

(3) On receipt of such option from any of the employees referred to in sub-clause (i) or (ii), the amount of the contribution of the Institute with interest thereon standing in the credit of the employee in the Contributory Provident Fund shall revert to the Institute and be credited to its fund and the amount of the employee's own contribution to the Contributory Provident Fund after adjustment of advances, if any, taken from the said fund, shall, together with interest thereon, be maintained as his contribution to General Provident Fund to be opened by the Institute for the purpose.

- (3A) (a) Every employee of the Institute -
- (i) who is governed by Statute 16 or who has exercised an option under sub-statutes (1) and (2) of Statute 16A or

- (ii) who may be appointed either for the first time or re-appointed on or after 1-7-1977 may exercise an option to join the General Provident Fund-cum-pension-cum-gratuity scheme, sponsored by the Institute for the benefit of the employees:

Provided that no such option shall be exercised by an employee who has been appointed by the Institute on a consolidated salary or on special terms which exclude the benefits or the retirement benefit schemes.

(b) Any such option shall be exercised in Form I prescribed for the purpose in Appendix I to Schedule F within a period of three months from the date of issue of this notification and any such option once exercised shall be final.

(c) On receipt of such option from any of the employees referred to in sub-clause (i) or (ii) of clause (a) the amount of the contribution of the Institute with interest thereon standing to the credit of the employee in the CPF or GPF-cum-gratuity scheme shall revert to the Institute and be credited to its fund and the amount of the employee's own contribution to the CPF or GPF-cum-gratuity after adjustment of advance if any, taken from the said fund, shall together with interest thereon, be maintained as his contribution to the GPF opened by the Institute for the purpose.

(4) A permanent employee or an employee referred to in sub-clause (ii) of clause (1) who has retired or retires with the Contributory Provident Fund benefits on or after the 1st April 1970, but before the 1st January 1971, shall be granted the benefit of the General Provident Fund-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity Scheme, if he exercises an option in Form II prescribed for the purpose in Appendix I to Schedule F within three months from the 1st January 1971, the contribution of the Institute to his Provident Fund together with interest thereon, if already paid, being adjusted against the Death-cum-Retirement Gratuity admissible to him under the said Scheme and the balance, if any, being refunded to the Institute in cash.

(5) Any such employee shall, in addition, be also entitled to gratuity, equal to one-fourth of his emoluments for each completed six-monthly period of service subject to a maximum of sixteen and a half times emoluments or Rupees thirty four thousand whichever is less.

(6) Any such employee leaving the Institute to join any of the other Institute incorporated under the Act shall join the corresponding Scheme of the new Institute and his accumulations in the fund shall be transferred to the corresponding fund of the new Institute.

(7) The liability of total gratuity and pension ultimately payable to such an employee shall be distributed between the Institute or University in proportion to the length of qualifying service at each Institute or the Institute and the University.

(8) Save as otherwise provided in the State in all other respects the provisions as contained in Schedule F to these Statutes shall be applicable for the purpose of this Scheme:

Provided that as respects payments towards policies of life insurance from subscriptions to the General Provident Fund, the provisions in this behalf contained in Schedule E shall be applicable.

The liability of total pension and gratuity ultimately payable to such an employee shall be distributed between the Institutes in proportion to the periods for which the employee concerned has drawn pay or leave salary from each of the Institutes.

17. VACATION AND LEAVE

(1) Employees of the Institute shall be entitled to vacation and leave as laid down in Schedule 'D'.

(2) The amount of accumulated leave to the credit of a member of the staff in the service of the Institute immediately before the 1st April 1962 shall become available to him after the date subject to the prescribed limit of leave.

(3) When an employee joins the Institute or Central University from any of the other Institutes or any Central University the leave to his credit on the date immediately before the date of such joining shall be carried forward and credited to his leave account in the Institute or Central University which he joins subject to the prescribed limit of accumulation of leave.

18. RESIDENTIAL ACCOMMODATION FOR STAFF

(1) Every employee of the Institute may be allotted an unfurnished house within the campus of the Institute for residential use, if available, in which he shall be required to reside, subject to such conditions as may be laid down by the Board.

(2) (a) An employee of the Institute who has been allotted house for residential use, shall be charged licence fee at the rate of ten per cent of his total emoluments or six per cent per annum of the capital cost (including municipal charges) of the house occupied by him, whichever is less:

Provided that in respect of an employee who draws pay in the revised scale of pay, and whose emoluments are below Rs.440/- per mensem, the licence fee shall be recovered at the rate of seven-and-a-half per cent of his total emoluments or six per cent per annum of the capital cost (including municipal charges) of the house occupied by him, whichever is less.

Provided further that in respect of an employee whose total emoluments are not less than Rs.440/- per mensem in the revised scale of pay, the net emoluments after deduction of licence fee shall not be less than Rs.421.55.

(b) In addition to the licence fee, charges for water, electricity and any other service rendered shall be recovered from an employee at such rates as may be determined by the Director from time to time and in the case of Director, by the Board.

(3) The Board may allot, furnished or unfurnished accommodation without levying any licence fee or levying such fee at concessional rates to any category of staff, if it considers it necessary to do so in the interest of the Institute.

Explanation:- For the purpose of this Statute the expression 'allot' means to grant a licence to an employee of the Institute to occupy a house or a portion thereof, owned or leased by the Institute, for use by him as residence.

SCHEDULE - A A

Medical Attendance and Treatment including Reimbursement of Medical Expenses incurred by the Members of the Staff on themselves and their families

(See Statute 13 (16))

..

1. The provisions contained in this Schedule shall apply to all the employees of the Institute, but they shall not apply to--

(a) those members of the staff who are on leave or deputation abroad,

(b) retired members of the staff, and

(c) work-charged staff who have not put in continuous service of one year and are not employed on monthly rates of pay, staff paid from contingencies, daily labourers and part-time employees.

2. For purposes of reimbursement of medical expenses, members of the staff shall be grouped as under:

GROUP A

(1) Those holding posts carrying a scale of pay, the initial salary of which is Rs.400 per mensem or above, except the Secretary to the Director and Superintendents of Sections.

GROUP B

(2) The Secretary to the Director, the Superintendents of Sections and all those holding posts carrying a scale of pay, the initial salary of which is Rs.110 per mensem or above, but less than Rs.400 per mensem.

GROUP C

(3) Those holding posts carrying a scale of pay, the initial salary of which is less than Rs.110 per mensem.

3. In this Schedule, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,--

(ii) Medical treatment means the use of all medical and surgical facilities available at the hospital in which the individual is treated and it includes:--

(a) employment of such pathological, bacteriological, radiological or other methods as are considered necessary by the authorised medical attendant;

(b) the supply of such medicines, vaccines, sera or other therapeutic substances as are ordinarily available in the hospital;

(c) the supply of such medicines, vaccines, sera or other therapeutic substances as are not available in the hospital, but can be had in the State or State-aided hospital;

(d) such accommodation as is ordinarily provided in the hospital and is suited to his status;

(e) such nursing as is ordinarily provided to in-patients by the hospital;

(f) specialist consultation on the advice of the authorised medical attendant;

(g) It does not include diet or provision at the request of the member of the staff of accommodation superior to that to which he is entitled in accordance with sub-clause (d) above.

NOTE:--1 Refund of the cost of preparations which are not medicines but are primarily foods, tonics, toilet preparations or disinfectants as issued by the Director-General of Health Services from time to time is not admissible.

NOTE:--2 Refund in respect of mixtures prescribed by the authorised medical attendant will be allowed till such time the Institute has its own dispensary.

NOTE:--3 In the case of hospitals the tariffs of which indicate a flat inclusive charge per diem, forty per cent thereof should be reckoned as charges for boarding and lodging. Out of this forty per cent, half should be considered as charges for diet and the other half for accommodation.

NOTE:--4 Diet charges paid at hospitals by the members of the staff drawing pay less than Rs.180 per mensem (Rs.130 per mensem in the pre-revised scale) and Rs.380 per mensem (Rs.300 per mensem in the pre-revised scale) in the case of non-tubercular and tubercular diseases respectively are allowed. The cost of any special articles of diet not ordinarily provided by the hospital to its in-patients is, however, not refundable.

6. Dental treatment is not covered by the rules, but, if the diagnosis of the physiological or other disability from which a member of the staff is suffering indicates that teeth are the real source of disturbance, he is entitled to free dental treatment, provided it is of a 'major' kind, such as treatment of a jaw bone disease, wholesale removal of teeth, etc. It does not include scaling of teeth, treatment for Pyorrhoea and gingivitis or the free supply of artificial denture or treatment from a private dentist or outside the hospital, even on the advice of the authorised medical attendant.

7. No reimbursement of expenses for provision of spectacles is admissible.

8. No reimbursement of charges for special nursing will be admissible, unless it is certified by the authorised medical attendant and the Medical Superintendent of the hospital that their services were absolutely essential.

NOTE:-- Such cases of special nursing will be decided on merits having regard to the nature of the disease and hardship involved. In such cases, a member of the staff should bear upto twenty-five per cent of his monthly pay for the period for which special nursing was necessary, the rest being borne by the Institute.

9. If the authorised medical attendant is of opinion that the case of a patient is of such a serious or special nature as to require medical attendance by some person other than himself, he may--

(a) send the patient to the nearest Specialist or other Government Medical Officer, by whom, in his opinion, medical attendance is required for the patient, or

(b) if the patient is too ill to travel, summon such Specialist or other Government Medical Officer to attend upon the patient.

10. A patient sent under clause (a) of paragraph 9 shall, on production of a certificate in writing by the authorised medical attendant in this behalf, be entitled to travelling allowance for the journeys to and from the headquarters of the Specialist or other Government Medical Officer.

11. A Specialist or other Government Medical Officer summoned under clause (b) of paragraph 9, shall, on production of a certificate in writing by the authorised medical attendant in this behalf, be entitled to travelling allowance for the journey to and from the place where the patient resides.

12. Travelling allowance admissible under paragraph 9 shall be calculated as for a journey on tour but no daily allowance for halts will be admissible. If an escort be necessary on the advice of the authorised medical attendant, he may be paid travelling allowance as admissible under the Institute's T.A. Rules.

13. Where a member of the staff or a member of his family is entitled to treatment in a hospital free of charge under this Schedule, on the advice of the authorised medical attendant, any amount paid by him on account of such treatment shall, on production of such a certi-ificate in the form prescribed by the Board of Governors in this behalf, be reimbursed to him by the Institute.

14. If the authorised medical attendant is of the opinion that owing to the severity of the illness, a patient (member of the staff) cannot be given treatment at the authorised hospitals, the patient may receive treatment at his residence.

15. In the case of the individual receiving treatment at his residence referred to in paragraph 14 he shall be entitled to receive towards the cost of such treatment incurred by him a sum equivalent to the cost of such treatment as he would have been entitled, free of charge, to receive under this Schedule if he had not been treated at his residence.

NOTE:-- Claims for sums admissible under paragraph 15 shall be accompanied by a certificate in writing by the authorised medical attendant stating:--

- (a) his reasons for the opinion referred to in paragraph 14 and
- (b) the cost of similar treatment referred to in paragraph 15.

16. Members of the staff and their families will also be entitled to the reimbursement of the expenses in connection with the treatment of tubercular diseases to the extent as is prescribed by the Board from time to time.

17. In the case of families of the members of the staff, the cost of special medicines (including mixture) will be reimburseable only when they are prescribed for the patient by the authorised medical attendant, when the patient is attended to either in the hospital or at the consulting room of the authorised medical attendant, or when the patient is undergoing treatment at the out-patients' department or as an in-patient of the hospital on the recommendation of the authorised medical attendant.

NOTE:-- (i) Family of a member of the staff accompanying him on duty, leave/vacation, may consult a Government doctor of the status of the authorised medical attendant of the member of the staff as provided under paragraph 3(4) for the member of the staff himself;

- (ii) The concession contained in note (i) above is not to be given in a case where a member of the staff, while proceeding on tour, leave/vacation, takes a member of his family along with him with the intention of obtaining treatment in a place other than at his headquarters.

18. Charges for services rendered in connection with medical attendance and/or treatment of a member of the family of a member of the staff should be paid by him to the hospital authorities. The Institute will reimburse the cost of medical attendance and/or treatment on the production of the hospital bills, duly countersigned, save in the case of such bills of Government hospitals, by the authorised medical attendant.

NOTE:-- The authorised medical attendant of the family of a member of the staff is the same as the authorised medical attendant of the member himself.

18.A. The family of a member of the staff who could not be provided with living accommodation within the Institute campus or who is on duty or on leave in India (outside headquarters), may receive medical treatment as an in-patient or out-patient in a State or State-aided hospital.

19. Medical attendance and treatment by arrangement with the authorised medical attendant at a consulting room maintained by him shall be deemed to be medical attendance and treatment at a hospital.

20. Medical treatment shall include confinement of a lady member of the staff or the wife of a male member of the staff in a hospital. Pre-natal and post-natal treatment at the residence of the member of the staff is not allowed.

NOTE:-- Anaesthetic fees and charges for pre-natal and post-natal treatment received at the hospital or at the consulting room of the authorised medical attendant, including the cost of medicines prescribed, are reimbursable.

21. The following instructions shall also be adhered to in submitting claim bills for reimbursement of medical expenses, namely:--

- (i) The bills should be duly supported by the requisite receipts, cash memos, prescriptions, essentiality certificates, and other relevant documents as prescribed by the Board of Governors from time to time.
- (ii) It should be ensured that the reimbursement of the cost of those medicines that are included in the list of excluded medicines and preparations as shown in the Central Government Compilation of Medical Attendance Rules and Orders, as amended from time to time, is not allowed.
- (iii) Necessary vouchers and receipts should be attached to the bill in support of claims for reimbursement of charges for tests conducted or treatment afforded in hospitals, e.g., X-rays, blood tests, etc.

(iv) It should be ensured that hospital bills for treatment as in-patient show the allocation of charges under medical attendance, bedding, diet, nursing, special nursing, and medicines and that only cost of admissible items is claimed.

(v) Reimbursement of the cost of medicines of Indian system of medicine and Homeopathy is also admissible.

22. Bills for reimbursement of medical expenses from the members of staff of the Institute shall be countersigned by the Director of the Institute and the Director may, at his discretion, delegate this work to the Deputy Director and the Registrar.

NOTE:-- The Director shall be the controlling authority in respect of his own medical attendance bills.

SCHEDULE - B

CONDUCT RULES

(See Statute 13 (17))

1. APPLICATION

The provisions contained in this Schedule shall apply to all employees of the Institute.

2. DEFINITIONS

In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires,--

(a) "Competent authority" means

(i) "The Board of Governors" in the case of the Director.

(ii) "The Director" in the case of all other employees.

(b) "Members of the family", in relation to an employee, includes-

(i) the wife, child or step-child of such employee residing with and dependant on him and in relation to an employee who is a woman, the husband residing with and dependant on her, and

(ii) any other person related, whether by blood or by marriage, to the employee or to such employee's wife or husband and wholly dependant on such Institute employee, but does not include a wife or husband legally separated from the employee, or child or step-child who is no longer in any way dependant upon him or her, or whose custody the employee has been deprived of by law.

(c) "Service" means service under the Institute.

3. GENERAL

(a) Every employee shall, at all times, maintain absolute integrity and devotion to duty, and also be strictly honest and impartial in his official dealings.

(b) An employee should, at all times, be courteous in his dealings with other members of the staff, students and members of the public.

(c) Unless otherwise stated specifically in the terms of appointment, every employee is a whole-time employee of the Institute, and may be called upon to perform such duties, as may be assigned to him by the competent authority, beyond scheduled working hours and on closed holidays and Sundays. These duties shall, inter alia, include attendance at meetings of Committees to which he may be appointed by the Institute.

(d) An employee shall be required to observe the scheduled hours of work, during which he must be present at the place of his duty.

(e) Except for valid reasons and/or unforeseen contingencies, no employee shall be absent from duty without prior permission.

(f) No employee shall leave station, except with the previous permission of proper authority, even during leave or vacation.

(g) Whenever leaving the station, an employee shall inform the Head of the Department to which he is attached, or the Director, if he is himself the Head of a Department, the address where he would be available during the period of his absence from station.

4. TAKING PART IN POLITICS AND ELECTIONS

(i) No employee shall take part in politics or be associated with any party or organisation which takes part in political activity, nor shall he subscribe in aid or assist in any manner any political movement or activity.

(ii) No employee shall canvass or otherwise interfere or use his influence in connection with or take part in any election to a legislative body or local authority.

Provided that an employee of the Institute qualified to vote at such election may exercise his right to vote, but where he does so, he shall give no indication of the manner in which he proposes to vote or has voted.

5. CONNECTION WITH PRESS OR RADIO OR PATENTS

(1) No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the competent authority, own wholly or in part, or conduct, or participate in the editing or managing of any newspaper or other periodical publications.

(2) No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the competent authority, or any other authority empowered by it in this behalf, or in the bona fide discharge of his duties, participate in a radio broadcast or contribute any article or write any letter either anonymously or in his own name or in the name of any other person to any newspaper or periodical.

Provided that no such sanction shall be required if such broadcast or such contribution is of a purely literary, artistic or scientific character.

NOTE:-- Subject to the restrictions noted below, members of the staff are at liberty, without any sanction as contemplated in paragraph 5(2) above, to publish their original scientific works in journals of repute in India and abroad. If, however, they wish to indicate their official designations in the articles they want to publish, previous sanction of the competent authority will be necessary.

Such articles must be strictly confined to purely scientific subjects and should not touch upon administrative matters. They shall be free from all political tinge.

Publication of articles relating to India's boundary areas and the tribal population in such areas is prohibited without previous permission of the competent authority.

6. CRITICISM OF THE INSTITUTE

No employee shall, in any radio broadcast or in any document published anonymously or in his own name or in the name of any other person or in any communication to the press or in any public utterance, make any statement of fact or opinion,--

(i) which has the effect of an adverse criticism of any current or recent policy or action of the Institute; or

(ii) which is capable of embarrassing the relations between the Institute and the Central Government or any State Government or any other Institution or organisation or members of the public.

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall apply to any statements made or views expressed by an employee in his official capacity or in the due performance of the duties assigned to him.

7. EVIDENCE BEFORE COMMITTEE OR ANY OTHER AUTHORITY

(1) Save as provided in sub-paragraph (3) below, no employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the competent authority, give evidence in connection with any inquiry conducted by any person, Committee or authority.

(2) Where any sanction has been accorded under sub-paragraph (1) no employee giving such evidence shall criticise the policy or any action of the Institute or the Central Government or any State Government.

(3) Nothing in this paragraph shall apply to --

(a) evidence given at any inquiry before any authority appointed by the Institute, by Parliament or by a State Legislature; or

(b) evidence given in any judicial inquiry; or

(c) evidence given at any departmental inquiry ordered by the Institute authorities.

8. UNAUTHORISED COMMUNICATION OF INFORMATION

No employee shall, except in accordance with any general or special order of the competent authority, or in the performance, in good faith, of the duties assigned to him, communicate, directly or indirectly, any official document or information to any person to whom he is not authorised to communicate such document or information.

9. GIFTS

No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the competent authority, accept or permit his wife or any other member of his family to accept, from any person, any gift of more than trifling value. The interpretation of the term 'trifling value' shall be the same as laid down in the Government Servants' Conduct Rules.

10. PRIVATE TRADE OR EMPLOYMENT

No employee shall, except with the previous permission of the competent authority, engage, directly or indirectly, in any trade or business or any private tuition or undertake any employment outside his official assignments.

Provided that the above restrictions shall not apply to academic work and consultative practice undertaken with the prior permission of the competent authority which may be given subject to such condition as regards the acceptance of remuneration as may be laid down by the Board.

11. INVESTMENTS, LENDING & BORROWING

(1) No employee shall speculate in any business nor shall he make or permit his wife or any member of his family to make, any investment likely to embarrass or influence him in the discharge of his official duties.

(2) No employee shall lend money at interest to any person nor shall he borrow money from any person with whom he is likely to have official dealings.

12. INSOLVENCY, HABITUAL INDEBTEDNESS AND CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

(1) An employee shall so manage his private affairs as to avoid habitual indebtedness or insolvency. When an employee is found liable to arrest for debt or has recourse to insolvency or when it is found that a moiety of his salary is continuously being attached, he may be liable to dismissal. An employee who becomes the subject of legal proceeding for insolvency shall forthwith report full facts to the Institute.

(2) An employee who gets involved in some criminal proceedings shall immediately inform the competent authority through the Head of the Department to which he is attached, irrespective of the fact whether he has been released on bail or not.

An employee who is detained in police custody, whether on criminal charge or otherwise, for a period longer than forty-eight hours shall not join his duties in the Institute unless he has obtained written permission to that effect from the Head of the Institute.

13. MOVABLE, IMMOVABLE AND VALUABLE PROPERTY

Every member of the staff shall, on first appointment in the Institute service and thereafter at such intervals as may be prescribed by general or special orders of the competent authority, submit a return in such form as the Institute may prescribe in this behalf of all immovable property owned, acquired or inherited by him or held by him on lease or mortgage, either in his own name or in the name of any member of his family or in the name of any other person.

14. VINDICATION OF ACTS AND CHARACTER OF EMPLOYEES

No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the competent authority, have recourse to any Court of Law or the press for the vindication of any official act which has been the subject matter of adverse criticism or an attack of defamatory character.

Provided nothing in this rule shall be deemed to prohibit an employee from vindicating his private character or any act done by him in his private capacity.

15. MARRIAGES, ETC.

An employee intending to marry a person who holds a citizenship of another foreign country shall seek prior permission of the competent authority.

No employee who has a wife living shall contract another marriage without first obtaining the permission of the Board, notwithstanding that a subsequent marriage is permissible under the personal and religious law for the time being applicable to him, and violation of these rules leads to immediate dismissal from the Institute service.

16. REPRESENTATIONS

(a) Whenever an employee wishes to put forth any claim, or seeks redress of any grievance or of any wrong done to him, he must forward his case through proper channel, and shall not forward advance copies of his application to any higher authority, unless the lower authority has rejected the claim, or refused relief, or the disposal of the matter is delayed by more than three months.

(b) No employee shall be signatory to any joint representation addressed to the authorities for redress of any grievance or of any other matter.

17. PUNISHMENT, APPEALS, ETC.

An employee shall be governed by the provisions of the relevant rules regarding imposition of penalties for breach of any of these rules, and regarding preference of appeals against any action taken against him.

18. INTERPRETATION

The decision of the Board on all questions relating to the interpretation of these provisions shall be final.

THE INDIAN INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

MADRAS

SCHEDULE - C

(See Statute 16 (1))

Contributory Provident Fund of the Indian Institute of Technology, Madras

APPLICATION

1. (1) The provisions contained in this Schedule shall apply to --

- (a) every employee of the Institute who is permanent as on the date of commencement of this Schedule;
- (b) persons appointed on contract, the terms whereof make such persons eligible for contributing to the Fund.
- (c) Re-employed pensioners subject to the conditions prescribed by the Government of India from time to time.

Provided that no employee of the Institute, whose services in the Institute entitle him to a pension and gratuity, or on whose account the Institute contributes towards pension, or who has been appointed by the Institute on a consolidated salary or on special terms which exclude the benefits of the Fund, shall be entitled to the benefits of the Fund.

(2) A person appointed on probation against a substantive vacancy shall be entitled to subscribe to the Fund from the date of his appointment. The Institute's contribution shall, however, be credited with retrospective effect to his account after he has been confirmed.

Arrears of subscriptions in such cases may be paid in not more than 12 monthly instalments for each year of service. The Institute's contribution is to be credited to the account of the subscriber at the end of each financial year to the extent of his own subscription during the year subject to final adjustment after the arrears are realised in full.

(A) A person appointed on temporary basis shall also be entitled to subscribe to the Fund after he completes continuous service for one year. The subscriptions in such a case shall, however, commence from the actual date of the subscriber joining the fund.

(3) If an employee admitted to the benefit of the Fund was previously a subscriber to any contributory/Non-Contributory provident Fund of the Central Government/State Government or of a body corporate owned or controlled by Government or an autonomous organisation registered under the Societies registration Act, 1860, the amount of his accumulations in such Contributory or the Non-contributory Provident Fund, shall be transferred to his credit in the Fund.

(4) Every employee of the Institute entitled to the benefits of the Fund shall be required to sign a written declaration in the form set forth in Appendix I that he has read this Schedule and agreed to abide by the provisions contained in it.

D E F I N I T I O N S

2. In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires,--

- (i) "Accounts Officer" means the Accounts Officer of the Institute;
- (ii) "Audit Officer" means the (Internal) Audit Officer of the Institute ;
- (iii) "Emoluments" means pay including dearness pay, if any, leave salary, or subsistence grant, and includes any remuneration of the nature of pay (including dearness pay, if any,) received in respect of foreign service;
- (iv) "Family" means--
 - (a) in the case of a male subscriber, the wife or wives and children of a subscriber, and the widow or widows and children of a deceased son of the subscriber:

Provided that if a subscriber proves that his wife has been judicially separated from him, or has ceased, under the customary law of the community to which she belongs, to be entitled to maintenance, she shall henceforth be deemed to be no longer a member of the subscriber's family in matters to which this Schedule relates, unless the subscriber subsequently indicates, by express notification in writing to the Registrar, that she shall continue to be so regarded;

- (b) in the case of a female subscriber, the husband and children of the subscriber, and the widow or widows and children of a deceased son of the subscriber:

Provided that if a subscriber, by notification in writing to the Registrar, expresses her desire to exclude her husband from her family, the husband shall henceforth be deemed to be no longer a member of the subscriber's family in matters to which this Schedule relates, unless the subscriber subsequently cancels formally in writing her notification excluding him.

NOTE I :- "Children" means legitimate children.

NOTE II :- An adopted child shall be considered to be a child when the Registrar, or if any doubt arises in the mind of the Registrar the Law Officer of the Institute, is satisfied that under the personal law of the subscriber, adoption is legally recognised as conferring the status of a natural child, but in this case only.

- (v) "Foreign service" means the service in which an employee of the Institute receives his substantive pay with the sanction of the Board from any source other than the Fund of the Institute;
- (vi) "Fund" means the Contributory Provident Fund of the Institute;
- (vii) "Leave" means any variety of leave provided for in Schedule 'D' as may be applicable to the subscriber;
- (viii) "Pay" means the amount drawn monthly by an employee of the Institute as--
 - (i) the pay, other than special pay or pay granted in view of his personal qualifications, which has been sanctioned for a post held by him substantively or in an officiating capacity;
 - (ii) special pay and personal pay, and
 - (iii) any other remuneration which may be specially classed as pay by the Board;
- (ix) "Subscription" means the amount paid by the subscriber and "contribution" means the amount contributed by the Institute;
- (x) "Year" means a financial year.

CONSTITUTION AND MANAGEMENT OF THE FUND

3. (1) The Fund, which shall be maintained in rupees, shall be constituted with subscriptions paid by the subscribers and contributions made by the Institute and shall include interest paid to the credit of the account of the subscribers under sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 10.

(2) The management of the Fund is vested in the Board. Subject to the control and direction of the Board, the Director shall administer the Fund for and on behalf of the Board.

(3) The Fund shall be deposited, in the name of the Fund, with the State Bank of India. The deposits shall be made as soon as possible after the monthly accounts are closed.

(4) The Institute may invest such part of the funds, as may be considered expedient, in the Government securities/certificates, negotiable Government guaranteed bonds, and in such deposits schemes of the Central Government as may be notified in this regard from time to time, the interest or profit realized on such investments being credited to the Institute as Miscellaneous receipts. All investments and securities shall be held in the name of the Institute.

N O M I N A T I O N

4. (1) A subscriber shall, at the time of joining the Fund, send to the Registrar a nomination, conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund, in the event of his death before that amount has become payable, or having become payable, has not been paid;

Provided that if, at the time of making the nomination, the subscriber has a family, the nomination shall not be in favour of any person or persons other than the members of his family.

Provided further that the nomination made by the subscriber in respect of any other Provident Fund to which he was subscribing before joining the Fund, shall, if the amount to his credit in such other Fund has been transferred to his credit in this Fund, be deemed to be a nomination duly made under this rule until he makes a nomination in accordance with this sub-para.

NOTE:- In this rule, unless the context otherwise requires, 'person' or 'persons' shall include a company or association or body of individuals, whether incorporated or not.

(2) If a subscriber nominates more than one person under sub-para (1), he shall specify in the nomination the amount or share payable to each of the nominees in such manner as to cover the whole of the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund at any time.

(3) Every nomination shall be in such one of the forms set forth in Appendix II as is appropriate in the circumstances.

(4) A subscriber may, at any time, cancel his nomination by sending a notice in writing to the Registrar.

Provided that the subscriber shall, along with such notice, send a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this para.

(5) A subscriber may provide in a nomination--

- (a) in respect of any specified nominee that, in the event of his nominee predeceasing the subscriber, the right conferred upon that nominee shall pass to such other person as may be specified in the nomination.

Provided that such other person or persons shall, if the subscriber has other members of his family, be such other member or members. Where the subscriber confers such a right on more than one person under this clause, he shall specify the amount or share payable to each of such persons in such a manner as to cover the whole of the amount payable to the nominee.

- (b) that the nomination shall become invalid in the event of the happening of a contingency specified therein.

Provided that if, at the time of making the nomination, the subscriber has no family, he shall provide in the nomination that it shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring a family.

Provided further that, if at the time of making the nomination, the subscriber has only one member of the family, he shall provide in the nomination that the right conferred upon the alternate nominee under clause (a) shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring other member or members in his family.

(6) Immediately on the death of a nominee in respect of whom no special provision has been made in the nomination under clause (a) of sub-para (5), or on the occurrence of any event by reason of which the nomination becomes invalid in pursuance of clause (b) of sub-para (5) or the provisos thereto, the subscriber shall send to the Registrar a notice in writing cancelling the nomination together with a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this para.

(7) Every nomination made and every notice of cancellation given by a subscriber shall, to the extent that it is valid, take effect on the date on which it is received by the Institute.

(8) An up-to-date register shall be maintained by the Institute to record all nominations.

SUBSCRIBERS' ACCOUNTS

5. An account shall be opened in the name of each subscriber in the form set forth in Appendix III, in which shall be shown--

- (i) the subscriber's subscriptions;
- (ii) contributions made under para 9 by the Institute to his account;
- (iii) interest, as provided for in para 10, on subscriptions
- (iv) interest, as provided for in para 10, on contributions; and
- (v) advances and withdrawals from his account.

CONDITIONS AND RATES OF SUBSCRIPTIONS

6. (1) Every subscriber shall subscribe monthly to the Fund when on duty or on foreign service, but not during a period of suspension.

Provided that a subscriber on re-instatement after a period passed under suspension, shall be allowed the option of paying in one sum, or in instalments, any sum not exceeding the maximum amount of arrears of subscriptions permissible for that period.

(2) A subscriber may, at his option, not subscribe during leave other than leave on average pay, or earned leave of less than 30 days' duration, by sending a notice in writing to the Registrar before or soon after proceeding on leave.

Failure to make due and timely intimation shall be deemed to constitute an election to subscribe.

The option of a subscriber intimated under this sub-para shall be final.

(3) A subscriber who has, under para 29, withdrawn the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon, shall not subscribe to the Fund after such withdrawal, unless he returns to duty.

7. (1) The amount of subscription shall be fixed subject to the following conditions, namely:-

(a) It shall be expressed in whole rupees (50 naye Paise and above counting as the next higher rupee)

(b) It may be any sum, not less than 8-1/3 per cent of the emoluments of the subscriber and not more than his emoluments.

(2) For the purposes of clause (b) of sub-para (1), the emoluments of a subscriber shall be -

(a) in the case of a subscriber who was in permanent service of the Institute on the 31st March of the preceding year, the emoluments to which he was entitled on that date;

- (b) in the case of a subscriber who was not in permanent service of the Institute on the 31st March of the preceding year, the emoluments to which he was entitled on the first day of his permanent service.
- (3) The amount of subscription so fixed may be enhanced or reduced only once during the course of a year.
- Provided that, if a subscriber is on duty for a part of a month and on leave for the remainder of the month, and if he has elected not to subscribe during the leave, the amount of subscription payable shall be proportionate to the number of days spent on duty in the month.
- (4) When a subscriber is temporarily transferred to foreign service (elsewhere) or sent out of India, he shall remain, subject to the provisions contained in this Schedule, in the same manner as if he were not so transferred or sent out.

REALISATION OF SUBSCRIPTIONS

8. (1) When emoluments are drawn from the funds of the Institute, recovery of subscriptions on account of these emoluments and of the principal and interest of advances shall be made from the emoluments themselves.
- (2) When emoluments are drawn from any other source, the subscriber shall forward his dues monthly to the Institute.

CONTRIBUTIONS BY THE INSTITUTE

9. (1) The Institute shall, with effect from the 31st March of each year, make a contribution to the account of each subscriber;
- Provided that, if a subscriber quits the service or dies during a year, contribution shall be credited to his account for the period between the close of the preceding year and the date of the casualty.
- Provided further that no contribution shall be payable in respect of any period for which the subscriber is permitted under this Schedule not to, or does not, subscribe to the Fund.
- (2) The contribution shall be a sum representing $8\frac{1}{3}$ per cent of the emoluments of the subscriber drawn on duty during the year or for a period in the year, as the case may be.

(3) Should a subscriber elect to subscribe during leave, his leave salary shall, for the purpose of this rule, be deemed to be emoluments drawn on duty.

(4) The amount of any contribution payable in respect of a period of foreign service shall, unless it is recovered from the employer, be recovered by the Institute from the subscriber.

(5) The amount of contribution payable shall be rounded to the nearest whole rupee (50 naye Paise and above counting as the next higher rupee).

I N T E R E S T

10. (1) The Institute shall pay to the credit of the account of a subscriber interest at such rate as the Central Government may, from time to time, prescribe in the case of their employees.

(2) Interest shall be credited with effect from the 31st March of each year in the following manner: -

- (i) On the amount to the credit of a subscriber on the 31st March of the preceding year, less any sums with drawn during the current year - interest for twelve months;
- (ii) on sums withdrawn during the current year - interest from the 1st April of the current year upto the last day of the month preceding the month of withdrawal;
- (iii) on all sums credited to the subscriber's account after the 31st March of the preceding year - interest from the date of deposit upto the 31st March of the current year;
- (iv) the total amount of interest shall be rounded to the nearest rupee in the manner provided in sub-para (5) of para (9)

Provided that when the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber has become payable, interest shall thereupon be credited under this sub-para in respect only of the period from the beginning of the current year, or from the date of credit, as the case may be, upto the date on which the amount standing to the credit of the subscriber becomes payable.

(3) For the purpose of this para, the date of credit shall be deemed to be the first day of the month in which it is credited.

Provided that where there has been a delay in the drawal of pay or leave salary and allowances of a subscriber, and consequently in the recovery of his subscription towards the Fund, the interest on such subscriptions shall be payable from the month in which the pay or leave salary of the subscriber was due, irrespective of the month in which it was actually drawn.

(4) In all cases, interest will be paid in respect of balance to the credit of a subscriber upto the close of the month preceding that in which payment is made, or upto the end of the sixth month after the month in which such amount became payable, whichever of these periods is less.

(5) Subject to the provisions of sub-para (4), no interest shall be paid in respect of any period after the date which the Registrar has intimated to that person or his agent as the date on which he is prepared to make payments.

ADVANCES FROM THE FUND

11. A temporary advance may be granted to a subscriber from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund at the discretion of the authority specified in para 12, subject to the following conditions, namely:-

(a) No advance shall be granted unless the sanctioning authority is satisfied that the applicant's pecuniary circumstances justify it, and that it will be expended on the following object or objects and not otherwise:-

- (i) to pay expenses in connection with the prolonged illness or confinement of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him.
- (ii) to pay for the overseas passage for reasons of health or education of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him;
- (iii) to pay obligatory expenses on a scale appropriate to the applicant's status in connection with marriages, funerals or ceremonies which, by religion, it is incumbent on him to perform.
- (iv) to pay for expenses outside India in connection with the education, beyond high school stage, of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him;

- (v) to pay for expenses of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him in connection with any medical, engineering or other technical or specialised course or other general higher education in India beyond the high-school stage

Provided that the duration of the course of study is not less than three years;

- (vi) to meet the cost of his defence where the subscriber is prosecuted by the Government of Institute in any court of law or where the subscriber engages any legal practitioner to defend him in an enquiry in respect of any alleged official misconduct on his part;
- (vii) to meet the cost of legal proceedings instituted by the subscriber for vindicating his position in regard to any allegations made against him in respect of any act done or purporting to have been done by him in the discharge of his official duty;

NOTE : - An advance under sub-clause (vi) above shall be available to the applicant in addition to any advance admissible for the same purpose from any other Government source but the advance under the said sub-clause shall not be admissible to a subscriber either in respect of any legal proceedings instituted by him in any court of law against the Government/Institute as regards any penalty imposed on him or any condition of service or in respect of any legal proceedings in regard to any matter unconnected with his official duties.

- (b) An advance shall not, except for special reasons, exceed three months pay, and shall, in no case, exceed the amount of subscription and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund.
- (c) An advance shall not, except for special reasons, be granted until at least twelve months after the final repayment of all previous advances together with interest thereon, have elapsed.
- (d) The sanctioning authority shall record in writing the special reasons where advance is sanctioned for such reasons.
- (e) An application, for temporary advance from the Fund shall be submitted in the form set forth in Appendix IV.

12. (1) A temporary advance from the Fund to the subscribers other than the Director will be sanctioned by the Director, who may, at his discretion, delegate this work to the Deputy Director and the Registrar.

(2) A temporary advance from the Fund to the Director shall require the sanction of the Chairman.

13. (1) An advance shall be recovered from the subscriber in such number of equal monthly instalments as the sanctioning authority may direct; but such number shall not be less than twelve, unless the subscriber so elects, or in any case, more than twenty-four.

A subscriber may, at his option, make repayment in a small number of instalments than that prescribed. Each instalment shall be a number of whole rupees, the amount of the advance being raised or reduced, if necessary, to admit of the fixation of such instalments.

(2) Recovery shall be made in the manner provided in paragraph 8 for the realisation of subscription and shall commence with the issue of pay for the month following the one in which the advance was drawn.

Recovery shall not be made, except with the subscriber's consent while he is on leave or in receipt of subsistence grant and may be postponed by the sanctioning authority during the recovery of the advance of pay granted to the subscriber.

(3) If more than one advance has been made to a subscriber, each advance shall be treated separately for the purpose of recovery.

(4) After the principal of the advance has been fully repaid, interest shall be paid thereon at the rate of one-fifth per cent of the principal for each month or broken portion of a month during the period between the drawal and complete repayment of the principal.

(5) Interest shall ordinarily be recovered in one instalment, in the month after complete repayment of the principal; but if the period referred to in sub-para (4) exceeds twenty months, interest may, if the subscriber so desires, be recovered in two equal monthly instalments. The method of recovery shall be that provided in sub-para (2). Payment shall be rounded to the nearest rupee in the manner provided in sub-para (5) of para 9.

(6) Recoveries made under this rule shall be credited, as they are made, to the account of the subscriber in the Fund.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE FUND

14. (1) Subject to the conditions specified here-under withdrawals may be sanctioned by the Chairman, in the case of a withdrawal by the Director and by the Director in any other case, at any time after the completion of 20 years of service (including broken periods of service, if any), of a subscriber or within 10 years before the date of his retirement on superannuation whichever is earlier, from the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund for one or more of the following purposes, namely:-

(a) Meeting the cost of higher education, including where necessary, the travelling expenses of any child of the subscriber in the following cases, namely:-

(i) For education outside India for Academic, Technical, Professional or Vocational courses beyond the High School stage, and

(ii) For any medical, engineering or other technical professional or specialised course or other general higher education in India beyond the High School stage, provided that the course of study is for not less than three years.

(b) Meeting the expenditure in connection with the marriage of the subscriber's son or daughter and any other female relation actually dependant on him.

(c) Meeting the expenses in connection with the illness including, where necessary, the travelling expenses of the subscriber or any person actually dependant on him.

(d) Building or acquiring a suitable house for his residence including the cost of the site or repaying any outstanding amount on account of loan expressly taken for this purpose or reconstructing or making additions or alterations to a house already owned or acquired by the subscriber.

(e) Purchasing a house site or repaying any outstanding amount on account of loan expressly taken for this purpose.

(f) For constructing a house on a site purchased utilising the sum withdrawn under clause (e)

NOTE :- A subscriber who has availed himself of an advance for house building purpose or has been allowed any assistance in this regard from any other Government source, shall be eligible for the grant of final withdrawal under clauses (d), (e) and (f) for the purposes specified therein and also for the purpose of repayment of any loan taken under the aforesaid scheme, subject to the limit specified in sub-para (1) of para 15.

(2) The actual withdrawal from the Fund shall be made only on receipt of an authorisation from the Accounts Officer who will arrange this as soon as the formal sanction of the sanctioning authority has been issued.

15. (1) Any sum withdrawn by a subscriber at any one time for one or more of the purposes specified in para 14 from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall not ordinarily exceed one-half of the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund, or 6 months' pay, whichever is less. The sanctioning authority may, however, sanction the withdrawal of an amount in excess of this limit upto three-fourths of the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber having due regard to: (i) the object for which the withdrawal is made, (ii) the status of the subscriber and (iii) the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund.

(2) A subscriber who has been permitted to withdraw money from the Fund under para 14, shall satisfy the sanctioning authority, within a reasonable period, as may be specified by that authority, that the money has been utilised for the purpose for which it was withdrawn, and if he fails to do so, the whole of the sum so withdrawn, or so much thereof as has not been applied for the purpose for which it was withdrawn, shall forthwith be repaid in one lump sum, together with interest thereon, at the rate determined under para 10, by the subscriber to the Fund, and, in default of such payment, it shall be ordered by the sanctioning authority to be recovered from his emoluments either in a lump sum or in such number of monthly instalments, as may be determined by the Institute.

16. A subscriber who has already drawn or may draw in future an advance under para 11 for any of the purposes specified in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-para (1) of para 14, may convert, at his discretion, by written request addressed to the Accounts Officer, through the sanctioning authority, the balance outstanding against it into a final withdrawal on his satisfying the conditions laid down in paras 14 and 15.

PAYMENTS TOWARDS INSURANCE POLICIES AND FAMILY PENSION FUNDS

17. On written application from a subscriber to the Fund and subject to the conditions contained in paras 18 to 25

- (a) (i) subscriptions to a Family Pension Fund and
 - (ii) payments towards an insurance policy may be substituted for the whole or part of subscriptions to the Fund;
- (b) the amount of subscriptions with interest thereon standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund may be withdrawn to meet:
 - (i) payments towards an insurance policy;
 - (ii) purchase of a single payment insurance policy and
 - (iii) payment of a single premium or subscriptions to a family pension fund.

Provided that both in respect of (a) and (b) the family pension is (i) approved by the Board and (ii) insurance policy is such as may be legally assigned by the subscriber himself in favour of the Institute and is so assigned by him and is delivered to the Registrar as a Security against payment made from the Fund.

18. (1) An insurance policy effected by the subscriber himself on his own life, or on the joint lives of the subscriber and his wife, which shall be deemed to be a policy on the life of the subscriber himself, may be accepted for assignments in favour of the Institute.

18. (2) A policy which has been assigned to the subscriber's wife shall not be accepted unless either the policy is first re-assigned to the subscriber, or the subscriber and his wife both join in an appropriate assignment.

(3) An insurance policy shall be assigned to the Institute by means of an endorsement made on the policy itself in form (1) or form (2) or form (3) of the forms given in Appendix V, according as the policy is on the life of the subscriber, or on the joint lives of the subscriber and his wife, or the policy has previously been assigned to the subscriber's wife.

(4) Notice of assignment of a policy shall be given by the subscriber to the insurance company, and the acknowledgement of the notice by the insurance company shall be sent to the Registrar within three months of the date of assignment.

(5) Where an insurance policy has been assigned to the Institute, the Registrar shall satisfy himself by referring to the insurance company, where possible, that no prior assignment of the policy exists.

19. (1) Except in the case of the Hindu Family (Pension) Annuity Fund and the Postal Life Assurance Policies in respect of which subscriptions or premia which are paid by the Institute to the extent of recoveries actually made from the monthly salary bills, the Institute will not make any payment on behalf of the subscribers to the Insurance companies, nor take steps to keep a policy alive.

(2) A subscriber who desires to substitute his Fund subscriptions in whole or part for payment to a Family Pension Fund or insurance under clause (a) of para 17 may reduce his subscription to the Fund within its limit;

Provided that, except in the cases of subscriptions or premia mentioned in sub-para (1), the subscribers shall send to the Registrar, within a period of two months from the date of payment, receipts or certified copies of receipts, in order to satisfy that the amount by which the subscription to the Fund has been reduced was duly applied for the purposes specified in clause (a) of para 17.

(3) A subscriber who desires to withdraw any amount under clause (b) of para 17 within the limit of his subscription to the Fund shall make arrangements with the Registrar for the withdrawal of the amount to be paid from his subscription to the Fund:

Provided that the subscriber shall send to the Registrar, within a period of two months from the date of payment, receipts or certified copies of receipts, in order to satisfy that the amount withdrawn was duly applied for the purposes specified in clause (b) of para 17.

(4) Any amount withdrawn under clause (a) or (b) of para 17 shall be paid in whole rupees rounded to the nearest rupee in the manner provided in sub-para (5) of para 9.

20. (1) If the total amount of any subscriptions or payments substituted under clause (a) of para 17 is less than the amount of the minimum subscription payable to the Fund under para 7, the difference should be rounded off to the nearest rupee in the manner provided in sub-para (5) of para 9 and paid by the subscriber as a subscription to the Fund.

(2) If the subscriber withdraws any amount standing to his credit in the Fund for any of the purposes specified in clause (b) of para 17, he shall continue to pay to the Fund the subscriptions payable under para 7.

21. Once an insurance policy has been accepted for the purposes of being financed from the Fund, the terms of the policy shall not be altered, nor shall the policy be exchanged for another policy without the prior consent of the Director, Further, the premium of life insurance policies assigned under this provision shall not be payable otherwise than annually.

22. The subscriber shall not, during the currency of the policy, draw any bonus, the drawal of which, during such currency, is optional under the terms of the policy, and the amount of any bonus which, under the terms of the policy, the subscriber has no option to refrain from drawing during its currency, shall be paid forthwith into the Fund by the subscriber, or in default, recovered by reduction from his emoluments by instalments or otherwise, as the Board may direct.

23. (1) Save as provided in sub-para (2) of para 25, when the subscriber--

(a) quits the service, or

(b) has proceeded on leave preparatory to retirement and applies to the Institute for re-assignment or return of the policy, or

- (c) while on leave, has been permitted to retire, or declared by a competent medical authority to be unfit for further service and applies to the Institute for re-assignment or return of the policy, or
- (d) pays or repays to the Fund the whole of any amount withheld or withdrawn from the Fund for any of the purposes mentioned in sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) of para 17, and sub-clause (i) and (ii) of clause (b) of para 17, with interest thereon at the rate provided in para 10, the Registrar shall, if the policy has been assigned in favour of the Institute under para 18, re-assign the policy in the first form set forth in Appendix VI to the subscriber, or to the subscriber and the joint assured, as the case may be, and make it over to the subscriber, together with a signed notice of the reassignment addressed to the insurance company.

(2) Save as provided in sub-para (2) of para 25, when the subscriber dies before quitting the service, the Registrar shall re-assign the policy in the second form set forth in Appendix VI to such person as may be legally entitled to receive it, and shall make over the policy to such person together with a signed notice of the re-assignment addressed to the insurance company.

24. If a policy assigned in favour of the Institute under para 18 matures before the subscriber quits the service, or if a policy on the joint lives of a subscriber and his wife, assigned under the said para, falls due for payment by reason of the wife's death, the full amount of the policy shall, on realisation, be credited to the Fund of the subscriber.

25. (1) If the interest of the subscriber in the Family Pension Fund ceases, in whole or part, from any cause whatsoever, the Provident Fund account of the subscriber shall forthwith be reimbursed by the amount of the refund, if any, secured by the subscriber from the Family Pension Fund which amount shall, in default of reimbursement, be deducted from the subscriber's emoluments, by instalments or otherwise, as the Board may direct.

(2) If the Institute receives notice of--

- (a) an assignment (other than an assignment in favour of the Institute under para 18), or
- (b) a charge of encumbrance, or
- (c) an order of a Court restraining dealings with the policy or any amount realised thereon,

The Registrar shall not--

- (i) re-assign or make over the policy as provided in para 23,
- (ii) realise the amount assured by the policy, as provided in para 24, but shall forthwith refer the matter to the Board.

26. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Schedule, if the sanctioning authority is satisfied that money withheld or withdrawn from the Fund under clause (a) or clause (b) of para 17 has been utilised for a purpose other than that for which sanction was given to the withholding or withdrawal of the money from the Fund, the amount in question, shall, with interest at the rate provided in para 10, forthwith be paid by the subscriber to the Fund, or, in default, be ordered to be recovered by deduction in one sum from the emoluments of the subscriber, even if he be on leave. If the total amount to be paid is more than one-half of the subscriber's emoluments, recoveries shall be made in monthly instalments of moieties of his emoluments till the entire amount recoverable is paid by him.

NOTE:- The term 'emoluments' as used in this rule does not include subsistence grant.

27. RESTRICTION OF THE PROVISIONS RELATING TO FINANCING OF POLICIES

The provisions contained in paragraphs 17 to 26 shall apply only to subscribers who, before the date from which the Statutes came into force, have been substituting in whole or in part, payments towards policies of life insurance for subscriptions to the Fund or making withdrawals from the Fund for such payments:

Provided that such subscribers shall not be permitted to substitute such payments for subscriptions due to the Fund or to withdraw from the Fund for making such payments in respect of any new policy.

CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH ACCUMULATIONS ARE PAYABLE

28. When a subscriber quits the service, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall, subject to any deduction under para 31, become payable to him:

Provided that a subscriber, who has been dismissed from the service and is subsequently reinstated in the service, shall, if required to do so by the Institute, repay any amount paid to him from the Fund, in pursuance of this para, with interest thereon at the rate provided in para 10 in the manner provided in the proviso to Para 29. The amount so repaid shall be credited to his account in the Fund, the part which represents his subscriptions and interest thereon, and the part which represents the Institute's contribution with interest thereon being accounted for in the manner provided in para 5.

29. When a subscriber--

- (a) has proceeded on leave preparatory to retirement, or if he is employed in a vacation department, on leave preparatory to retirement combined with vacation, or
- (b) while on leave, has been permitted to retire or declared by a competent medical authority to be unfit for further service, the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to his credit in the Fund shall, upon application made by him in that behalf to the Director, become payable to the subscriber.

Provided that the subscriber, if he returns to duty, shall, if required to do so by the Institute, repay to the Fund, for credit to his account, the whole or part of any amount paid to him from the Fund, in pursuance of this rule, with interest thereon at the rate provided in para 10, in cash or securities, or partly in cash and partly in securities, by instalments or otherwise, as the Institute may direct.

30. Subject to any deduction under para 31, on the death of a subscriber before the amount standing to his credit has become payable, or where the amount has become payable, before payment has been made.

(i) when the subscriber leaves a family--

- (a) if a nomination made by the subscriber in accordance with the provisions of para 4 in favour of a member or members of his family subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination:
- (b) if no such nomination in favour of a member or members of the family of the subscriber subsists, or if such nomination relates only to a part of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate, as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding any nomination purporting to be in favour of any person or persons other than a member or members of his family, become payable to the member of his family in equal shares:

Provided that no share shall be payable to--

- (1) sons who have attained majority
- (2) sons of a deceased son who have attained majority;
- (3) married daughters whose husbands are alive;
- (4) married daughters of a deceased son whose husbands are alive, if there is any member of the family other than those specified in clauses (1), (2), (3) and (4);

Provided also that the widow or widows and the child or children of a deceased son shall receive between them in equal parts only the share which that son would have received if he had survived the subscriber and had been exempted from the provisions of clause (1) of the first proviso;

NOTE:- (i) Any sum payable under these rules to a member of the family of a subscriber vests in such member under sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Provident Fund Act, 1925.

(ii) when the subscriber leaves no family, if a nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of para 4 in favour of any person or persons subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination.

NOTE:- When a nominee, is a dependent of the subscriber as defined in clause (c) of section 2 of the Provident Fund Act, 1925, the amount vests in such nominee under sub-section (2) of section 3 of that Act.

When the subscriber leaves no family and no nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of para 4 subsists, or if such nomination relates only to part of the amount standing to his credit in the fund, the relevant provisions of clause (b) and of sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Provident Fund Act, 1925, are applicable to the whole amount or part thereof to which the nomination does not relate.

30A. DEPOSIT LINKED INSURANCE SCHEME:-

On the death of a subscriber, the person entitled to receive the amount standing to the credit of the subscriber shall be paid by the Accounts Officer an additional amount equal to the average amount of subscription and interest thereon at the credit in the account during the 3 years immediately preceding the death of such subscriber, subject to the condition that--

(a) the balance representing subscription with interest thereon at the credit of such subscriber shall not at any time during the 3 years preceding the month of death have fallen below the limits of-- (i) Rs.4000/- in the case of a subscriber who has held, for the greater part of the aforesaid period of three years, a post the maximum of the pay scale of which is Rs.1300/- or more;

(ii) Rs.2500/- in the case of a subscriber who has held, for the greater part of the aforesaid period of three years, a post the maximum of the pay scale of which is Rs.900/- or more but less than Rs.1300/-;

(iii) Rs.1500/- in the case of subscriber who has held, for the greater part of the aforesaid period of three years, a post the maximum of the pay scale of which is Rs.291/- or more but less than Rs.900/-;

(iv) Rs.100/- in the case of a subscriber who has held for the greater part of the aforesaid period of three years, a post the maximum of the pay scale of which is less than Rs.291/-;

(b) the additional amount payable under this rule shall not exceed Rs.10,000/-;

(c) the subscriber has put in at least 5 years service at the time of his death.

NOTE: 1 :- The average balance shall be worked out on the basis of the balance at the credit of the subscriber at the end of each of the 36 months preceding the month in which the death occurs. For this purpose, as also for checking the minimum balances prescribed above--

(a) the balance at the end of March shall include the annual interest on subscription credited in terms of paragraph 10, and

(b) If the last of the aforesaid 36 months is not March, the balances at the end of the said last month shall include interest on subscription in respect of the period from the beginning of the financial year in which death occurs to the end of the last month.

NOTE.2 :- Payments under this scheme should be in whole rupees. If an amount due includes a fraction of a rupee, it should be rounded to the nearest rupee, (50 paise counting as the next higher rupee).

NOTE: 3 :- Any sum payable under this scheme is in the nature of insurance money and, therefore, the statutory protection given by section 3 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925 (Act 19 of 1925) does not apply to sums payable under this scheme.

NOTE: 4 :- This scheme also applies to these subscribers to the Fund who are transferred to an autonomous organisation consequent upon conversion of a Government Department into such a body and who, on such transfer, opt, in terms of option given to them to subscribe to this Fund in accordance with these rules.

- NOTE: 5 :-
- (a) In case of an employee of the Institute who has been admitted to the benefits of the Fund under Statute 16 (2)/Statute 16 A (1), but dies before completion of three years service or, as the case may be, five years service from the date of his admission to the Fund, that period of his service under the previous employer in respect whereof the amount of his subscriptions and the employer's contribution, if any, together with interest have been received, shall count for purposes of clause (a) and Clause (c).
 - (b) In case of persons appointed on tenure basis and in the case of re-employed pensioners, service rendered from the date of such appointment or re-employment, as the case may be, only will count for purposes of this rule.
 - (c) This scheme does not apply to persons appointed on contract basis.

NOTE: 6 :- The budget estimates of expenditure in respect of this scheme will be prepared by the Accounts Officers responsible for maintenance of the Accounts of the Fund having regard to the trend of expenditure, in the same manner as estimates are prepared for other retirement benefits.

D E D U C T I O N S

31. Subject to the condition that no deduction may be made which reduces the credit by more than the amount of any contribution by the Institute with interest thereof credited under paras 9 and 10, before the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund is paid out of the Fund, the Board may direct the deduction therefrom and payment to the Institute of-

- (a) any amount, if a subscriber has been dismissed from the service for grave misconduct:

Provided that, if the order of dismissal is subsequently cancelled, the amount so deducted shall, on his reinstatement in the service, be replaced to his credit in the Fund;

- (b) any amount, if a subscriber resigns his employment with the Institute within five years of the commencement thereof, otherwise than by reason of superannuation or a declaration by a competent medical authority that he is unfit for further service;
- (c) any amount due under a liability incurred by the subscriber to the Institute.

32. (1) (a) When the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund or the balance thereof after any deduction under para 31 becomes payable, it shall be the duty of the Registrar, after obtaining the sanction of the Director and after satisfying himself, when no such deduction has been directed under that para, that no deduction is to be made, to make the payment as provided in section 4 of the Provident Fund Act, 1925.

(b) In the case of final payment to the Director from the Contributory Provident Fund, the competent authority to sanction the payment shall be the Chairman of the Board of Governors.

(2) If the person to whom, under this Schedule, any amount or policy is to be paid, assigned, re-assigned or delivered, is a lunatic for whose estate a manager has been appointed in this behalf, the payment or re-assignment or delivery will be made to such manager appointed under the provisions of the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912 and not to the lunatic.

(3) Any person who desires to claim payment under this para shall send a written application in that behalf to the Director. Payment of amounts withdrawn shall be made in India only. The persons to whom the amounts are payable shall make their own arrangements to receive payment in India.

NOTE:- When the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber has become payable under para 28,29 or 30, the Institute shall make arrangement for prompt payment of that portion of the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in regard to which there is no dispute or doubt, the balance being adjusted as soon after as may be.

P R O C E D U R E

33. Accumulations in the Fund of which payment has not been taken within six months after they became payable under this Schedule shall be transferred to "Deposits" after the 31st March of the year and treated under the provisions relating to deposits.

34. When paying a subscription in India, either by deduction from emoluments or in cash, a subscriber shall quote the number of his account in the Fund, which shall be communicated to him by the Accounts Officer. Any change in the number shall similarly be communicated to the subscriber by the Accounts Officer.

35. (1) As soon as possible after the 31st March of each year, and after the Fund accounts have been audited by the Audit Officer, the Accounts Officer shall send to each subscriber a statement of his account in the Fund in the form set forth in Appendix VII showing the opening balance as on the 1st April of the year, the total amount of deposits during the year and the closing balance on that date.

The Accounts Officer shall attach to the statement of account an enquiry whether the subscriber--

(a) desires to make any alteration in any nomination made under para 4;

(b) has acquired a family, in cases where the subscriber has made no nomination in favour of a member of his family under the proviso to sub-para (1) of para (4).

(2) Subscribers should satisfy themselves as to the correctness of the annual statement, and errors should be brought to the notice of the Accounts Officer within three months from the date of receipt of the statement. If no intimation is received from the subscriber within this period it shall be assumed that he has accepted the statement.

(3) Where errors in the annual statement are brought to notice, it shall be the responsibility of the Accounts Officer to reconcile the same for settlement to the satisfaction of the subscriber.

SCHEDULE D

(See Statute 17 (i))

LEAVE PROVISIONS

1. APPLICABILITY

The provision contained in this Schedule shall apply to all employees of the Institute.

2. DEFINITIONS

In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a) "Commutated Leave" means leave as provided under paragraph 17.
- (b) "Completed years of service" means continuous service of the specified duration under the Institute and includes periods spent on duty as well as on deputation and extraordinary leave.
- (c) "Earned Leave" means leave earned in respect of periods spent on duty.
- (d) "Half-pay Leave" means leave earned in respect of completed years of service calculated according to the provisions hereinafter contained.
- (e) "Leave" includes earned leave, half-pay leave, commuted leave, leave not due and extraordinary leave.
- (f) 'Sabbatical Leave' means leave granted to any member of the Academic staff referred to in Clause (a) of Statute 11 for any of the objects mentioned in paragraph 21-C.

3. RIGHT OF LEAVE

Leave cannot be claimed as of right, and when the exigencies so demand, leave of any description may be refused or revoked by the authority empowered to sanction the leave.

4. AUTHORITY EMPOWERED TO SANCTION LEAVE

- (1) Applications for leave shall be addressed to the Board by the Director and to the Director by the other members of the staff.
- (2) Leave may be sanctioned by the Director or by a member of the staff to whom the power has been delegated by the Director.
- (3) The Board may sanction leave to the Director, but the Director can avail himself of casual leave on his own authority.

5. COMMENCEMENT AND TERMINATION OF LEAVE

- (1) Leave ordinarily begins from the date on which leave as such is actually availed of and ends on the day preceding the one on which duty is resumed.
- (2) Sundays and other holidays or the vacation may be prefixed as well as suffixed to leave, subject to any limit of absence on leave prescribed under each category of leave.

6. COMBINATION OF LEAVE

Except as otherwise provided in this Schedule, any kind of leave under these provisions may be granted in combination with or in continuation of any other kind of leave, subject to any limit on the aggregate period of absence as may be prescribed in such cases.

7. GRANT OF LEAVE BEYOND THE DATE OF RETIREMENT AND IN THE EVENT OF RESIGNATION

- (1) No leave shall be granted beyond the date on which a member of the staff must compulsorily retire.

Provided that the authority empowered to grant leave may allow any member of the staff who had been denied earned leave, in whole or in part, on account of the exigencies of service, the whole or any portion of the earned leave so denied, even though it extends to a date beyond the date on which such member of the staff must compulsorily retire.

Provided further that a member of the staff whose service has been extended in the interest of public service beyond the date of his compulsory retirement, may be granted earned leave as under:

- (i) during the period of extension any earned leave due in respect of the period of such extension, and to the extent necessary, the earned leave which would have been granted to him under the preceding provisos, had he retired on the date of compulsory retirement;
- (ii) after the expiry of the period of extension:
 - (a) the earned leave which could have been granted to him under the preceding provisos, had he retired on the date of compulsory retirement, diminished by the amount of such leave as availed of during the period of extension; and
 - (b) any leave earned during the period of extension as has been formally applied for as preparatory to final cessation of his duties in sufficient time during the period of extension and refused to him on account of the exigencies of public service;
- (iii) in determining the amount of earned leave due during the period of extension, the earned leave, if any, admissible under the preceding provisos shall be taken into account.

NOTE: For the purpose of this paragraph, a member of the staff may be deemed to have been denied leave only if a sufficient time before the date on which he must compulsorily retire, or the date on which his duties finally cease, he has either formally applied for leave and been refused it, on the ground of the exigencies of service or has ascertained in writing from the sanctioning authority that leave, if applied for, would not be granted on the ground aforesaid.

- (2) If any employee of the Institute resigns, he shall not be granted either prior or subsequent to his resignation, any leave due to his credit. Provided that the Director, may, in any case, grant leave to an employee prior to his resignation if, in the opinion of the Director, the circumstances of the case justify such grant of leave.

8. CONVERSION OF ONE KIND OF LEAVE INTO ANOTHER KIND

- (1) At the request of a member of the staff, the sanctioning authority may convert any kind of leave, including extraordinary leave, retrospectively, into leave of a different kind which may be admissible as on the day on which the member of staff proceeded on leave; but the member of the staff cannot claim such conversion as a matter of right.
- (2) If one kind of leave is converted into another, the amount of leave salary and allowances admissible shall be recalculated and the arrears of leave salary and allowances paid, or amounts overdrawn recovered, as the case may be.

9. REJOINING OF DUTY ON RETURN FROM LEAVE ON MEDICAL GROUNDS

A member of the staff who has been granted leave on medical certificate shall be required to produce a medical certificate of fitness before resuming duty.

10. REJOINING OF DUTY BEFORE THE EXPIRY OF LEAVE

Except with the permission of the authority which granted leave, no member of the staff on leave may return to duty before the expiry of the period of leave granted to him.

11. GENERAL

- (1) Leave should always be applied for and sanctioned before it is taken, except in cases of emergency and for satisfactory reasons.
- (2) Continuous temporary service, followed by permanent service without any break, shall be included in permanent service for the purpose of computation of leave.

12. KINDS OF LEAVE

The following kinds of leave shall be admissible to members of the staff:

- (a) Casual Leave
- (b) Special Casual Leave
- (c) Special Leave
- (d) Half-pay Leave
- (e) Commuted Leave
- (f) Earned Leave
- (g) Extraordinary Leave
- (h) Maternity Leave
- (i) Hospital Leave
- (j) Quarantine Leave
- (k) Leave Not Due
- (l) Sabbatical Leave

13. CASUAL LEAVE

- (1) Casual leave is not earned by duty. A member of the staff on casual leave is not treated as absent from duty and his pay is not intermitted. Casual leave cannot be claimed as of right and its grant is always subject to the exigencies of service and subject to a maximum of twelve days in the aggregate in a calendar year.
- (2) Casual leave may be granted at the discretion of the sanctioning authority, as and when occasion arises, provided that the total period of absence including Sundays and other holidays intervening prefixed or suffixed, shall not ordinarily exceed eight days at a time. Sundays and holidays, whether intervening, prefixed or suffixed, shall not be counted as casual leave.
- (3) Casual leave cannot be combined with any other kind of leave.

14. SPECIAL CASUAL LEAVE

- (1) Special casual leave, not counting towards ordinary casual leave, may be granted to a member of the staff when he is --
 - (i) summoned to serve as a Juror or Assessor or to give evidence before a court of law as a witness in a civil or a criminal case in which his private interests are not at issue;
 - (ii) deputed to attend a reference library of other Institutes or conferences and scientific gatherings of learned and professional societies in the interest of the Institute;

(iii) required to be absent for any other purposes approved by the Board of Governors.

(2) The period of such leave admissible in a year shall ordinarily not exceed fifteen days but should, however, be sufficient to cover the period of absence necessary. The conditions under which such leave will be granted will, if necessary, be laid down by the Board.

15. SPECIAL LEAVE

Members of the staff deputed for practical training in or out of India shall be entitled to special leave as may be determined by the Board in each case.

Provided that Sabbatical leave shall be admissible to a member of the academic staff -

- (i) after the completion of six years' continuous service, or more, with the Institute;
- (ii) where he avails of special leave, after the completion of six years' service or more with the Institute after his return from such special leave;

but in any case such leave shall not exceed three times (inclusive of special leave in case such leave has been granted) during the entire service of such member.

16. HALF-PAY LEAVE

- (1) The half-pay leave admissible to a member of the staff in respect of each completed year of service shall be twenty days.
- (2) Half-pay leave may be granted to a member of the staff on medical certificate or on private affairs. No half-pay leave may be granted to a member of the staff in temporary appointment except on medical certificate.

Provided that in case of a temporary member of the staff, no half pay leave will be granted, unless the authority competent to sanction leave is ready to believe that the officer will return to duty on the expiry of leave, except in the case of an officer who has been declared completely and permanently incapacitated for further service by medical authorities.

17. COMMUTED LEAVE

- (1) Commuted leave not exceeding half the amount of half-pay leave may be granted on medical certificate to a member of the staff subject to the following conditions, namely:--

- (a) When commuted leave is granted, twice the amount of such leave shall be debited against the half-pay leave due.
- (b) The total duration of earned leave and commuted leave taken in conjunction shall not exceed 240 days, provided that no commuted leave may be granted under this provision, unless the authority competent to sanction leave has reason to believe that the officer will return to duty on its expiry.
- (2) Half pay leave upto a maximum of 180 days may be allowed to be commuted during the entire service where such leave is utilised for an approved course of study such as a course which is certified to be in public interest by the leave sanctioning authority.

18. EARNED LEAVE

Earned leave admissible to members of the vacation staff

(1) During the period of one academic year, the period of vacation for an employee entitled to it will be sixty days.

(2) In case such a member of the staff is required to remain on duty during the whole or any part of the vacation, he shall be eligible to the following amount of earned leave on full pay:--

Duration of duty during vacation	Eligibility to earned leave on full pay
Entire vacation	.. 30 days.
Part of vacation	.. $30 \times \frac{\text{No. of days of vacation not availed of}}{\text{No. of days of the entire vacation}}$

Earned leave admissible to members of the non-vacation staff

(3) The earned leave admissible to a member of the staff other than vacation staff, shall be 30 days in a calendar year.

(4) The leave account of every said permanent employee shall be credited with earned leave in advance in two instalments of 15 days each on the first January and first July every year.

(5) The leave at the credit of an employee at the close of the previous half year shall be carried forward to the next half year, subject to the condition that the leave so carried forward plus the credit for the half year do not exceed the maximum limit of 180 days.

Limits of accumulation and grant (applicable to all members of the staff)

(6) A member of the staff shall cease to earn such leave when the earned leave amounts to 180 days.

(7) The maximum amount of earned leave that can be granted to a member of the staff at a time shall be 120 days. Earned leave may be granted for a period exceeding 120 days, if the entire leave so granted or any portion thereof is spent outside India, Burma, Ceylon, Nepal and Pakistan, provided that when earned leave exceeding 120 days is so granted, the period of such leave spent within India, Burma, Ceylon, Nepal and Pakistan, shall not, in the aggregate, exceed 120 days.

19. EXTRAORDINARY LEAVE

(1) Extraordinary leave shall always be without leave salary and may be granted when no other kind of leave is admissible, or when other leave being admissible, the member of the staff concerned specifically applied in writing for the grant of extraordinary leave.

(2) The period of extraordinary leave shall not count for increment except when such leave is granted due to sickness on medical certificate or for prosecuting higher studies, provided that in case of any doubt whether the extraordinary leave taken was for prosecuting higher studies or not, the decision of the Chairman shall be final.

(3) (a) Except in the case of a permanent employee, the duration of extraordinary leave on any one occasion shall not exceed the following limits:-

- (i) Three months.
- (ii) Six months, where the employee has completed three years continuous service on the date of expiry of the leave admissible to him under the rules, and his request for such leave is supported by a medical certificate.
- (iii) Eighteen months, where the employee is suffering from tuberculosis or leprosy and undergoing treatment in a recognised clinic or under a specialist.

(b) Where an employee, other than a permanent employee, fails to resume duty on the expiry of the maximum amount of extraordinary leave granted to him, or where such an employee who was granted a lesser amount of extraordinary leave than the maximum amount admissible to him, remains absent from duty for any period which, together with the period of extraordinary leave granted to him, exceeds the limit upto which he could have been granted extraordinary leave under sub-rule (a), he shall, unless the Board, in view of the exceptional circumstances of the case, otherwise determines, be deemed to have resigned his appointment and shall cease to be in the Institute employ.

(4) The authority empowered to grant leave may commute retrospectively the period of absence without leave into extraordinary leave.

20. MATERNITY LEAVE

(1) Maternity leave may be granted to a woman member of the staff on full pay for a period which may extend upto the end of three months from the date of its commencement, or to the end of six weeks from the date of confinement, whichever is earlier. Maternity leave may also be granted in cases of miscarriage including abortion, subject to the condition that the leave applied for does not exceed six weeks and the application for leave is supported by a medical certificate.

(2) Maternity leave shall not be debited to the leave account.

(3) Maternity leave may be combined with leave of any other kind except casual leave, but any leave applied for in continuation of maternity leave may be granted only if the application is supported by a medical certificate.

21. HOSPITAL LEAVE

(i) Hospital leave may be granted to a member of the staff under medical treatment for illness or injury, if such illness or injury is directly due to risks incurred in the course of his official duty. This concession will be available to such members of the staff, the nature of whose duties exposes them to such illness or injury, and whose appointing authority is the Director.

(ii) Hospital leave may be granted on leave salary, either average or half average, as the authority granting it may consider necessary.

(iii) Members of staff eligible for Hospital leave will be entitled to such leave without any restriction on the quantum of leave and the leave can be granted for such period as is considered necessary by the authority competent to grant it.

(iv) Hospital leave is not debited against the leave account and may be combined with any other leave which may be admissible, provided that the total period of leave after such combination shall not exceed twenty-eight months.

21-A QUARANTINE LEAVE

(1) Quarantine leave is granted when a member of staff is precluded under orders of the competent medical authority from attending office in consequence of an infectious disease in his family or household. Such leave can be granted only on the certificate of a medical or public health officer. Maximum duration of quarantine leave is ordinarily twentyone days and may be extended upto thirty days in exceptional circumstances. Any absence beyond these limits has to be treated as regular leave. A member of staff on quarantine leave is not treated as absent from duty and his pay is not interrupted.

(2) Quarantine leave is not admissible if the member of staff himself is suffering from an infectious disease.

(3) Cholera, Small-pox, plague, diphtheria, Typhus fever and Cerebrospinal Meningitis can be treated as infectious diseases for the grant of quarantine leave. In the case of Chicken-pox, however, no quarantine leave can be granted unless the Health Officer considers that in view of some doubt about the nature of the disease, there is reason for grant of such leave.

21-B LEAVE NOT DUE

(1) Save as in the case of leave preparatory to retirement, leave not due may be granted to permanent members of staff both on medical certificate and on private affairs for a period not exceeding 360 days during his entire service, out of which not more than 180 days in all can be on private affairs.

(2) Leave not due shall be granted to a member of staff only if the sanctioning authority is satisfied that there is reasonable chance of the member of staff returning to duty on expiry of leave and shall be limited to half-pay which he is likely to earn thereafter.

(3) Leave not due is admissible when no other kind of leave is due and admissible.

(4) A member of staff, while on leave not due, is entitled to the same leave salary as during half-pay leave.

21-C SABBATICAL LEAVE

(1) Sabbatical leave may be granted for one or more of the following objects, namely:-

(a) to conduct research or advanced studies in India or abroad;

(b) to write text books, standard works and other literature;

(c) to visit or work in industrial concerns and technical departments of Government to gain practical experience in their respective fields;

(d) to visit or work in a University, Industry or Government research laboratories in India and abroad;

and

(e) any other purposes for the academic development of the staff member, as approved by the Board of Governors.

(2) The grant of sabbatical leave shall be subject to the following conditions, namely:-

(a) the period of sabbatical leave shall not exceed one year at a time inclusive of vacations, if any, but the Board may grant in addition any other leave upto a maximum of 120 days which the member might have earned during the service at the Institute;

(b) a member of the academic staff shall, during the period of sabbatical leave, be paid full salary and allowances as admissible under the normal rules but he shall not be entitled to any travelling allowance or any extra allowance in India or abroad;

(c) no substitute shall be appointed in the vacancy and his work shall be shared by the other members of the Faculty;

(d) a member of the academic staff shall not undertake during the period of sabbatical leave, any regular appointment under any other organisation in India or abroad, he shall, however, be free to receive a scholarship or fellowship or bursary or any other ad hoc honorarium other than his regular employment;

(e) a member of the academic staff availing sabbatical leave shall furnish a bond in the prescribed form to serve the Institute for a minimum period of three years on return to duty.

22. VACATION AND LEAVE SALARY

(1) An employee of the Institute entitled to vacation shall be eligible for pay and allowances at full rates during the period of vacation.

(2) (a) Except as provided in sub-para 22(2)(b) below, a member of staff on earned leave, is entitled to the leave salary equal to the average monthly pay drawn during the ten complete months immediately preceding the month in which the leave commences or the substantive pay to which he is entitled immediately before the commencement of the leave, whichever is greater.

(b) A member of the staff who proceeds on earned leave shall be entitled to leave salary equal to the pay drawn immediately before proceeding on leave.

(3) A member of staff on half-pay leave is entitled to leave salary equal to the half amount specified in sub-para (2)(a) or (2)(b) as the case may be subject to a maximum of Rs.750.00 provided that the limit will not apply if the leave is on medical certificate.

(4) A member of the staff on commuted leave is entitled to leave salary equal to twice the amount admissible under sub-rule (3).

23. INCREMENT DURING LEAVE

If the increment falls during the leave other than casual leave, the effect of increase in pay shall be given on the day following the date of expiry (last day) of the leave as such, without prejudice to the normal date of increment.

24. LIMIT OF TOTAL ABSENCE

A member of the staff ceases to be in ^{the} service of the Institute if he is continuously absent from duty for five years, whether with or without leave, unless such absence is absence on foreign service in India.

25. CASH EQUIVALENT OF LEAVE SALARY IN CERTAIN CASES

In case an employee died while he is in service, the cash equivalent of the leave salary that the deceased employee would have got had he gone on earned leave on the date of death shall be given to his family subject to a maximum of leave salary for 180 days.

26. CASH PAYMENT IN LIEU OF UNUTILISED EARNED LEAVE ON THE DATE OF RETIREMENT

An employee may be paid cash equivalent of leave salary admissible in respect of the period of earned leave at his credit at the time of retirement on superannuation in one lump sum as a one time settlement subject to a maximum of 180 days, and further subject to other conditions laid down by the Government from time to time.

SCHEDULE "E"

Constitution and management of the Fund

3. (1) The Fund, which shall be maintained in rupees, shall be constituted with subscriptions paid by the subscribers and contributions made by the Institute and shall include interest paid to the credit of the account of the subscribers under sub-paragraph (†) of paragraph 10.
- (2) The management of the Fund is vested in the Board. Subject to the control and direction of the Board, the Director shall administer the fund for and on behalf of the Board.
- (3) The Fund shall be deposited, in the name of the Fund, with the State Bank of India. The deposits be made as soon as possible after the monthly accounts are closed.
- (4) The Institute may invest such part of the funds, as may be considered expedient, in the Government securities/ certificates, negotiable Government guaranteed bonds, and in such deposit schemes of the Central Government as may be notified in this regard from time to time, the interest or profit realised on such investments being credited to the Institute as Miscellaneous receipts. All investments and securities shall be held in the name of the Institute.

Nomination

4. (1) A subscriber shall, at the time of joining the Fund, send to the Registrar a nomination, conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund, in the event of his death before that amount has become payable, or having become payable, has not been paid:

Provided that if, at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has a family, the nomination shall not be in favour of any person or persons other than the member of his family:

Provided further that the nomination made by the subscriber in respect of any other Provident Fund to which he was subscribing before joining the Fund, shall, if the amount to his credit in such other fund has been transferred to his credit in this fund, be deemed to be a nomination duly made under this rule until he makes a nomination in accordance with this sub-paragraph.

NOTE: In this paragraph, unless the context otherwise requires, "person" or "persons" shall include a Company or Association or body of individuals, whether incorporated or not.

- (2) If a subscriber nominates more than one person under subparagraph (1), he shall specify in the nomination the amount or share payable to each of the nominee in such manner as to cover the whole of the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund at any time.
- (3) Every nomination shall be in such one of the Forms set forth in Appendix II as is appropriate in the circumstances.
- (4) A subscriber may, at any time, cancel his nomination by sending notice in writing to the Registrar:

Provided that the subscriber shall along with such notice send a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

- (5) A subscriber may provide in a nomination -
- (a) in respect of any specified nominee that in the event of his nominee predeceasing the subscriber the right conferred upon that nominee shall pass to such other person as may be specified in the nomination.

Provided such other person or persons shall, if the subscriber has other members of his family, be such other member or members. Where the subscriber confers such a right on more than one person under this clause, he shall specify the amount or share payable to each of such persons in such a manner as to cover the whole of the amount payable to the nominee;

- (b) that the nomination shall become invalid in the event of the happening of a contingency specified therein:

Provided that if at the time of making nomination the subscriber has no family, he shall provide in the nomination that it shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring a family:

Provided further that if at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has only one member of the family, he shall provide in the nomination that the right conferred upon the alternate nominee under clause (a) shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring other member or members in his family.

- (6) Immediately on the death of a nominee in respect of whom no special provision has been made in the nomination under clause (a) of sub-para.(5) or on the occurrence of any event by reasons of which the nomination becomes invalid in pursuance of clause (b) of sub-para (5) or the proviso thereto, the subscriber shall send to the Registrar a notice in writing cancelling the nomination together with a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

- (7) Every nomination made and every notice of cancellation given by a subscriber shall, to the extent that it is valid, take effect, on the date on which it is received by the Institute.
- (8) An up-to-date Register shall be maintained by the Institute to record all nominations.

Subscribers' Accounts

- 5. An account shall be opened in the name of each subscriber in the form set forth in Appendix III, in which shall be shown --
 - i) the subscriber's subscriptions;
 - ii) contributions made under paragraph 9 by the Institute to his account;
 - iii) interest, as provided by paragraph 10, on subscription;
 - iv) interest, as provided by paragraph 10, on contributions; and
 - v) advance and withdrawals from his account.

Conditions and Rates of Subscription

- 6. (1) Every subscriber shall subscribe monthly to the Fund when on duty or on foreign service but not during a period of suspension: Provided that a subscriber on re-instatement after a period passed under suspension shall be allowed the option of paying in one sum, or in instalments, any sum not exceeding the maximum amount of arrears of subscriptions permissible for that period.
- (2) A subscriber may, at his option, not subscribe during leave other than leave on average pay or earned leave of less than 30 days' duration by sending a notice in writing to the Registrar before or soon after proceeding on leave. Failure to make due and timely intimation shall be deemed to constitute an election to subscribe. The option of a subscriber intimated under this sub-paragraph shall be final.
- (3) A subscriber who has, under paragraph 29, withdrawn the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon, shall not subscribe to the Fund after such withdrawal, unless he returns to duty.

7. (1) The amount of subscription shall be fixed, subject to the following conditions:
- (a) It shall be expressed in whole rupees (50 paise and above counting as the next higher rupee).
- (b) It may be any sum, not less than $\frac{8}{3}$ percent of the emoluments.
- (2) For the purposes of clause (b) of sub-para (1), the emoluments of a subscriber shall be --
- the emoluments to which he was entitled on the 31st March of the preceding year.
- (3) The amount of subscription so fixed may be enhanced or reduced only one during the course of a year.
- Provided that if a subscriber is on duty for a part of a month and on leave for the remainder of the month and if he has elected not to subscribe during the leave the amount of subscription payable shall be proportionate to the number of days spent on duty in the month.
- (4) When a subscriber is temporarily transferred to foreign service (elsewhere) or sent out of India, he shall remain, subject to the provisions contained in this Schedule in the same manner as if he were not so transferred or sent out.

Realisation of subscriptions

8. (1) When emoluments are drawn from the funds of the Institute, recovery of subscriptions on account of these emoluments and of the principal and interest of advance shall be made from the emoluments themselves.
- (2) When emoluments are drawn from any other source, the subscriber shall forward his dues monthly to the Institute.

Contribution by the Institute

9. (1) The Institute shall, with effect from the 31st March of each year, make a contribution to the account of each subscriber.
- Provided that if a subscriber quits the service or dies during a year, contribution shall be credited to his account for the period between the close of the preceding year and the date of the casualty.
- Provided further that no contribution shall be payable in respect of any period for which the subscriber is permitted under this Schedule not to, or does not, subscribe to the Fund.

- (2) The contribution shall be a sum representing 8 percent of the emoluments of the subscriber, drawn on duty during the year or for a period in the year as the case may be.
- (3) Should a subscriber elect to subscribe during leave, his leave salary shall, for the purpose of this rule, be deemed to be emoluments drawn on duty.
- (4) The amount of any contribution payable in respect of a period of foreign service shall, unless it is recovered from the employer, be recovered by the Institute from the subscriber.
- (5) The amount of contribution payable shall be rounded to the nearest whole rupee (50 paise and above counting as the next higher rupee).

Interest

10. (1) The Institute shall pay to the credit of the account of a subscriber interest at such rate as the Central Government may, from time to time, prescribe in the case of their employees.
- (2) Interest shall be credited with effect from the 31st March of each year in the following manner:
 - i) on the amount at the credit of a subscriber on the 31st March of the preceding year, less any sums withdrawn during the current year -- interest for twelve months;
 - ii) on sums withdrawn during the current year - interest from the 1st April of the current year upto the last day of the month preceding the month of withdrawal;
 - iii) on all sums credited to the subscriber's account after the 31st March of the preceding year - interest from the date of deposit upto the 31st March of the current year;
 - iv) the total amount of interest shall be rounded to the nearest rupee in the manner provided in sub-paragraph (5) of Paragraph 9:

Provided that when the amount standing at the credit of a subscriber has become payable, interest shall thereupon be credited under this sub-paragraph in respect only of the period from the beginning of the current year or from the date of credit as the case may be upto the date on which the amount standing at the credit of the subscriber becomes payable.

- (3) For the purpose of this paragraph, the date of credit shall be deemed to be first day of the month in which it is credited.

Provided that where there has been a delay in the drawal of pay or leave salary and allowance of a subscriber, and consequently in the recovery of his subscription towards the Fund, the interest on such subscriptions shall be payable from the month in which the pay or leave salary of the subscriber was due, irrespective of the month in which it was actually drawn.

- (4) In all cases interest will be paid in respect of balance at the credit of a subscriber upto the close of the month preceding that in which payment is made or upto the end of sixth month after the month in which such amount become payable whichever of these periods be less.
- (5) Subject to the provision of sub-paragraph (4), no interest shall be paid in respect of any period after the date which the Registrar has intimated to that person or his agent as the date on which he is prepared to make payments.

Advance from the Fund

11. A temporary advance may be granted to a subscriber from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund at the discretion of the authority specified in paragraph 12 subject to the following conditions:-

- (a) No advance shall be granted unless the sanctioning authority is satisfied that the applicant's pecuniary circumstances justify it, and that it will be expended on the following object or objects and not otherwise:
- i) to pay expenses in connection with the prolonged illness or confinement of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him;
 - ii) to pay for the overseas passage for reasons of health or education of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him;
 - iii) to pay obligatory expenses on a scale appropriate to the applicant's status in connection with marriages, funerals or ceremonies which by religion it is incumbent on him to perform;
 - iv) to pay for expenses outside India in connection with the education, beyond high school stage, of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him;

v) to pay for expenses of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him in connection with any medical, engineering or other technical or specialised course or other general higher education in India beyond the high-school stage;

Provided that the duration of the course of study is not less than three years;

vi) to meet the cost of his defence where the subscriber is prosecuted by the Government or Institute in any court of law or where the subscriber engages any legal practitioner to defend him in an enquiry in respect of any alleged official misconduct on his part;

vii) to meet the cost of legal proceedings instituted by the subscriber for vindicating his position in regard to any allegations made against him in respect of any act done or purporting to have been done by him in the discharge of his official duty;

NOTE: An advance under sub-clause (vi) shall be available to the applicant in addition to any advance admissible for the same purpose from any other Government source but the advance under the said sub-clause shall not be admissible to a subscriber either in respect of any legal proceedings instituted by him in any court of law against the Government/Institute as regards any penalty imposed on him or any condition of service or in respect of any legal proceedings in regard to any matter unconnected with his official duties.

- (b) An advance shall not, except for special reasons, exceed three months' pay, and shall in no case exceed the amount of subscription and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund.
- (c) An advance shall not, except for special reasons, be granted until at least twelve months after the final repayment of all previous advances together with interest thereon.
- (d) The sanctioning authority shall record in writing the special reasons where advances is sanctioned for such reasons.
- (e) An application for temporary advance from the Fund shall be submitted in the Form set forth in Appendix IV.

12. (1) A temporary advance from the Fund to the subscriber other than the Director shall be sanctioned by the Director, who may, at his discretion, delegate this work to the Deputy Director and the Registrar.
- (2) A temporary advance from the Fund to the Director shall require the sanction of the Chairman.
13. (1) An advance shall be recovered from the subscriber in such number of equal monthly instalments as the sanctioning authority may direct; but such number shall not be less than twelve unless the subscriber so elects, or in any case not more than twenty-four.
- A subscriber may, at his option, make repayment in a smaller number of instalments than that prescribed. Each instalment shall be a number of whole rupees, the amount of the advance being raised or reduced, if necessary, to admit of the fixation of such instalments.
- (2) (a) Recovery shall be made in the manner provided in paragraph 8 for the realisation of subscription and shall commence with the issue of pay for the month following the one in which the advance was drawn.
- (b) Recovery shall not be made, except with the subscriber's consent while he is on leave or in receipt of subsistence grant and may be postponed by the sanctioning authority during the recovery of the advance of pay granted to the subscriber.
- (3) If more than one advance has been made to a subscriber, each advance shall be treated separately for the purpose of recovery.
- (4) After the principal of the advance has been fully repaid, interest shall be paid thereon at the rate of one-fifth percent of the principal for each month or broken portion of a month during the period between the drawal and complete repayment of the principal.
- (5) (a) Interest shall ordinarily be recovered in one instalment in the month after complete repayment of the principal; but if the period referred to in sub-paragraph (4) exceeds twenty months, interest may, if the subscriber so desires be recovered in two equal monthly instalments and the method of recovery shall be that provided in sub-paragraph (2).
- (b) Payment shall be rounded off to the nearest rupee in the manner provided in sub-paragraph (5) of paragraph 9.

(6) Recoveries made under this paragraph shall be credited, as they are made, to the account of the subscriber in the Fund.

14. (1) Subject to the conditions specified hereunder, withdrawals may be sanctioned by the Chairman, in the case of a withdrawal by the Director and by the Director in any other case, at any time after the completion of 20 years of service (including broken periods of service, if any), of a subscriber or within 10 years before the date of his retirement on superannuation, whichever is earlier, from the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund for one or more of the following purposes, namely:-
- (a) Meeting the cost of higher education, including where necessary, the travelling expenses of any child of the subscriber in the following cases, namely:-
 - i) for education outside India for academic, technical, professional or vocational courses beyond the High School stage, and
 - ii) for any medical, engineering or other technical professional or specialised courses or other general higher education in India beyond the High School stage, provided that the course of study is for not less than three years.
 - (b) Meeting the expenditure in connection with the marriage of the subscriber's son or daughter and any other female relation actually dependent on him.
 - (c) Meeting the expenses in connection with the illness including where necessary, the travelling expenses of the subscriber or any person actually dependent on him.
 - (d) Building or acquiring a suitable house for his residence including the cost of the site or repaying any outstanding amount on account of loan or expressly taken for this purpose or reconstructing making additions or alterations to a house already owned or acquired by the subscriber.
 - (e) Purchasing a house site or repaying any outstanding amount on account of loan expressly taken for this purpose.
 - (f) For constructing a house on a site purchased utilising the sum withdrawn under clause (e).

NOTE:

A subscriber who has availed himself of an advance for house building purpose or has been allowed any assistance in this regard from any other Government source, shall be eligible for the grant of final withdrawal under clauses (d), (e) and (f) for the purposes specified therein and also for the purposes specified therein and also for the purpose of repayment of any loan taken under the aforesaid scheme, subject to the limit specified in sub-para (1) of para 15".

- (2) The actual withdrawal from the Fund shall be made only on receipt of an authorisation from the Accounts Officer who shall arrange this as soon as the formal sanction of the sanctioning authority has been issued.
15. (1) Any sum withdrawn by a subscriber at any one time for one or more of the purpose specified in paragraph 14 from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall not ordinarily exceed one-half of the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund or 6 months' pay whichever is less. The sanctioning authority may, however, sanction the withdrawal of an amount in excess of this limit up to three-fourths of the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber having due regard to (i) the object for which the withdrawal is being made, (ii) the status of the subscriber and (iii) the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund.
- (2) A subscriber who has been permitted to withdraw money from the Fund under paragraph 14 shall satisfy the sanctioning authority within a reasonable period as may be specified by that authority that the money has been utilised for the purpose for which it was withdrawn, and if he fails to do so, the whole of the sum so withdrawn, or so much thereof as has not been applied for the purpose for which it was withdrawn shall forthwith be repaid in one lump sum together with interest thereon at the rate determined under paragraph 10 by the subscriber to the Fund and in default of such payment, it shall be ordered by the sanctioning authority to be recovered from his emoluments either in a lump sum or in such number of monthly instalments, as may be determined by the Institute.
16. A subscriber who has already drawn or may draw in future an advance under paragraph 11 for any of the purposes specified in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 14 may convert, at his discretion, by written request addressed to the Accounts Officer through the sanctioning authority the balance outstanding against it into a final withdrawal on his satisfying the conditions laid down in paragraphs 14 and 15.

Payments towards Insurance Policies and Family Pension FUNDS

17. On written application from a subscriber to the Fund and subject to the conditions contained in paragraph 18 & 25.

- (a) (i) subscriptions to a family pension fund; and
(ii) payments towards an insurance policy may be substituted for the whole or part of subscriptions to the Fund:
- (b) the amount of subscriptions with interest thereon standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund may be withdrawn to meet:-
- i) payments towards an insurance policy;
ii) purchase of a single payment insurance policy;
iii) payment of a single premium or subscriptions to a family pension fund:

Provided that both in respect of (a) and (b) the family pension is (i) approved by the Board; and (ii) insurance policy is such as may be legally assigned by the subscriber himself in favour of the Institute and is so assigned by him and is delivered to the Registrar as a security against payment made from the Fund.

18. (1) An insurance policy effected by the subscriber himself on his own life or on the joint lives of the subscriber and his wife which shall be deemed to be a policy on the life of the subscriber himself, may be accepted for assignment in favour of the Institute.
- (2) A policy which has been assigned to the subscriber's wife shall not be accepted unless either the policy is first re-assigned to the subscriber or the subscriber and his wife both join in an appropriate assignment.
- (3) An insurance policy shall be assigned to the Institute by means of an endorsement made on the policy itself in Form (1) or Form (2) or Form (3) of the Forms given in Appendix V according as the policy is on the life of the subscriber or on the joint lives of the subscriber and his wife or the policy has previously been assigned to the subscriber's wife.
- (4) Notice of assignment of a policy shall be given by the subscriber to the Insurance Company, and the acknowledgment of the notice by the Insurance Company shall be sent to the Registrar within three months of the date of assignment.

- (5) Where an Insurance policy has been assigned to the Institute, the Registrar shall satisfy himself by referring to the Insurancy Company, where possible, that no prior assignment of the policy exists.
19. (1) Except in the cases of the Hindu Family (pension) Annuity Fund and the Postal Life Assurance Policies in respect of which subscriptions or premiums which are paid by the Institute to the extent of recoveries actually made from the monthly salary bills, the Institute shall not make any payment on behalf of subscribers to Insurance Companies, nor take steps to keep a policy alive.
- (2) A subscriber who desires to substitute his Fund subscriptions in whole or part for payment to a family Pension Fund or Insurance under clause (a) of paragraph 17 may reduce his subscription to the Fund within its limit:
- Provided that except in the case of subscriptions or premiums mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) the subscriber shall send to the Registrar, within a period of two months from the date of payment, receipts or certified copies of receipts in order to satisfy that the amount by which the subscription to the Fund has been reduced was duly applied for the purposes specified in clause (a) of paragraph 17.
- (3) A subscriber who desires to withdraw any amount under clause (b) of paragraph 17 within limit of his subscription in the Fund shall make arrangements with the Registrar for the withdrawal of the amount to be paid from his subscription in the Fund:-
- Provided that the subscriber shall send to the Registrar, within a period of two months from the date of payment, receipts or certified copies of receipts in order to satisfy that the amount withdrawn was duly applied for the purposes specified in clause (b) of paragraph 17.
- (4) Any amount withdrawn under clause (a) or (b) of paragraph 17 shall be paid in whole rupees rounded off to the nearest rupee in the manner provided in sub-para (5) of paragraph 9.
20. (1) If the total amount of any subscriptions or payments substituted under clause (a) of paragraph 17 is less than the amount of minimum subscription payable to the Fund under paragraph 7 the difference should be rounded off to the nearest rupee in the manner provided in sub-paragraph (5) of paragraph 9 and paid by the subscriber as a subscription to the Fund.

- (2) If the subscriber withdrawn any amount standing to his credit in the Fund for any of the purposes specified in clause (b) of paragraph 17 he shall continue to pay to the Fund the subscriptions payable under paragraph 7.
21. Once an Insurance Policy has been accepted for the purposes of being financed from the Fund, the terms of the Policy shall not be altered nor shall the Policy be exchanged for another Policy without the prior consent of the Director. Further, the premium of Life Insurance Policies assigned under this provision shall not be payable otherwise than annually.
22. The subscriber shall not during the currency of the policy draw any bonus the drawal of which during such currency is optional under the terms of the policy and the amount of any bonus which under the terms of the policy the subscriber has no option to refrain from drawing during its currency shall be paid forthwith into the Funds by the subscriber or in default recovered by reduction from his emoluments by instalments or otherwise as the Board may direct.
23. (1) Save as provided in sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 25 when the subscriber :
- (a) quite the service, or
 - (b) has proceeded on leave preparatory to retirement and applied to the Institute for re-assignment or return of the Policy, or
 - (c) while on leave, has been permitted to retire or declared by competent medical authority to be unfit for further service and applies to the Institute for re-assignment or return of policy, or the Registrar shall, if the policy has been assigned in favour of the Institute under paragraph 18. re-assign the policy in the first Form set forth in Appendix VI to the subscriber, or to the subscriber and the joint assured, as the case may be, and make it over to the subscriber, together with a signed notice of the re-assignment addressed to the Insurance Company.
 - (d) pays or repays to the Fund the whole of any amount withheld or withdrawn from the Fund for any of the purposes mentioned in sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) of paragraph 17 and sub-clauses (i) and (ii) of clause (b) of paragraph 17 with interest thereon at the rate provided in paragraph 10:

- (2) Save as provided by sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 25, when the subscriber dies before quitting the service, the Registrar shall re-assign the policy in the second form set forth in Appendix VI to such person as may be legally entitled to receive it, and shall make over the policy to such person together with a signed notice of the re-assignment addressed to the Insurance Company.
24. If a policy assigned in favour of the Institute under paragraph 18 matures before the subscriber quits the service, or if a policy on the joint lives of a subscriber and his wife, assigned under the said paragraph falls due for payment by reason of the wife's death, the full amount of the policy shall, on realisation, be credited to the Fund of the subscriber.
25. (1) If the interest of the subscriber in the family pension fund ceases in whole or part for any cause whatsoever the provident fund account of the subscriber shall forthwith be reimbursed by the amount of the refund, if any, secured by the subscriber from the family pension fund which amount shall, in default or reimbursement, be deducted from the subscriber's emoluments by instalments or otherwise, as the Board may direct.
- (2) If the Institute receives notice of -
- (a) an assignment (other than an assignment in favour of the Institute under paragraph 18) or
 - (b) a charge of encumbrance on or
 - (c) an order of a Court restraining dealing with the policy or any amount realised thereon, the Registrar shall not -
 - i) re-assign or make over the policy as provided in paragraph 23;
 - ii) realise the amount assured by the policy, as provided in paragraph 24, but shall forthwith refer the matter to the Board.
26. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Schedule, if the sanctioning authority is satisfied that money withheld or withdrawn from the Fund under clause (a) or clause (b) of paragraph 17 has been utilised for a purpose other than that for which sanction was given to the withholding or withdrawal of the money from the Fund, the amount in question shall with interest at the rate provided in paragraph 10, forthwith be paid by the subscriber to the Fund, or in default, be ordered to be recovered by deduction in one sum from the emoluments of the subscriber even if he be on leave. If the total amount to be paid is more than one-half the subscriber's emoluments, recoveries shall be made in monthly instalments⁹ of moieties of his emoluments till the entire amount recoverable is paid by him.

NOTE: The term 'emoluments' as used in this paragraph does not include subsistence grant.

Restriction of the provisions relating to financing of Policies

27. The provisions contained in paragraphs 17 to 26 shall apply only to subscribers who have been substituting in whole or in part, payments towards policies of life insurance for subscriptions to the Fund or making withdrawals from the Fund for such payments prior to the 6th November, 1962:

Provided that such subscribers shall not be permitted to substitute such payments for subscriptions due to the Fund or to withdraw from the Fund for making such payments in respect of any new policy.

Circumstances in which Accumulations are payable

28. When a subscriber quits the service, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall, subject to any deduction under paragraph 31, become payable to him:

Provided that a subscriber, who has been dismissed from the service and is subsequently reinstated in the service, shall if required to do so by the Institute, repay any amount paid to him from the Fund in pursuance of this para, with interest thereon at the rate provided in paragraph 10 in the manner provided in the proviso to paragraph 29. The amount so repaid shall be credited to his account in the Fund, the part which represents his subscriptions and interest thereon, and the part which represents the Institute contribution with interest thereon being accounted for in the manner provided in paragraph 5.

29. When a subscriber--

- (a) has proceeded on leave preparatory to retirement or if he is employed in a vacation department, on leave preparatory to retirement combined with vacation, or
- (b) while on leave, has been permitted to retire or declared by competent medical authority to be unfit for further service, the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to his credit in the Fund shall, upon applications made by him in that behalf to the Director, become payable to the subscriber.

Provided that the subscriber, if he returns to duty, shall, if required to do so by the Institute, repay to the Fund, for credit to his account, the whole or part of any amount paid to him from the Fund in pursuance of this rule, with interest thereon at the rate provided in paragraph 10, in cash or securities, or partly in cash and partly in securities, by instalments or otherwise, as the Institute may direct.

30. Subject to any deduction under paragraph 31, on the death of a subscriber before the amount standing to his credit has become payable or where the amount has become payable, before payment has been made,

(1) When the subscriber leaves a family-

- (a) if a nomination made by the subscriber in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 4 in favour of a member or members of his family subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination;
- (b) in no such nomination in favour of a member or members of the family of the subscriber subsists, or if such nomination relates only to part of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate, as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding any nomination purporting to be in favour of any person or persons other than a member or members of his family, become payable to the members of his family in equal shares:

Provided that no share shall be payable to--

- (1) sons who have attained majority;
- (2) sons of a deceased son who have attained majority;
- (3) married daughters whose husbands are alive;
- (4) married daughters of a deceased son whose husbands are alive if there is any member of the family other than those specified in clauses (1), (2), (3) and (4):

Provided also that the widow or widows and the child or children of a deceased son shall receive between them in equal parts only the share which that son would have received if he had survived the subscriber and had been exempted from the provisions of clause (1) of the first proviso;

NOTE: I - (i) Any sum payable under this paragraph to a member of the family of a subscriber vests in such member under subsection (2) of section 3 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925.

(ii) When the subscriber leave no family if a nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 4, in favour of any person or persons subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination.

NOTE II: When a nominee is a dependent of the subscriber as defined in clause (c) of section 2 of the Provident Funds Act 1925, the amount vests in such nominee under sub-section (2) of section 3 of that Act.

(2) When the subscriber leaves no family and no nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 4 subsists, or if such nomination relates only to part of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, the relevant provisions of clause (b) and of sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925, are applicable to the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate.

Deposit Linked Insurance Scheme

30A On the death of a subscriber, the person entitled to receive the amount standing to the credit of the subscriber shall be paid by the Accounts Officer an additional amount equal to the average amount of subscription and interest thereon at the credit in the account during the 3 years immediately preceding the death of such subscriber, subject to the condition that-

(a) the balance representing subscription with interest thereon at the credit of such subscriber shall not at any time during the 3 years preceding the month of death have fallen below the limits of -

i) Rs.4,000/- in the case of a subscriber who has held, for the greater part of the aforesaid period of 3 years, a post the maximum of the pay scale of which is Rs.1,300/- or more;

- ii) Rs.2,500/- in the case of a subscriber who has held, for the greater part of the aforesaid period of three years, a post the maximum of the pay scale of which is Rs.900/- or more but less than Rs.1,300/-;
 - iii) Rs.1,500/- in the case of subscriber who has held, for the greater part of the aforesaid period of three years, a post the maximum of the pay scale of which Rs.291/- or more but less than Rs.900/-;
 - iv) Rs.1000/- in the case of a subscriber who has held for the greater part of the aforesaid period of three years, a post the maximum of the pay scale of which is less than Rs.291/-;
- (b) the additional amount payable under this rule shall not exceed Rs.10,000/-;
 - (c) the subscriber has put in atleast 5 years service at the time of his death.

Note 1: The average balance shall be worked out on the basis of the balance at the credit of the subscriber at the end of each of the 36 months preceding the month in which the death occurs. For this purpose, as also for checking the minimum balances prescribed above--

- (a) the balance at the end of March shall include the annual interest on subscription credited in terms of paragraph 10; and
- (b) if the last of the aforesaid 36 months is not March, the balances at the end of the said last month shall include interest on subscription in respect of the period from the beginning of the financial year in which death occurs to the end of the last month.

Note 2: Payments under this scheme should be in whole rupees. If an amount due includes a fraction of a rupee, it should be rounded to the nearest rupee (50 paise counting as the next higher rupee).

Note 3: Any sum payable under this scheme is in the nature of insurance money and therefore, the statutory protection given by section 3 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925 (Act 19 of 1925) does not apply to sums payable under this scheme.

Note:4: This scheme also applies to these subscribers to the Fund who are transferred to an autonomous organisation consequent upon conversion of a Government Department into such a body and who, on such transfer, opt, in terms of option given to them to subscribe to this Fund in accordance with these rules.

- Note 5:
- (a) In case of an employee of the Institute who has been admitted to the benefits of the Fund under Statute 16(2),/Statute 16A(1), but dies before completion of three years service or, as the case may be, five years service from the date of his admission to the Fund, that period of his service under the previous employer in respect whereof the amount of his subscriptions and the employer's contribution, if any, together with interest have been received, shall count for purposes of clause (a) and clause (c).
 - (b) In case of persons appointed on tenure basis and in the case of re-employed pensioners, service rendered from the date of such appointment or re-employment, as the case may be, only will count for purposes of this rule.
 - (c) This scheme does not apply to persons appointed on contract basis.

Note 6: The budget estimates of expenditure in respect of this scheme will be prepared by the Accounts Officers responsible for maintenance of the accounts of the Fund having regard to the trend of expenditure, in the same manner as estimates are prepared for other retirement benefits.

Deductions

31. Subject to the conditions that no deduction may be made which reduces the credit by more than the amount of any contribution by the Institute with interest thereon credited under paragraph 9 and 10, before the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund is paid out of the Fund, the Board may direct the deduction therefrom and payment to the Institute of --

- (a) any amount, if a subscriber has been dismissed from the service, for grave misconduct:

Provided that, if the order of dismissal is subsequently cancelled, the amount so deducted shall, on his re-instatement in the service, be replaced at his credit in the Fund;

- (b) any amount, if a subscriber resigns his employment with the Institute, within five years of the commencement thereof, otherwise than by reason of superannuation or a declaration by competent medical authority that he is unfit for further service;
 - (c) any amount due under a liability incurred by the subscriber to the Institute.
32. (1) (a) When the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund or the balance thereof after any deduction under paragraph 31 becomes payable, it shall be the duty of the Registrar, after obtaining the sanction of the Director and after satisfying himself, when no such deduction has been directed under that paragraph that no deduction is to be made, to make the payment as provided in section 4 of the Provident Fund Act, 1925.
- (b) In the case of final payment to the Director from the Contributory Provident Fund, the competent authority to sanction the payment shall be the Chairman.
- (2) If the person to whom, under this Schedule, any amount or policy is to be paid, assigned, re-assigned or delivered is a lunatic for whose estate a manager has been appointed in this behalf, the payment or re-assignment or delivery will be made to such manager appointed under the provisions of the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912 and not to the lunatic.
- (3) Any person who desires to claim payment under this paragraph shall send a written application in that behalf to the Director. Payment of amounts withdrawn shall be made in India only. The persons to whom the amounts are payable shall make their own arrangements to receive payment in India.

NOTE: When the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber has become payable under paragraph 28, 29 or 30, the Institute shall make arrangement for prompt payment of that portion of the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in regard to which there is no dispute or doubt, the balance being adjusted as soon after as may be.

Procedure

33. Accumulations in the fund of which payment has not been taken within six months after they become payable under this Schedule shall be transferred to "Deposits" after the 31st March of the year and treated under the provisions relating to deposits.

34. When paying a subscription in India either by deduction from emoluments or in cash, a subscriber shall quote the number of his account in the Fund, which shall be communicated to him by the Accounts Officer. Any change in the number shall similarly be communicated to the subscriber by the Accounts Officer.

35. (1) As soon as possible after the 31st March of each year and after the Fund accounts have been audited by the Audit Officer, the Accounts Officer shall send to each subscriber a statement of his account in the Fund in the Form set forth in Appendix VII showing the opening balance as on the 1st April of the year, the total amount of deposits during the year and the closing balance on that date.

The Accounts Officer shall attach to the statement of account an enquiry whether the subscriber--

(a) desires to make any alteration in any nomination made under paragraph 4;

(b) has acquired a family (in cases where the subscriber has made no nomination in favour of a member of his family under the provision of sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 4.

(2) Subscribers should satisfy themselves as to the correctness of the annual statement, and errors should be brought to the notice of the Accounts Officer within three months from the date of receipt of the statement. If no intimation is received from the subscriber within this period it shall be assumed that he has accepted the statement.

(3) Where errors in the annual statement are brought to notice, it shall be the responsibility of the Accounts Officer to reconcile the same for settlement to the satisfaction of the subscriber.

GRATUITY

36. (a) Gratuity shall be granted for good, efficient and faithful service to whole time employee of the Institute and shall exclude the following:-

- i) Casual and non-regular employees;
- ii) Employees on deputation;
- iii) Employees on contract basis;
- iv) Apprentices and Trainees; and
- v) Re-employed persons.

- (b) It shall be granted in the following circumstances:
- i) Discharge on abolition of post;
 - ii) Permanent incapacity due to bodily or mental infirmity;
 - iii) Superannuation at the age of 60 years as provided in the Statute 15(2)/13(2), and
 - iv) Retirement after 30 years' qualifying service:

Provided that-

- i) Gratuity shall not be admissible to an employee who resigns from service (voluntary retirement after 30 years' qualifying service shall not constitute resignation) or whose services are terminated for misconduct, insolvency, or inefficiency;
 - ii) Except in the case of death, gratuity will be admissible only after 5 years' qualifying service.
- (c) Qualifying service shall mean all service rendered in the Institute after completion of 18 years of age, except periods of service rendered as Apprentice and extra-ordinary leave without leave salary.
- (d) (i) Gratuity shall be equal to one fourth of the emoluments for each completed six monthly period of service subject to a maximum of $1\frac{1}{2}$ times the emoluments or Rs.30,000/- whichever be less.
- ii) In the case of death, the amount of gratuity shall be calculated under (i) or as worked out below, whichever be more:-
- | | | |
|---|-----------------------|---|
| a) During the first year of service | 2 months' emoluments | Reduced by the amount of |
| b) After one year, but before five years of service | 6 months' emoluments | Institute's contribution together with interest there- |
| c) After completion of 5 years of service | 12 months' emoluments | on standing to the credit in the Contributory Provident Fund Account of the employees |

Explanation: For the purpose of this paragraph, 'emoluments' means pay including dearness pay, if any, leave salary, or subsistence grant and includes any remuneration of the nature of pay (including dearness pay, if any) received in respect of the foreign service, immediately before his retirement or relinquishment of service, subject to a maximum of Rs.2,500/- per month.

37. (1) Every employee shall make a nomination in the form at Appendix VIII conferring on one or more persons of his family the right to receive the gratuity in the event of his death while in service or after quitting service but before payment of gratuity is made, indicating the shares payable to each member. In the case of an employee having no family, the nomination may be made in favour of a person, or persons, or a body of persons, corporate or incorporate.
- (2) In the event of there being no nomination, the gratuity on death may be paid in the manner indicated below:-
- a) If there are one or more surviving members of the family as in (i) to (iv) below, it may be paid to all such members, other than any such member who is widowed daughter, in equal shares.
 - b) If there are no such surviving members of the family but there are one or more surviving widowed daughters and/or more surviving members of the family as in (v) to (ix) below, the gratuity may be paid to all such members, in equal shares.

Explanation: For the purpose of this paragraph, 'family' shall include the following:-

- i) wife in the case of a male employee;
- ii) husband in the case of female employee;
- iii) sons including step children & adopted children
- iv) unmarried and widowed daughters;
- v) Brothers below the age of 18 years } including step and unmarried & widowed sisters; } brothers and step sisters
- vi) Father;
- vii) Mother;
- viii) Married daughters; and
- ix) Children of a pre-deceased son.

- (xxiv) "Violence" means the act of a person who inflicts an injury on an employee -
- (i) by assaulting or resisting him in the discharge of his duties, or in order to deter or prevent him from performing his duties; or
 - (ii) because of anything done or attempted to be done by any such employee or by any other member of the staff in the lawful discharge of his duty as such; or
 - (iii) because of his official position.
- (xxv) "Year" means a financial year.

GENERAL PROVIDENT FUND5. NOMINATIONS:-

(1) A subscriber shall, at the time of joining the Fund, send to the Registrar, a nomination in the prescribed form conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund, in the event of his death, before that amount has become payable or having become payable has not been paid;

Provided that if, at the time of making nomination, the subscriber has a family, the nomination shall not be in favour of any person or persons other than the members of his family;

Provided further that the nomination made by the subscriber in respect of any other Provident Fund to which he was subscribing before joining the Fund shall, if the amount to his credit in such other fund has been transferred to his credit in the Fund, be deemed to be a nomination duly made under this paragraph until he makes a nomination in accordance with this rule.

(2) If a subscriber nominates more than one person under subparagraph (1), he shall specify in the nomination the amount or share payable to each of the nominees in such manner as to cover the whole of the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund at any time.

(4) (i) A subscriber may at any time cancel a nomination by sending a notice in writing to the Registrar. The subscriber shall, alongwith such notice or separately, send a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

(ii) A subscriber may provide in a nomination:

(a) in respect of any specified nominee, that in the event of his predeceasing the subscriber, the right conferred upon that nominee shall pass to such other person or persons as may be specified in the nomination, provided that such other person or persons shall, if the subscriber has other members of his family, be such other member or members. Where the subscriber confers such a right on more than one person under this clause, he shall specify the amount of share payable to each of such a manner as to cover the whole of the amount payable to the nominee;

(b) that the nomination shall become invalid in the event of the happening of a contingency specified therein;

Provided that if at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has no family, he shall provide in the nomination that it shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring a family;

Provided further that if at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has only one member of the family, he shall provide in the nomination that the right conferred upon the alternate nominee under sub-clause (a) shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring other member of members of his family.

5) Immediately on the death of a nominee in respect of whom no special provision has been made in the nomination under sub-clause (a) of clause (2) of paragraph 5 or on the occurrence of any event by reason of which the nomination becomes invalid in pursuance of sub-clause (b) of clause (2) of paragraph 5 or the proviso thereto, the subscriber shall send to the Registrar a notice in writing cancelling the nomination, together with a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

6) (i) Every nomination made, and every notice of cancellation given, by a subscriber shall, to the extent that it is valid, take effect on the date on which it is received by the Registrar.

(ii) The Institute shall not be bound by nor shall recognise any assignment or encumbrance executed or attempted to be created which affects the disposal of the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber who dies before the amount becomes payable.

6. SUBSCRIBER'S ACCOUNT:-

An account shall be opened in the name of each subscriber to which shall be credited the subscriber's subscription and interest as provided by these provisions on subscription.

7. CONDITIONS AND RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION:-

(1) Every subscriber shall subscribe monthly to the Fund when on duty in the service of the Institute or on foreign service;

Provided that a subscriber shall not subscribe during the period when he is under suspension and may at his option not subscribe during any period of leave other than leave on average pay or earned leave of less than thirty day's duration, as the case may be;

Provided further that a subscriber on reinstatement after a period passed under suspension shall be allowed the option of paying in one sum or in instalments any sum not exceeding the maximum amount of arrears of subscription payable for that period.

(2) The subscriber shall intimate his election not to subscribe during leave by a written communication addressed to the Registrar before he proceeds on leave. Failure to make due and timely intimation shall be deemed to constitute an election to subscribe. The option of a subscriber intimated under this sub-paragraph shall be final.

8. RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION:-

(1) The rate of subscription shall be fixed by subscriber himself subject to the following conditions;

(i) The rate of subscription may not be less than 6% of his emoluments and not more than his total emoluments, the amount so calculated being rounded off to the nearest rupee, provided that in the case of subscriptions at the minimum or maximum rates, the rounding off will be to the next higher or the next lower rupee respectively.

(ii) For the purpose of this clause, the emoluments of a subscriber shall be;

(a) in the case of a subscriber who was in service on 31st March of the preceding year, the emoluments to which he was entitled on that date, provide as follows;

(i) if the subscriber was on leave on the said date and elected not to subscribe during such leave or was under suspension on the said date, his emoluments shall be the emoluments to which he was entitled on the first day after his return to duty;

(ii) if the subscriber was on deputation out of India on the said date or was on leave on the said date and continues to be on leave and has elected to subscribe during such leave, his emoluments shall be the emoluments to which he would have been entitled had he been on duty in India;

(iii) if the subscriber joined the Fund for the first time on a day subsequent to the said date, his emoluments shall be the emoluments to which he was entitled on such subsequent date.

(b) in the case of a subscriber who was not in service on the 31st of March of the preceeding year, the emoluments to which he was entitled on the first day of his service or, if he joined the Fund for the first time on a date subsequent to the first date of his service, the emoluments to which he was entitled on a such subsequent date.

(2) The amount of subscription so fixed may be enhanced or reduced once at any time during the course of a year, provided that when the amount of subscription is so reduced it shall not be less than the minimum prescribed under Clause (i) of sub-paragraph (1).

9. INTEREST:-

(1) The Institute shall pay to the credit of the account of each subscriber, interest at such rate as may be determined by the Board for each year at the beginning of the year.

(2) Interest shall be credited with effect from the last day in each year in the following manner:

(i) on the amount at the credit of a subscriber on the 31st March on the preceeding year less any sums withdrawn during the current year - interest for twelve months;

(ii) on sums withdrawn during the current year:-Interest from the 1st of April of the current year up to the last date of the month preceeding the month of withdrawal;

(iii) on all sums credited to the subscriber's account after the 31st of March of the preceeding year - Interest from the date of credit up to the 31st of march of the current year;

(iv) The total amount of interest shall be rounded to the nearest rupee (50 p. and above counting as the next higher rupee):

Provided that when the amount standing at the credit of a subscriber has become payable, interest thereon shall be credited under this sub-paragraph in respect only of the period from the beginning of the current year or from the date of credit as the case may be, up to the date on which the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber becomes payable.

(3) For the purpose of this paragraph, the date of credit shall be deemed to be the first day of the month in which it is credited.

(4) In all cases interest shall be paid in respect of balance at the credit of a subscriber up to the close of the month preceeding that in which payment is made or up to the end of the sixth month after the month in which such amount becomes payable, whichever of these periods is less, provided that no interest shall be paid in respect of any period after the date on which the Registrar has intimated to the subscriber or his agent as the date on which he is prepared to make payments.

10. ADVANCES FROM THE FUND:-

(1) The payment of an advance from the Fund may be sanctioned by the Director and in the case of the Director by the Chairman to a subscriber from the amount of his subscription and interest thereon standing to his credit, subject to the following conditions;

(2) No advance shall be granted unless the sanctioning authority is satisfied that the applicant's pecuniary circumstances justify it, and that it will be expended on the following object or objects and not otherwise;

- (i) To pay expenses incurred in connection with the illness of the applicant, applicant's wife, legitimate children, step-children, parents, sisters and minor brothers actually dependent on him;
 - (ii) To pay for the overseas passage for reasons of health or education of the applicant or the applicant's wife, legitimate children, step-children, parents, sisters and minor brothers actually dependent on him;
 - (iii) To meet the cost of higher education of any person actually dependent on the applicant. Such person need not necessarily be a member of the applicant's family;
 - (iv) To pay obligatory expenses on a scale appropriate to the applicant's status in connection with marriages, funerals or ceremonies which by his religion it is incumbent on him to perform;
 - (v) To meet the cost of legal proceedings instituted by the applicant for vindicating his position in regard to any allegations made against him in respect of any act done or purporting to be done by him in the discharge of his official duty;
- Provided that the advances under this clause shall not be admissible to an applicant who institutes legal proceedings in any court of law either in respect of any matter unconnected with his official duty or against the Institute in respect of any condition of service or penalty imposed on him;
- (vi) To meet the cost of his defence where the applicant is prosecuted by the Institute in any court of law in respect of any alleged official misconduct on his part;
- (3) An advance shall not exceed the following ceiling limits;
- (i) When sanctioned for any of the objects mentioned in clauses (i) to (vi) of sub-paragraph (2). 3 months pay of the subscriber.

Provided, however, that in no case shall the amount of advance exceed 50 percent of the amount of the member's subscription and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund.

(4) An advance shall not, except for special reasons to be recorded in writing be granted to any subscriber in excess of the limit laid down in sub-paragraph (3) herein or until repayment of the last instalment of any previous advance.

(6) The amount of advance shall be recovered in not more than twenty-four equal monthly instalments, if the advance was sanctioned for any of the objects mentioned in clauses (i) to (vi) of sub paragraph (2). Each instalment shall be a number of whole rupees, the amount of advance being raised or reduced, if necessary, to admit of the fixation of such instalments. A subscriber may at his option repay in a smaller number of instalments than that agreed upon at the time of grant of advance or in a lump sum.

(7) Recovery of advance shall be made from the emoluments of a subscriber and shall commence on the first occasion, after the advance is made, on which the subscriber draws emoluments for a full month.

(8) Interest on advances shall be such as may be determined by the Institute from time to time and shall not exceed by more than one per cent of the rate paid by the Institute to the account of a subscriber. It shall ordinarily be recovered in one instalment in the month after complete repayment of the principal has been made. If the period of repayment exceeds twenty months, interest may, if the subscriber so desires, be recovered in two equal monthly instalments, the monthly payment being rounded in two equal monthly instalments, the monthly payment being rounded to the nearest whole rupee, 50 paise and above counting as the next higher rupee. Recoveries made under this paragraph shall be credited, as they are made, to the account of the subscriber in the Fund.

(9) Notwithstanding anything contained in these provisions, if the Director is satisfied that money withdrawn as an advance from the fund under sub-paragraph (2) has been utilised for a purpose other than that for which sanction was given to the drawal of the money, the amount in question shall with penal interest calculated at a rate of 3% over and above the rate provided under sub-paragraph (8) be repaid by the subscriber to the Fund, or in default be ordered to be recovered by deduction in one sum from the emoluments of the subscriber. If the total amount to be repaid be more than half the subscriber's emoluments, the recoveries shall be made in monthly instalments of moieties of his emoluments till the entire amount recoverable be repaid.

Note: The term 'emoluments' as used in this paragraph does not include subsistence allowance, if any, granted in cases of suspension of any employee pending an enquiry into his alleged misconduct.

11. WITHDRAWAL FROM THE FUND:-

(1) Subject to the conditions specified therein. Withdrawals from the Fund may be sanctioned by the Director and in the case of Director by the Chairman at any time after the completion of twenty years of service (including broken periods of service, if any) of a subscriber or within ten years before the date of his retirement on superannuation, whichever is earlier, from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, for one or more of the following purposes:-

(a) meeting the cost of higher education, including where necessary, the travelling expenses of any child of the subscriber actually dependent on him in the following cases.

(i) for education outside India for academic technical, professional or vocational course beyond the High School stage, and

(ii) for any medical, engineering or other technical or specialised course in India beyond the High School stage, provided that the course of study is for not less than three years;

(b) meeting the expenditure in connection with the marriage of a son or a daughter of the subscriber and if he has no daughter, of any other female relation dependent on him;

(c) meeting the expenses in connection with the illness, including where necessary, the travelling expenses of the subscriber or any person actually dependent on him; and

(d) building or acquiring a suitable house for his residence including the cost of the site or repaying any outstanding amount on account of the loan expressly taken for this purpose before the date of receipt of the application for withdrawal but not earlier than twelve months of that date, or reconstructing, or making additions or alterations to a house already owned or acquired by a subscriber.

(e) Purchasing a house site or repaying any outstanding amount on account of loan expressly taken for this purpose before the date of receipt of the application for the withdrawal but not earlier than twelve months of that date;

(f) for constructing a house on a site purchased utilising the sum withdrawn under clause (e);

(2) Any sum withdrawn by a subscriber at any one time for one or more of the purposes specified in sub paragraph (1) from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall not ordinarily exceed one-half of such amount or twelve months' pay of the subscriber, whichever is less. The sanctioning authority may, however, sanction the withdrawal of an amount in excess of these limits up to three-fourths of the balance at his credit in the Fund, having due regard to the object for which the withdrawal is being made, the status of the subscriber, and the amount to his credit in the Fund.

(3) A subscriber, who has been permitted to withdraw money from the Fund under sub paragraph (1) shall satisfy the sanctioning authority with a reasonable period as may be specified by him that the money has been utilised for the purpose for which it was withdrawn and if he fails to do so, the whole of the sums so withdrawn, or so much thereof as has not been applied for the purpose for which it was withdrawn, shall forthwith be repaid in one lump sum together with interest thereon at such rate as is levied on advances from the Fund, and in default of such payment it shall be ordered by the sanctioning authority to be recovered from his emoluments either in a lump sum or in such number of monthly instalments as may be determined by the Board.

12. FINAL WITHDRAWALS OF ACCUMULATIONS IN THE FUND:-

When a subscriber quits the service of the Institute, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall become payable to him:

Provided that a subscriber who has been dismissed from the service of the Institute and is subsequently reinstated in service, shall if required to do so, repay any amount paid to him from the Fund in pursuance of this sub-paragraph with interest thereon at the rate provided in these provisions in the manner provided. The amount so repaid shall be credited to his account in the Fund.

Explanation: A subscriber who is granted refused leave shall be deemed to have quit the service from the date of compulsory retirement or on the expiry of an extension of service.

13. RETIREMENT OF A SUBSCRIBER:-

When a subscriber (a) has proceeded on leave preparatory to retirement or if he is entitled to vacation on leave preparatory combined with vacation, or (b) while on leave, has been permitted to retire or has been declared by the Consulting Medical Officer of the Institute or by a competent medical authority that may be prescribed by the Board in this behalf to be unfit for further service, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall upon application made by him in that behalf to the Registrar, become payable to the subscriber:

Provided that the subscriber if he returns to duty shall if required to do so, repay to the Fund for credit to his account the whole or part of any amount paid to him from the Fund in pursuance of this paragraph with interest thereon at the rate provided, by instalments or otherwise by recovery from his emoluments or otherwise as the Director may direct.

14. PROCEDURE ON THE DEATH OF A SUBSCRIBER:-

On the death of a subscriber before the amount standing to his credit has become payable, or where the amount has become payable before payment has been made:

When a subscriber leaves a family:-

- (a) If a nomination made by the subscriber in accordance with the sub paragraph (1) of paragraph 5 or of the corresponding provision heretofore in force in favour of a member or members of his family subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination;
- (b) If no such nomination in favour of a member of members of the family of the subscriber subsists, or if such nomination relates only to a part of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate, as the case may be, shall notwithstanding any nomination purporting to be in favour of any person or persons other than a member of members of his family, become payable to the members of his family in equal shares:

Provided that no share shall be payable to --

- (i) sons who have attained majority;
- (ii) sons of a deceased son who have attained majority;
- (iii) married daughters whose husbands are alive;
- (iv) married daughters of a deceased son whose husbands are alive;

if there is any member of the family other than those specified in clauses (i) (ii) (iii) and (iv):

Provided further that the widow or widows and the child or children of a deceased son shall receive between them in equal part only the share which that son would have received if he had survived the subscriber and had been exempted from the provision of clause (i) of the first proviso.

(2) When the subscriber leaves no family:

If a nomination made by him in accordance with the sub paragraph (h) of paragraph 5 or of the corresponding provision heretofore in force in favour of any person or persons subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination.

15. STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTS:-

(1) As soon as possible after the 31st March of each year, the Accounts Officer shall send to each subscriber a statement of his account in the Fund, showing the opening balance on the 1st of April of the year, the total amount credited and debited during the year, the total amount of interest credited as on the 31st of March of the year and the closing balance on that date. The Accounts Officer shall attach to the statement of account an enquiry whether the subscriber -

- (a) desires to make any alteration in any nomination made by the subscriber;
- (b) has acquired a family (in cases where the subscriber has made no nomination in favour of a member of his family under the rules).

(2) Subscribers should satisfy themselves as to the correctness of the annual statement, and errors should be brought to the notice of the Accounts Officer within six months from the date of receipt of the statement.

(3) The Registrar shall, if required by a subscriber once, but not more once in a year, inform the subscriber of the total amount standing to his credit in the Fund at the end of the last month for which his account has been written up.

16. INVESTMENT OF FUND:

All sums paid into the fund under the rules shall be credited in the books of the Institute to an account by name 'General Provident Fund Account' of the Indian Institute of Technology. A Deposit Account shall be opened in the State Bank of India to be operated in such manner as the Board may direct. The Institute may invest such part of the fund, as may be considered expedient, in the Government securities/certificates, negotiable Government guaranteed bonds, and in such deposit schemes of the Central Government as may be notified in this regard from time to time, interest or profit realised on such investments being credited to the Institute as Miscellaneous receipts.

All investments and securities shall be held in the name of the Institute.

Provided that if at the time of making the nomination, the employee has family, the nomination shall not be in favour of any persons other than the members of his family specified under clause (a) of sub-paragraph 1.

(3) If an employee nominates more than one person under sub-paragraph (2), he shall specify any nomination of the amount or share payable to each of the nominees in such manner as to cover the whole amount of the gratuity.

(4) An employee may provide in a nomination:-

(a) in respect of any specified nominee, that in the event of his predeceasing the employee the right conferred upon that nominee shall pass to such other person as may be specified in the nomination:

Provided that if at the time of making the nomination the employee has a family consisting of more than one member, the person so specified shall not be a person other than a member of his family:

(b) that the nomination shall become invalid in the event of the happening of a contingency specified therein.

(5) The nomination made by an employee who has no family at the time of making it, or a provision made in nomination under clause (a) of sub paragraph (4) by an employee whose family consists, at the date of making the nomination of only one member, shall become invalid in the event of the employee subsequently acquiring a family, or an additional member in the family, as the case may be.

- (6) (a) Every nomination shall be in such one of the forms as may be appropriate in the circumstances of the case:
- (b) An employee may at any time cancel a nomination by sending a notice in writing to the appropriate authority:

Provided that any such employee shall, along with such notice send a fresh nomination made in accordance with this paragraph.

(7) Immediately on the death of a nominee in respect of whom no special provision has been made in the nomination under clause (a) of sub-paragraph (4) or on the occurrence of any event by reason of which the nomination becomes invalid in pursuance of clause (b) of that sub-paragraph or sub-paragraph (5), the employee shall send to the appropriate authority a notice in writing formally cancelling the nomination, together with a fresh nomination made in accordance with this paragraph.

(8) Every nomination made, and every notice of cancellation given by an employee under this paragraph, shall be sent by the employee to his Accounts Officer and immediately on receipt of a nomination from an employee, the Head of the office shall countersign it indicating the date of receipt and keep it under his custody.

(9) Every nomination made, and every notice of cancellation given, by an employee shall, to the extent that it is valid, take effect on the date on which it is received by the authority mentioned in sub-paragraph (8).

23. GRATUITY FOR TEMPORARY EMPLOYEES:-

(1) Terminal Gratuity - - A temporary employee who retires on superannuation or is discharged on account of retrenchment or is declared invalid for further service will be eligible for a gratuity at the rate of one-third of a month's pay for each completed year of service, provided that he has completed not less than five years of continuous service at the time of retirement, discharge or invalidment.

(2) Death Gratuity - - The family of a temporary employee who dies while in service shall be eligible for a death gratuity on the scale and subject to the conditions specified below:

- a) On death, after completion of one year of service but before completion of three years service, a gratuity equal to one month's pay.

- b) On death, after completion of three years of service but before completion of five years service, a gratuity equal to two months' pay.
- c) On death, after completion of five years of service or more, a gratuity equal to three months' pay or the amount of the terminal gratuity mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) whichever is more.

Note: Pay for the purpose of determining the amount of terminal or death gratuity under sub-paragraph (1) or sub paragraph (2) shall mean only basic pay and also dearness pay in the case of those who retain the existing scales of pay, at the time of relinquishing service or of death, as the case may be, it will not include special pay, personal pay, and other emoluments as pay. In case the employee concerned was on leave with or without allowance immediately before retirement, discharge, invalidment or death, pay for this purpose shall be such which he would have drawn had he not proceeded on such leave.

24. FAMILY PENSION

- "(1) (a) A family pension shall be admissible in case of death while in service or after retirement, if at the time of death, the retired employee was in receipt of a compensation, invalid, retiring or superannuation pension:

Provided that in case of death, while in service, the employee should have completed a minimum period of one year service"

- (b) Family pension shall be admissible at the following rates, namely:-

- Note: 1. Where an employee is survived by more than one widow, the pension shall be paid to them in equal shares. On the death of a widow, her share of the pension shall become to her eligible minor child. If at the time of her death, a widow leaves no eligible minor child, the payment of her share of the pension shall cease.
2. Where an employee is survived by a widow but has left behind an eligible minor child from another wife, the eligible minor child shall be paid the share of pension which the mother would have received if she had been alive at the time of death of the employee.
- d) In the event of re-marriage or death of the widow/widower, the pension shall be granted to the minor children through their natural guardian.

27. - (Omitted)

28. EXTRAORDINARY PENSION AND GRATUITY.

(1) Extra-ordinary pension and gratuity may be sanctioned by the Board when an employee sustains an injury or dies as a result of an injury or is killed.

(2) While making the award, the Board may take into consideration the degree of default or contributory negligence on the part of the member of the staff who sustains an injury or dies as a result of an injury or is killed.

(3) For the purpose of Extra-ordinary pension and Gratuity Scheme, injury shall be classified as follows:

Class A: Injuries caused as a result of special risk of office which have resulted in the permanent loss of an eye or a limb or are of a more serious nature.

Class B: Injuries caused as a result of special risk of office and equivalent, in respect of the degree of disablement which they cause to the loss of a limb or are very severe; or injuries caused as a result of risk of office which have resulted in the permanent loss of an eye or a limb, or are of a more serious nature.

Class C: Injuries caused as a result of special risk of office which are severe, but not very severe, and likely to be permanent; or injuries caused as a result of risk of office which are equivalent, in respect of the degree of disablement which they cause, to the loss of a limb or which are very severe or severe and are likely to be permanent.

29. (1) If a member of the staff sustains an injury, which falls within Class A, he shall be awarded:

- a) a gratuity of the applicable amount specified in Appendix IV.
- b) with effect from the date following the expiry of one year from the date of the injury,
 - i) if the injury has resulted in the permanent loss of more than one limb or one eye, a permanent pension of the applicable amount specified in Appendix IV for a higher scale pensions; and
 - ii) in other cases, a permanent pension the amount of which shall not exceed the applicable amount specified in Appendix IV for a higher scale pension and shall not be less than half that amount.

(2) If a member of the staff sustains an injury which falls within Class B, he shall be awarded:-

- (a) If the injury has resulted in the permanent loss of an eye or limb or is of more serious nature, a permanent pension, with effect from the date of the injury, of an amount which shall not exceed the applicable amount specified in Appendix IV, for a lower scale pension and shall not be less than half that amount.
- (b) In other cases,
 - i) for a period of one year, with effect from the date of the injury a temporary pension the amount of which shall not exceed the applicable amount specified in Appendix IV for a lower scale pension and shall not be less than half that amount, and thereafter;
 - ii) a pension within the limit specified in sub-clause (i), if the Consulting Medical Officer of the Institute from year to year certifies that the injury continues to be very severe.

(3) If an employee sustains an injury which falls within Class C, he shall be awarded a gratuity of the applicable amount specified in Appendix IV, if the Consulting Medical Officer of the Institute certifies that the member of the staff is likely to be unfit for service for a year, or a proportionate amount subject to a minimum of one-fourth the amount so specified if he is certified to be likely to be unfit for less than a year;

Provided that in any case where the injury is equivalent in respect of the degree of disablement which it causes to the loss of limb, the Board may award, if it thinks fit, in lieu of the gratuity a pension not exceeding the amount admissible under clause (b) of sub-paragraph (2)

30. A temporary pension awarded under the Extra-ordinary Pension and Gratuity Scheme may be converted into a permanent injury pension -

- a) When the employee is rendered invalid out of service on account of the injury in respect of which the temporary pension was awarded; or

- b) when the temporary pension has been drawn for not less than five years; or
- c) at any time, if the Consulting Medical Officer certifies that he sees no reason to believe that there shall ever be a perceptible decrease in the degree of disablement.

31. The award shall be made to the widow and children of the employee as follows:-

- a) if the employee is killed or dies of injury received as a result of special risk of office
 - i) a gratuity of the applicable amount specified in paragraph 21; and
 - ii) a pension the amount of which shall not exceed the applicable amount specified in paragraph 24.

b) if the employee is killed or dies of injuries received as a result of risk of office, a pension the amount of which shall not exceed the applicable amount specified in paragraph 24:

Provided that if the pay of the deceased member of the staff was less than Rs.200, the monthly pension or the sum of pensions that may be granted under this paragraph shall not, irrespective of the rates (including the minimum limits) specified in paragraph 24, exceed the limit of one-half of his pay; and if in any case the sum of such pensions calculated under paragraph 24 exceeds the limit of one-half of his pay such a pro rata reduction shall be made in the amount of each individual pension as will reduce the sum to such limit.

32. If the deceased employee has left neither a widow nor a child, an award may be made to his father and his mother individually or jointly and in the absence of the father and mother to minor brothers and sisters, individually or jointly if they were largely dependent on the employee for support and are in pecuniary need:

Provided that the total amount of the award shall not exceed one half of the pension that would have been admissible to the widow under the preceding paragraph:

Provided further that each minor brothers' or sisters' share shall not exceed the amount of pension specified in paragraph 24 for a 'child who is not motherless'.

33. Any award made under paragraph 32 shall in the event of an improvement in the pecuniary circumstances of the pensioner, be subject to review in such manner as the Board may by order prescribe.

34. A family pension shall take effect from the day following the death of the employee or from such other date as the Board may determine.

35. A family pension shall ordinarily be tenable:-

- a) in the case of a widow or mother until death or remarriage, whichever occurs earlier;
- b) in the case of a minor son, or minor brother, until the age of 18;
- c) in the case of an unmarried daughter or minor sister, until marriage or until she attains the age of 21, whichever occurs earlier;
- d) in the case of a father, for life.

36. Except as otherwise provided in the Extraordinary Pension and Gratuity Scheme, an award made under the foregoing paragraphs shall not affect any other pension or gratuity for which the employee concerned or his family may be eligible under other schemes.

37. (1) When a claim for any injury pension or gratuity or family pension arises under the Extra-ordinary Pension and Gratuity Scheme, the officer-in-charge of the office or the department or section in which the injured or the deceased was employed shall forward the claim to the Board through the Director with the following documents:-

- a) a full statement of circumstances in which the injury was received, the disease was contracted or the death occurred;
- b) the application for injury pension or gratuity in Form X, or as the case may be, the application for family pension in Form XI;
- c) in the case of an injured employee or one who has contracted a disease, medical report in Form XII;
- d) in the case of a deceased employee, a medical report as to the death or reliable evidence as to the actual occurrence of the death, if the employee lost his life in such circumstances that a medical report cannot be secured.

(2) The Director while placing the above documents before the Board shall add to it a report of the Audit Officer as to whether an award is admissible under the Scheme and if so, of what amount.

"37(A) DEPOSIT LINKED INSURANCE SCHEME:-

On the death of a subscriber, the person entitled to receive the amount standing at the credit of the subscriber shall be paid by the Accounts Officer an additional amount equal to the average balance in the account during the 3 years immediately preceding the death of such subscriber, subject to the condition that -

- (a) The balance at the credit of such subscriber shall not at any time during the 3 years preceding the month of death have fallen below the limits of -

- (i) Rs.4000/- in the case of a subscriber who has held, for the greater part of the aforesaid period of three years, a post the maximum of the pay scale of which is Rs.1300/- or more,
- (ii) Rs.2500/- in the case of a subscriber who has held, for the greater part of the aforesaid period of three years, a post the maximum of the pay scale of which is Rs.900/- or more but less than Rs.1300/-,
- (iii) Rs.1500/- in the case of subscriber who has held, for the greater part of the aforesaid period of three years, a post the maximum of the pay scale of which is Rs.291/- or more but not less than Rs.900/-,
- (iv) Rs.1000/- in the case of a subscriber who has held, for the greater part of the aforesaid period of three years, a post the maximum of the pay scale of which is less than Rs.291/-;
- (b) the additional amount payable under this rule, shall not exceed Rs.10,000/-;
- (c) the subscriber has put in at least 5 years service at the time of his death.

Note 1:-

The average balance shall be worked out on the basis of the balance at the credit of the subscriber at the end of each of the 36 months preceding the month in which the death occurs. For this purpose, as also for checking the minimum balances prescribed above -

- (a) The balance at the end of March shall include the annual interest credited in terms of paragraph 9 ; and
- (b) if the last of the aforesaid 36 months is not March, the balance at the end of the said last month shall include interest in respect of the period from the beginning of the financial year in which death occurs to the end of the said last month.

Note 2:- Payments under this scheme should be in whole rupees. If an amount due includes a fraction of a rupee, it should be rounded to the nearest rupee, (50 paise counting as the next higher rupee).

Note 3:- Any sum payable under this scheme is in the nature of insurance money and, therefore, the statutory protection given by section 3 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925 (19 of 1925) does not apply to sums payable under this scheme.

Note 4:- This scheme also applies to those subscribers to the Fund who are transferred to an autonomous organisation consequent upon conversion of a Government Department into such a body and who, on such transfer, opt, in terms of option given to them, to subscribe to this Fund in accordance with these rules.

Note 5:- (a) In case of an employee of the Institute who has been admitted to the benefits of the Fund under statute 16 B(1), but dies before completion of three years service or, as the case may be, five years service from the date of his admission to the Fund, that period of his service under the previous employer in respect where of the amount of his subscriptions and the employer's contribution, if any, together with interest have been received, shall count for the purposes of clause (a) and clause (c).

(b) In case of persons appointed on tenure basis and in the case of re-employed pensioners, service rendered from the date of such appointment or re-employment, as the case may be, only will count for purposes of this rule.

(c) This scheme does not apply to persons appointed on contract basis.

Note 6:- The budget estimates of expenditure in respect of this scheme will be prepared by the Accounts Officer responsible for maintenance of the accounts of the Fund having regard to the trend of expenditure, in the same manner as estimates are prepared for other retirement benefits".

GENERAL

38. The sanction and payment of pension and gratuity benefits admissible under this Schedule shall be regulated by such procedural instructions as may be issued by the Board from time to time.

39. When the Board is satisfied that the operation of any of these provision causes or is likely to cause undue hardship to an employee, it may, notwithstanding anything contained in these provisions, deal with the cases of such employee in such manner as may appear to it to be just and equitable.

40. (1) The Board shall have the power to condone, on the merits of individual cases, shortages upto three months in the period of qualifying services prescribed for any of the purposes of foregoing provisions.

(2) Resignations of permanent/temporary contract appointment of Central/State Government service to take up with proper permission another appointment under any of the Institute or Central University incorporated under the Institutes of Technology Act, 1961, service in which counts in full or part for pension is not a resignation and such resignation shall not constitute interruption in service.

Provided that in any such case the proportionate pensionary liability is borne by the employer from whose services the employee joins the Institute or Central University. In case where an interruption in service is inevitable due to the two appointments being in different stations, such interruptions not exceeding the joining time permissible under the rules of transfer, shall be covered by grant of leave of any kind due to the employee on the date of release or by formal condonation as referred to above to the extent to which the period is not covered by leave due to the employee.

Provided further that such employee shall be required to surrender in lump sum or in instalments not exceeding 12 in number, employer's contributions in full received at the time of resignation along with the interest as was in force, the date on which the amount actually received from the date of payment to the date of final refund and the amount along with interest thereof shall be credited to the pension fund of the Institute or Central University.

41. If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these provisions, it shall be referred to the Board whose decision thereon shall be final.

42. Future good conduct of the recipient of the pension etc. is an implied condition of every grant of a pension under these provisions and the Institute reserves to itself the right of withholding or withdrawing such a pension or any part of it, if the recipient to be convicted of serious crime or be guilty of great misconduct and the decision of the sanctioning authority of the pension in such matters shall be final.

(See paragraph 37)

Confidential Form to be used by Consulting Medical Officer when reporting on injuries)

Report of the Consulting Medical Officer on the present state of the injury sustained by disease contracted by _____ at _____ (place of injury etc.) on _____ (date of injury etc.)

- a) State briefly the circumstances under which the injury was sustained/disease was contracted.
- b) What is the present condition of the member of the staff?
- c) Is the present condition of the member of the staff wholly due to the injury/disease? If not, state to what other causes it is attributable.
- d) In the case of disease, from which date does it appear that the member of the staff has been incapacitated?

The opinion of the Consulting Medical Officer on the question below is as follows:-

PART A - FIRST EXAMINATION

The severity of the injury should be assessed in accordance with the following classification and details given in the remarks column below:-

1. The injury,
 - i) (a) the loss of an eye or limb? YES NO
 - (b) the loss or more than one eye or limb?
 - ii) more severe than the loss of an eye or a limb?
 - iii) equivalent to the loss of an eye or a limb?
 - iv) very severe?
 - v) severe, but not likely to be permanent?
 - vi) slight but likely to be permanent?
2. For what period from the date of the injury
 - (a) has the member of the staff likely to remain unfit for duty
 - (b) is the member of the staff likely to remain unfit for duty

Remarks:- Here the classification above may be amplified if necessary, or details of additional injuries to the main injury may be given.

PART B - SECOND OR SUBSEQUENT EXAMINATIONS

If the original degree of the member of the staff has changed: in which of the above categories should it now be placed?

INSTRUCTIONS TO BE OBSERVED BY THE CONSULTING MEDICAL OFFICER IN PREPARING THE REPORT

1. Before recording his opinion he should invariably consult the previous reports, if any as also all medical documents connected with the member of the staff on previous examinations brought before him for examination.
2. If the injuries be more than one they should be numbered and described separately & should it be considered that, for instant, though only 'severe' or 'slight' in themselves, they represent together the equivalent of a single 'very severe' injury such an opinion may be expressed in the columns provided.
3. In answering the questions in the prescribed form he will confine himself exclusively to the medical aspect of the case and will carefully discriminate between the unsupported statements of the member of the staff and the medical and documentary evidence available.
4. He will not express any opinion, either to the member of staff examined, or in his report as to whether he is entitled to compensation, or as to the amount of it nor will he inform the member of the staff how the injury has been classified.
