THE UNIVERSITY

3. (1) The first Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor of the University and the first members of the Court, the Executive Council and the Academic Council, and all persons who may hereafter become such officers or members, so long as they continue to hold such office or membership, are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name of the University of Lucknow.

The
University

(2) The University shall have perpetual succession and a Common Seal, and shall sue and be sued by the said name.

4. The University shall have the following powers, namely—

Powers
of the University

- (1) to provide for instruction in such branches of learning as may be prescribed by the Ordinances and to make provisions for research and for the advancement and dissemination of knowledge ;
- (2) to institute degrees, diplomas and other academic distinctions, and to hold examinations for and grant and confer such degrees, diplomas and distinctions to and on persons who—
 - (a) shall have pursued a course of study in the University, an Associated College or a Constituent College or carried on research in the University or a Constituent College, under conditions prescribed in the Statutes or Ordinances, or
 - (b) are teachers in educational institutions satisfying conditions prescribed by the Ordinances in this behalf, or
 - (c) shall have carried on research in an institution recognized in that behalf by the University or independently, under conditions laid down in the Statutes and Ordinances, and shall have passed the examination of the University under conditions prescribed in the Statutes and the Ordinances.

- (3) to confer honorary degrees or other distinctions on approved persons in the manner prescribed in the Statutes.
- (4) Deleted.
- (5) to co-operate with other Universities and authorities in such manner and for such purposes as the University may determine ;

- (6) to institute teaching posts required by the University, and to appoint persons to such posts ;
- (7) to institute and award Fellowships, Scholarships, Exhibitions, Medals and Prizes in accordance with the Statutes and the Ordinances ;
- (8) to maintain Constituent Colleges and Halls and to recognize Associated Colleges, and Halls not maintained by the University ;
- (8-A) to inspect Associated Colleges and recognized Halls ;
- (9) to demand and receive such fees as may be prescribed in the Ordinances ;
- (10) to supervise and control the residence and discipline of students of the University and to make arrangements for promoting their health and general welfare ; and
- (11) to do all such other acts and things, whether incidental to the powers aforesaid or not as may be requisite in order to further the object of the University as a teaching and examining body and to cultivate and promote arts, science and learning.

University
open to all classes casts and creeds

5. The University shall be open to all persons of either sex and of whatever race, creed or class, and it shall not be lawful for the University to adopt or impose on any person any test whatsoever of religious belief or profession in order to entitle him to be admitted hereto as a teacher or student, or to hold any office therein, or to graduate thereat or to enjoy or exercise any privilege thereof except where such test is specially prescribed by the Statutes or, in respect of any particular benefaction accepted by the University where such test is made a condition thereof by any testamentary or other instrument creating such benefaction :

Provided that nothing in this Section shall be deemed to prevent religious instruction being given in the manner prescribed by the Ordinances to those not unwilling to receive it by persons (whether teachers of the University or not) approved for that purpose by the Executive Council.

Provided further that nothing in this Section shall be deemed to require the University to admit to any course of study a large number of students than may be determined by the Ordinances.

Teaching of the University

6. (1) Teaching in courses prescribed for the degrees of the University shall include lecturing work in laboratories and workshops and other teaching conducted in the University or a Constituent College or an Associated College in accordance with any syllabus prescribed by the Ordinances and Regulations.

(2) The authorities responsible for organizing such teaching shall be prescribed by the Statutes.

(3) The courses and curricula shall be prescribed by the Ordinances and subject thereto by the Regulations.

(4) Teaching given by teachers of the University shall be supplemented by tutorial and other supplementary instruction given in the University or under the authority of the University in a Hall.

Teaching given by the teachers of an Associated College or a Constituent College shall be supplemented by tutorial and other supplementary instruction given in the Associated College or Constituent College or in a residential unit attached to it or in another Associated or Constituent College or in the University under an arrangement made between such Associated or Constituent Colleges or with the University.

(4-A) Where attendance at a course of instruction is prescribed as a condition of admission to an examination or a degree of the University, such condition shall include provision for attendance at instruction referred to in subsections (1) and (4)

(5) It shall not be lawful for the University to conduct courses or maintain classes for the purposes of preparing students for admission to the University.

7. (1) The State Government shall have the right to cause an inspection to be made by such person or persons as it may direct of the University, its buildings, laboratories, workshops and equipment, and of any institution maintained or recognized by the University, and also of the examinations, teaching and other work conducted or done by the University and to cause an inquiry to be made in like manner in respect of any matter connected with the University, an Associated College or a Constituent College.

Visitation

(2) The State Government shall in every case give notice to the University of its intention to cause an inspection or inquiry to be made and the University shall be entitled to appoint a representative who shall have the right to be present and be heard at such inspection or inquiry.

(3) The State Government shall address the Vice-Chancellor with reference to the result of such inspection or inquiry, and the Vice-Chancellor shall communicate to the Executive Council and the Court the views of the State Government with such advice as the State Government may offer upon the action to be taken thereon.

(4) The Vice-Chancellor shall then within such time as the State Government may fix, submit to it a report of the action taken or proposed to be taken by the Executive Council together with the views which the Court may have expressed on the report.

(5) If the University authorities do not, within a reasonable time, take action to the satisfaction of the State Government, the State Government may, after considering any explanation which the University authorities may furnish, issue such directions as it may think fit and the University authorities shall be bound to comply with such directions.

OFFICERS OF THE UNIVERSITY

the
University

8. The following shall be Officers of the University —

- (1) The Chancellor,
- (2) The Vice-Chancellor,
- (3) The Treasurer,
- (4) The Registrar,
- (4-A) The Dean of Student Welfare.
- (5) The Deans of the Faculties, and
- (6) Such other officers as may be declared by the Statutes to be Officers of the University.

The
Chancellor

9. (1) The Governor of Uttar Pradesh shall be the Chancellor. He shall by virtue of his office be the Head of the University and President of the Court, and shall, when present, preside at meetings of the Court, and at any Convocation of the University.

(2) The Chancellor shall have such powers as may be conferred on him by this Act of the Statutes.

(3) Every proposal for the conferment of an honorary degree shall be subject to the confirmation of the Chancellor.

The Vice-
Chancellor

10. (1) The Vice-Chancellor shall be a whole-time officer of the University and shall be appointed by the Chancellor from amongst the persons whose names are submitted to him by the Committee constituted in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (4).

(2) The Vice-Chancellor shall, except as otherwise provided, hold office for a period of three years but may relinquish office by resignation in writing addressed to the Chancellor. The resignation shall ordinarily be delivered to the Chancellor sixty days prior to the date on which the Vice-Chancellor wishes to be relieved.

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), the emoluments and other conditions of service of the Vice-Chancellor shall be such as are, or may be, prescribed by Statutes.

(4) (i) The Committee referred to in sub-section (1) shall consist of three persons, namely—

- (a) One person, not being a person who is connected with the University, a Constituent College, an Associated College or a Hall, to be elected by the Executive Council;
- (b) Any person who is or has been a Judge of the High Court of Judicature at Allahabad, including the Chief Justice thereof, nominated by the said Chief Justice; and
- (c) A third person, to be appointed by the Chancellor, who shall also be the Convenor of the Committee.

(ii) The Committee shall, as far as may be, at least thirty days before the date on which a vacancy in the office of the Vice-Chancellor is due to occur by reason of expiry of term or resignation under sub-section (2) and also whenever so required by the Chancellor, submit to the Chancellor the names of three persons suitable to hold the office of the Vice-Chancellor. The Committee shall, while submitting the names, also forward to the Chancellor a concise statement showing the academic qualifications and other distinctions of each of the said three persons, but shall not indicate any order of preference.

(iii) No act or proceedings of the Committee shall be invalidated merely by reason of the existence of a vacancy or vacancies among its members or by reason of some person having taken part in the proceedings who is subsequently found not to have been entitled to do so.

(5) Where a vacancy in the office of Vice-Chancellor occurs or is likely to occur by reason of leave, or any cause, other than resignation or expiry of term, the Registrar shall report the fact forthwith to the Chancellor, who shall—

(f) in case the vacancy is or is likely last for a period exceeding six months, take steps for the appointment of the Vice-Chancellor in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) and (4);

(ii) in case the vacancy is for a period of six months or less, appoint any suitable person to the office of Vice-Chancellor.

(6) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this section, the Chancellor may, in any case of emergency of which the Chancellor shall be the sole judge, and expeditiously filled in accordance with the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (4), appoint any suitable person to the office of Vice-Chancellor.

Provided that no appointment under this sub-section shall be made for a period of more than six months.

Provided further that the appointment so made shall determine on appointment of the Vice-Chancellor in accordance with the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (4).

U. P. Act
of 1961

Explanation.—A vacancy in the office of the Vice-Chancellor caused under section 8 of the U. P. Universities Act 1961, shall also be deemed to be an emergency for the purpose of this section.

(7) Where an appointment is made under sub-section (6), the Chancellor shall, as soon as may be, take steps for the appointment of a Vice-Chancellor in accordance with the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (4).

(8) Till such time as an appointment is made by the Chancellor under sub-section (5) or sub-section (6), the Registrar shall carry on the current duties of the Vice-Chancellor but he shall not preside at any meeting of the University Authorities.

Powers
and duties of the Vice-Chancellor

11. (1) The Vice-Chancellor shall be the principal executive and academic officer of the University and shall, in the absence of the Chancellor preside at meetings of the Court and at any Convocation of the University. He shall be an ex-officio member and Chairman of the Executive Council and the Academic Council. He shall have the right to speak in and to take part in the proceedings of the meetings of any other Authority or body of the University but shall not merely by virtue of this sub-section be entitled to vote thereat.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Vice-Chancellor to ensure the faithful observance of the provisions of this Act, the Statutes and the Ordinances and he shall, without prejudice to the powers of the Chancellor under Section 39, possess all the powers in that behalf.

(3) The Vice-Chancellor shall have power to convene meetings of the Court the Executive Council and the Academic Council :

Provided that he may delegate this power to any other officer of the University.

(4) The Vice-Chancellor shall exercise general control over the affairs of the University and shall be responsible for the due maintenance of discipline therein.

(5) and (6) Deleted.

(7) In any emergency which in the opinion of Vice-Chancellor, requires immediate action to be taken, he shall take such action as he deems necessary and shall, at the earliest opportunity, report the action taken to the officer, Authority or other body who or which in the ordinary course would have dealt with the matter; but nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to empower the Vice-Chancellor to incur any expenditure not duly authorised and provided for in the budget.

(8) Where any action taken by the Vice-Chancellor under sub-section (7) affects any person in the service of the University to his disadvantage such person may prefer an appeal to the Executive Council within fifteen days from the date on which the action is communicated to him.

(9) Subject as aforesaid, Vice-Chancellor shall give effect to the orders of the Executive Council regarding the appointment, suspension and dismissal of officers and teachers of the University.

(10) The Vice-Chancellor shall exercise such other powers as may be prescribed by the Statutes and Ordinances.

12. (1) The Treasurer shall be appointed by the Chancellor in the manner hereafter appearing ;

The Treasurer

(1-A) The Executive Council shall so far as may be, at least thirty days before the date on which a vacancy is due to occur in the office of Treasurer and also whenever so required by the Chancellor submit to the Chancellor the name or names of not more than three persons suitable to hold the office of Treasurer.

(1-B) Where the name or the names proposed in the Executive Council for submission to the Chancellor under sub-section (1-A) do not exceed three in number, the Council shall submit all such names, but if the number exceeds three the Council shall, out of the names proposed, elect three names according to the system of proportional representation by means of the single transferable vote.

(1-C) Where one name only has been submitted by the Executive Council the Chancellor shall appoint the person whose name has been so submitted.

In other cases the Chancellor shall appoint one of the persons whose names have been submitted by the Executive Council under sub-section (1-B).

(2) The term of office of the Treasurer shall be six years, but he shall notwithstanding the expiry of the term continue in office until a successor has been appointed. He shall receive such remuneration (if any) from the funds of the University as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(3) The provisions relating to resignation, conditions of service, the filling of temporary vacancies and arrangements for the carrying on of current duties of the Treasurer shall be such as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(4) The Treasurer shall be an ex-officio member of the Executive Council and shall manage the property and investments of the University and advise in regard to its financial policy. He shall be responsible for the presentation of the annual estimates (in this Act called the budget) and statement of accounts.

(5) The Treasurer shall have the duty—

- (i) to ensure that no expenditure not authorized in budget is incurred by the University (otherwise than by way of investment), and
- (ii) to disallow any expenditure which may contravene the terms of any Statute or Ordinance or for which provision is required to be made by Statutes or Ordinances but has not been so made.

(6) All contracts shall be signed by the Treasurer on behalf of the University.

(7) He shall exercise such other powers as may be prescribed by the Statutes and Ordinances.

The Registrar

13. (1) The Registrar shall be a whole-time officer of the University and shall be appointed by the Executive Council on the recommendation of a Selection Committee consisting of the following, namely—

- (i) The Vice-Chancellor, who shall be its Chairman.
- (ii) a serving Vice-Chancellor of another University nominated by the Chancellor.
- (iii) one other person nominated by the Chancellor.

(2) The emoluments of the Registrar shall be prescribed by the Ordinances.

(3) The Registrar shall be responsible for the due custody of the records and the Common Seal of the University. He shall be ex-officio Secretary of the Court, the Executive Council, the Academic Council, the Selection Committees, the Finance Committee and the Committee of Reference and shall be bound to place before these Authorities all such information as may be necessary for the transaction of business. He shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Statutes and the Ordinances or required, from time to time, by the Executive Council or the Vice-Chancellor.

(4) He shall conduct the examinations and make all other arrangements necessary therefor and be responsible for the due execution of all processes connected therewith.

(5) The Registrar shall not be offered nor shall he accept any remuneration for any work in the University save such as may be provided for by the Statutes and the Ordinances.

14. The powers of officers of the University other than the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, the Treasurer, and the Registrar, shall be prescribed by the Statutes and the Ordinances.

(5) The Executive Council shall give due consideration to the resolutions of the Court and take such action thereon as it shall deem fit and report it to the Court. Where, in any case, the Executive Council is unable to take action in accordance with any resolution it shall inform the Court of its reasons therefor.

(6) The Executive Council may, subject to conditions to be laid down in the Statutes, and delegate such of its powers as it deems fit to an officer or Authority of the University.

The Academic Council

21. (1) The Academic Council shall be the academic body of the University, and shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, the Statutes, and the Ordinances, have the control and general regulation and be responsible for the maintenance of standards of teaching and examination within the University and shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be conferred or imposed upon it by the Statutes. It shall have the right to advise the Executive Council on all academic matters. The constitution of the Academic Council and the term of office of its members other than ex-officio members, shall be prescribed by the Statutes.

(2) Deleted

22. (1) The Committee of Reference shall consist of—

(i) The Vice-Chancellor ;

(ii) The Treasurer ;

(iii) Three members of the Court, not being members of the Executive Council, to be elected according to the system of proportional representation by means of the single transferable vote, of whom one shall be a teacher of the University and the other two shall be persons not in the service of the University, a Constituent College, an Associated College or a Hall ;

(iv) Two persons to be nominated by the State Government.

(2) The Vice-Chancellor shall be the Chairman and the Registrar shall be the Secretary of the Committee.

(3) The Committee of Reference shall, having regard to the income and resources of the University, fix limits for the total recurring and total non-recurring expenditure for the ensuing year, and shall perform such other functions as may be prescribed by or under this Act.

(4) The Committee of Reference may, for any special reasons, revise, during the financial year, the limits of expenditure fixed by it under sub-section (3).

23. (1) The University shall include such Faculties as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(2) Each Faculty shall comprise such Departments of teaching as may be prescribed by the Statutes. Subjects of study shall be assigned to the various Departments by the Ordinances.

(3) There shall be a Board of each Faculty the constitution and powers of which shall be prescribed by the Statutes.

(4) There shall be a Dean of each Faculty who shall be chosen in such manner and for such period as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(5) The Dean shall be the Chairman of the Board of the Faculty and be responsible for the due observance of the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations relating to the Faculty. He shall be further responsible for the organization and conduct of the teaching and research work of the Departments comprised in the Faculty.

Committee
of Reference

The

25. The University shall include (such) Boards as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(26) Deleted.

Manner of appointment of officers and members of
authorities

26-A. (1) Save where expressly provided to the contrary officers and members of the authorities of the University shall be chosen in the manner prescribed by the Statutes.

(2) Where provision is made by this Act or the Statutes for any appointment by rotation according to seniority or other qualification, the manner of rotation or determination of seniority and other qualification, shall be prescribed by the Statutes.

(3) Where provision is made in this Act for an election such election shall be conducted according to the system of proportional representation by means of the single transferable vote and where such provision is made in a Statute it shall be held in the manner prescribed by the Statutes.

Statutes, Ordinances & Regulations

Statute

27. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Statutes may provide for any matter relating to the University and shall, in particular, provide for the following—

(a) the constitution, power and duties of the authorities and Boards of the University :

(b) the election, appointment and continuance in office of the members of the said authorities and Boards of the University and the filling of vacancies and all other matters relating to those authorities and Boards for which it may be necessary or desirable to provide.

- (c) the institution and maintenance of Constituent Colleges and Halls ;
- (d) the designation, manner of appointment, powers and duties of the officers of the University ;
- (e) the classification and manner of recruitment of teachers ;
- (f) the constitution of a provident fund and the establishment of an insurance scheme for the benefit of officers, teachers and other employees of the University ;
- (ff) the institution of degrees and diplomas ;
- (g) the conferment of honorary degrees ;
- (h) the withdrawal of degrees, diplomas and other academic distinctions ;
- (i) the conditions on which an institution may be granted recognition as an Associated College and be liable to the withdrawal of such recognition ;
- (j) the establishment, combination, sub-division and abolition of Faculties ;
- (k) the establishment of departments of teaching in the Faculties ;
- (l) the maintenance of a Register of Registered Graduates ;
- (m) the holding of Convocation ;
- (n) the institution of fellowships, scholarships, bursaries, medals and prizes ; and
- (o) all other matters which are required by this Act to be provided for by the Statutes.

28. (1) The First Statutes shall be those set out in the Schedule.

Statutes
how made

(2) The Statutes may be amended, repealed, or added to by Statutes made by the Court in the manner hereinafter appearing.

(3) The Executive Council may propose to the Court the draft of any Statutes to be passed by the Court. Such draft shall be considered by the Court at its next meeting. The Court may approve such draft and pass the Statutes or may reject it or return it to the Executive Council for re-consideration, either in whole or in part, together with any amendments which the Court may suggest.

(4) Where any Statute has been passed or a draft of a Statute has been rejected by the Court, it shall be submitted to the Chancellor, who may refer the Statute or draft back to the Court for further consideration, or, in the case of a Statute passed by the Court, assent thereto or withhold his assent. A Statute passed by the Court shall have no validity until it has been assented to by the Chancellor.

(5) The Executive Council shall not propose the draft of any Statute affecting the statutes, powers, or constitution of any authority of the University until such authority has been given an opportunity of expressing an opinion upon the proposal. Any opinion so expressed shall be in writing and shall be considered by the Court and shall be submitted to the Chancellor.

Ordinances

29. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the Statutes, the Ordinances may provide for any matter permitted by the Act or the Statutes to be provided for by Ordinances and for any other matter, which the Executive Council considers it advisable to provide for by Ordinances.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred by sub-section (1), the Ordinances shall provide for the following matters, namely—

- (a) the admission of students of the University or a Constituent College or an Associated College and their enrolment and continuance as such ;
- (b) the courses of study to be laid down for all degrees and diplomas of the University ;
- (c) the conditions under which students shall be admitted to the degree, diploma or other courses and to the examinations of the University, and shall be eligible for the award of degrees and diplomas ;
- (d) the conditions of residence of the students of the University and the levying of fees for residence in Halls maintained by the University ;
- (e) the recognition of Halls not maintained by the University ;
- (f) the number, qualifications, emoluments, and other conditions of service (including the age of retirement) of the teachers and salaried officers of the University and the preparation and maintenance of a record of their service and activities ;
- (g) the fees which may be charged by the University for any purpose ;

- (h) the conditions subject to which persons may be recognised as qualified to give instruction in Halls ;
- (i) the conditions and mode of appointment and the duties of examining bodies, examiners and moderators ;
- (j) the conduct of examinations ;
- (k) the remuneration and allowances, including travelling and daily allowances, to be paid to persons employed on the business of the University ;
- (l) the conditions of the award of fellowships, scholarships, studentships, bursaries, medals and prizes ;
- (m) all other matters which by this Act or by the Statutes are required to be or may be provided for by the Ordinances.

30. (1) Save as otherwise provided in this section Ordinances shall be made by the Executive Council :

Ordinances
how made

Provided that no Ordinance shall be made--

- (a) affecting the admission of students, or prescribing examinations to be recognized as equivalent to the University examinations or the further qualifications mentioned in sub-section (2) of Section 34 for admission to the degree courses of the University, unless a draft of the same has been proposed by the Academic Council, or
- (b) affecting the conditions and mode of appointment and duties of examiners and the conduct or standard of examinations or any course of study except in accordance with a proposal of the Board of the Faculty or Faculties concerned, and unless a draft of such Ordinance has been proposed by the Academic Council, or
- (c) affecting the number, qualifications and emoluments of teachers of the University unless a draft of the same has been proposed by the Academic Council, or
- (d) affecting the conditions of residence of students, except after consultation with "the relative Board established under Section 25",
- (e) affecting the income or expenditure of the University unless a draft of such Ordinance has been submitted to the State Government and the State Government does not object.

(2) The Executive Council shall not have power to amend any draft proposed by the Academic Council under sub-section (1) but may reject it or return to the Academic Council for re-consideration either in whole or in part together with any amendment which the Executive Council may suggest.

(3) All Ordinances made by the Executive Council shall have effect from such date as it may direct and shall be submitted as soon as may be, to the Chancellor and the Court and shall be considered by the Court at its next meeting. The Court shall have power, by a resolution passed by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members present at such meeting, to cancel any such Ordinance and such Ordinance shall, from the date of such resolution, be void.

(4) The Chancellor may, at any time after Ordinances have been considered by the Court, signify to the Executive Council his disallowance of such Ordinances and from the date of receipt by the Executive Council of intimation of such disallowance, such Ordinance shall become void.

(5) The Chancellor may direct that the operation of any Ordinance shall be suspended until he has an opportunity of exercising his power of disallowance. An order of suspension under this sub-section shall cease to have effect on the expiration of one month from the date of such order, or on the expiration of fifteen days from the date of consideration of the Ordinance by the Court, whichever period expires later.

(6) Where the Executive Council has rejected the draft of an Ordinance proposed by the Academic Council, the Academic Council may appeal to the Chancellor who, after obtaining the view of the Executive Council may, if he approves the draft, make the Ordinance. An Ordinance made under this sub-section shall cease to have effect from due date of the next meeting of the Court unless confirmed by it.

Regulations

31. The Authorities and the Boards of the University may make Regulations consistent with this Act, the Statutes, and the Ordinances—

- (a) laying down the procedure to be observed at their meetings and the number of members required to form quorum ;
- (b) providing for all matters, which by this Act, the Statutes, or the Ordinances are to be prescribed by regulations ; and
- (c) providing for all other matters solely concerning such Authorities and Boards and not provided for by this Act, the Statutes, and the Ordinances.

(2) Every authority of the University shall make Regulation providing for the giving of notice to the members of such authority of the dates of meetings and of the business to be considered at meetings, and of the keeping of a record of the proceedings of meetings.

(3) The Executive Council may direct the amendment, in such manner as it may specify, of any Regulation made under this section or the annulment of any Regulation made under sub-section (1) by any authority of the University other than the Court ;

Provided that any authority or Board of the University which is dissatisfied with any such direction may appeal to the Chancellor, who, after obtaining the views of the Executive Council, may pass such orders as he thinks fit.

(4) The Academic Council may, subject to the provisions of the Ordinances, make Regulations providing for course of study for the various examinations and degrees of the University after receiving drafts of the same from the Board of the Faculty concerned.

The Academic Council may not alter a draft received from the Board of the Faculty concerned but may reject the draft received or return it to the Board of the Faculty concerned for further consideration together with its own suggestions.

31-A. (1) Subject to the provisions of the Act, and except as provided in sub-section (3), the teachers of the University and the Associated Colleges shall be appointed by the Executive Council or the Management of the Associated Colleges, as the case may be, on the recommendation of the Selection Committee in such manner as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

Teachers

(2) Every teacher appointed under sub-section (1) shall, in the first instance, be on probation for such period as may be prescribed by the Statutes and he shall not be confirmed—

(a) if he is a teacher of the University except by the order of the Executive Council after considering the reports of the Vice-Chancellor and the Head of the Department and the Dean concerned, and

(b) if he is a teacher of an Associated College, except by the order of the Management after considering the report of the senior teacher of the subject and the Principal of the College.

(3) The Executive Council or the Management, as the case may be, may make officiating appointments in a vacancy caused by the grant of leave to an incumbent for a period not exceeding ten months without reference to the Selection Committee but shall not fill any other vacancy or post likely to last for more than six months without such reference.

(4) Principals and teachers other than teachers referred to in sub-section (1) shall be appointed by such authorities and in such manner as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(5) There shall be a Selection Committee for appointment of teachers in each subject of study. The constitution, power and functions of the Selection Committees and the procedure to be followed in making appointments shall be prescribed by the Statutes.

RESIDENCE, COLLEGES AND HALLS

32. Every student of the University shall reside or under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Statutes and the Ordinances.

Colleges
and Halls

33. (1) Halls maintained by the University shall be such as may be named by the Statutes.

(2) Halls other than those maintained by the University shall be recognized by the Executive Council on such general or special conditions as may be prescribed by the Ordinances.

(3) The conditions of residence in Halls and other places of residence for students of the University shall be prescribed by the Ordinances and every Hall and such other place shall be subject to inspection by an officer of the University or other person, authorised in this behalf by the Executive Council.

(4) The Executive Council shall have power to suspend or withdraw the recognition of any (Hall or other place of residence for students of the University) which is not conducted in accordance with the conditions prescribed by the Ordinances.

Provided that no such action shall be taken without affording the Committee of Management of such College or Hall an opportunity of making such representation as it may deem fit.

Associated College

33-A. (1) Associated Colleges shall be such as may be named by the Statutes.

(2) It shall be lawful for an Associated College to make arrangements with any other Associated College or Colleges with the University for co-operation in the work of teaching.

(3) The conditions of recognition of an Associated College shall be prescribed by the Statutes or imposed by the Executive Council but no Associated College shall be authorised to impart instruction for post-graduate degrees.

(4) Except as provided by this Act, the management of an Associated College shall be free to manage and control the affairs of the College and be responsible for its maintenance and upkeep. The Principal of every such College shall be responsible for the due maintenance of discipline in it.

(5) An Associated College shall be inspected at intervals of not more than three years in the manner prescribed by the Statutes and a report of the inspection shall be made to the Executive Council.

(6) The recognition of an Associated College may, with the previous sanction of the Chancellor, be withdrawn by the Executive Council if it is satisfied, after considering any explanation furnished by the management, that it has ceased to fulfil the conditions of its recognition or that it persists in making default in the performance of its duties under this Act or in the removal of any defects in its work pointed out by the Executive Council.

33-B. There shall be a Delegacy to supervise the arrangements relating to the residence, health and welfare of students of the University not residing in or under the care of any Constituent College or Hall. The constitution, powers and duties of the Delegacy shall be prescribed by the Statutes.

The Delegacy

33-C. (1) Constituent Colleges shall be such as may be named by the Statutes.

Constituent
Colleges

(2) The Principal of a Constituent College shall be responsible for the discipline of the students enrolled in the College and shall have general control over the ministerial and inferior staff allotted to the College. He shall exercise such other powers as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

ADMISSION AND EXAMINATIONS

34. (1) Admission of students to the University shall be made by an Admission Committee appointed for that purpose by the Academic Council.

(2) Students shall not be eligible for admission to a course of study for a degree unless they have passed the Intermediate examination of an Indian University incorporated by any law for the time being in force, or an examination recognised in accordance with the provisions of this Section as equivalent thereto and possess such further qualifications (if any) as may be prescribed by the Ordinances :

Provided that until such recognized examination be established, students who have passed an examination for admission instituted by the University in accordance with the Ordinances shall be eligible for admission.

(3) The conditions under which students may be admitted to the Diploma courses of the University shall be prescribed by the Ordinances.

(4) The University shall not, save with the previous sanction of the Chancellor, recognize (for the purpose of admission to a course of study for a degree), as equivalent to its own degree, any degree conferred by any other University or, as equivalent to the Intermediate examination of an Indian University, any examination conducted by any other authority.

(5) Any student whose work is unsatisfactory may be removed from the University or a Constituent College or an Associated College in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinances.

Examination

35. (1) All arrangements for the conduct of examinations shall be made by the Academic Council in such manner as may be prescribed by this Act and the Ordinances.

(2) If any examiner is for any cause incapable of acting as such, the Vice-Chancellor shall appoint an examiner to fill the vacancy.

(3) At least one person who is not an employee of the University, a Constituent College, an Associated College or a Hall shall be appointed examiner for each subject of study for a degree.

(4) The Board of each Faculty shall appoint an Examination Committee for every subject assigned to the Faculty. The Committee shall consist of such persons as the Board may, subject to the approval of the Academic Council, appoint from among its own members or from outside. The Committee shall have power to moderate question papers set for examination, review the quality of the work submitted by candidates for examination, report on the standard of attainment and make recommendations in regard to any of these matters. Any review, report or recommendation made by the Committee shall be laid before the Academic Council for its consideration.

(5) Every person appointed as examiner shall as a condition of appointment agree that he will not undertake examination work in excess of the limits laid down in the Ordinances.

ANNUAL REPORT AND ACCOUNTS

36. The annual report of the University shall be prepared under the direction of the Executive Council and shall be submitted to the Court on or before such date as may be prescribed by the Statutes, and shall be considered by the Court at its annual Meeting. The Court may pass resolutions thereon and communicate the same to the Executive Council, which shall take them into consideration and take such action thereon as it thinks fit.

Annual Report

37. (1) The annual accounts and balance-sheet of the University shall be prepared under the direction of the Executive Council, and all moneys accruing to or received by the University from whatever source and all amounts disbursed or paid shall be entered in the accounts.

Annual
Accounts

(1-A) A copy of the accounts and the balance-sheet shall be submitted to the State Government which shall cause an audit to be carried out by auditors of high standing.

(2) The accounts when audited shall be printed and copies thereof shall together with copies of the audit report be submitted by the Executive Council to the Court and the State Government.

(2-A) It shall be lawful for the State Government to require any person who is found to have spent or authorized the expenditure of funds in excess of the amounts provided in the budget or in violation of any provision of this Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances, re-imburse the amount so spent and the State Government may take all such steps as may be deemed necessary :

Provided that the State Government shall before requiring any person as aforesaid give him a reasonable opportunity of making a representation.

(3) The Executive Council shall also prepare before such date as may be prescribed by the Statutes, a statement of the financial estimates for the ensuing year.

(4) Every item of new expenditure of or above such amount as may be prescribed by the Statutes which it is proposed to include in the financial estimates shall be referred by the Executive Council to the Committee of Reference, which may make recommendation thereon.

(5) The Executive Council shall after considering the recommendations (if any) of the Committee of Reference, submit the financial estimates as finally approved by it to the Court with such recommendations.

(6) The annual accounts and the financial estimates shall be considered by the Court at its annual meeting and the Court may pass resolutions with reference thereto and communicate the same to the Executive Council ;

(7) Except in so far as such expenditure is incurred out of funds accruing under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of Section 20, it shall not be lawful for the Vice-Chancellor or the Executive Council to incur any expenditure not sanctioned in the budget :

Provided that where there has been a disagreement between the Executive Council and the Committee of Reference upon any item of expenditure referred to it under sub-section (4), the decision of the Court thereon shall be final.

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

Removal of name from University
authorities
or bodies or from register of registered graduates

38. The Chancellor may, on the recommendation of not less than two-thirds of the members of the Executive Council, remove the name of any person from any of the authorities or other bodies of the University or from the register of registered graduates.

Disputes as to constitution
of
University
authorities
and bodies

39. If any question arises whether any person has been duly elected or appointed as, or is entitled to be a member of any authority or other body of the University (or whether, any decision of the University or any authority thereof is in conformity with this Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances) the matter shall be referred to the Chancellor whose decision thereon shall be final.

Constitution
Committees

40. Where any authority of the University is given power by this Act or the Statutes to appoint committees, such committees shall unless otherwise provided, consist of members of the authority concerned and of such other persons (if any) as the authority in each case may think fit.

Filling of casual vacancies

41. (1) All casual vacancies among the members (other than ex-officio members) or any authority or other body of the University shall be filled as soon as conveniently may be by the person or body who appointed, elected or co-opted the member whose place has become vacant, and the person appointed, elected or co-opted to a casual vacancy shall be a member of such authority or body for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member.

(2) A person who is a member of an authority of the University as a representative of another body, whether of the University or outside, shall retain his seat on the University authority so long as he continues to be a member of the body by which he was appointed or elected and thereafter till his successor is duly appointed.

42. No act or proceeding of any authority or other body of the University shall be invalidated merely by reason of the existence of a vacancy or vacancies among its members, or by reason of some persons having taken part in the proceedings who are subsequently found not to have been entitled to do so.

Proceedings
of
University
authorities
and bodies
not invalidated
by vacancies

43. (1) Every salaried officer and teacher of the University shall be appointed on a written contract. The contract shall be lodged with the Registrar of the University and a copy thereof shall be furnished to the officer or teacher concerned.

Conditions of Service

(2) Any member of the public services in India whom it is proposed to appoint on a post in the University shall, subject to the approval of such appointment by the Government (concerned) have the option —

- (i) of having his services lent to the University for a specified period and remaining liable to recall to Government service at the (option of the Government concerned) at the end of that period, or
- (ii) of resigning Government service on entering the service of the University.

44. Any dispute arising out of a contract between the University and any officer or teacher of the University shall, on the request of the officer or teacher concerned, be referred to a Tribunal of Arbitration consisting of one member appointed by the Executive Council, one member nominated by the officer or teacher concerned, and an umpire appointed by the Chancellor. The decision of the Tribunal shall be final and no suit shall lie in any Civil Court in respect of the matters decided by the Tribunal. Every such request shall be deemed to be a submission to Arbitration upon the terms of this Section within the meaning of the Arbitration Act, 1940 (Act X of 1940), and all the provisions of that Act, with the exception of Section 2 thereof, shall apply accordingly.

Tribunal
of arbitration

45. (1) The University shall constitute for the benefit of its officers, teachers and other servants such pension and provident funds as it may deem fit, in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

Pension and Provident
Fund

(2) Where such a pension or provident fund has been so constituted the State Government may declare that the provisions of the Provident Funds Act, 1897, shall apply to such funds as if it were a Government Provident Fund.

Territorial exercise of
powers

46. Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the powers of the University conferred by or under this Act shall not extend beyond a radius of ten miles from the Convocation Hall of the University. Notwithstanding anything in any other law for the time being in force, no educational institution beyond that limit shall be associated with or admitted to any privileges of the University and no educational institution within that limit, save with the sanction of the Chancellor, shall be associated in any way with or seek admission to any privileges of any other University incorporated by law in India and any such privileges granted by any such other University to any educational institution within that limit prior to the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to be withdrawn on the commencement of this Act.

Provided that, subject to the sanction of the State Government, nothing in this Section shall apply to any (medical, agricultural or technical institution established or maintained by the University or by the State Government).

TRANSITORY PROVISIONS

APPENDIX*(Amending Acts)The Lucknow University (Amendment Act, 1954)U. P. Act No. VI of 1955*U. P. Act
V of 1920

(As passed by the Uttar Pradesh Legislature and assented to by the Governor on March 20, 1955 and published in Extraordinary Gazette dated March 23, 1955.)

Short title and Commencement

Whereas it is expedient to amend the Lucknow University Act, 1920 ;

It is hereby enacted as follows ;

1. (1) This Act may be called the Lucknow University (Amendment) Act, 1954.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the State Government may by notification in the official Gazette appoint in this behalf.

2 to 39. Incorporated in the Principal Act.

TRANSITORY PROVISIONS

40. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Principal Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances, the term of the Vice-Chancellor and every elected officer or authority of the University, holding office or constituted on the date immediately preceding the commencement of the Lucknow University (Amendment) Act, 1954, (hereinafter called the "Amending Act"), shall determine on the appointment, election or constitution of the corresponding officer or authority, in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by the Amending Act.

41. Notwithstanding anything in the Principal Act, or the Amending Act, the Chancellor may at any time after the Amending Act has come into force appoint a person to be Vice-Chancellor and it shall not be necessary for making the appointment to follow the procedure laid down in Section 10. The Vice-Chancellor so appointed shall exercise all the powers and perform all the duties and functions of the Vice-Chancellor under the Principal Act, as amended to the Amending Act, and shall hold office for a period of one year, but the Chancellor may, if it becomes necessary, extend the period by one year.

42. (1) At any time after this Act has been first published in the official Gazette it shall be lawful for the State Government to do anything necessary generally for giving effect to the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act including the constitution of the University Authorities, the making of any new Statute or the amending of any Statutes and fixing of dates for the coming into force of such Statutes or Amendments.

(2) Every Statute and amendment made under sub-section (1) shall have the same force and effect as a Statute or amendment made under and in accordance with Section 28 of the Principal Act.

(3) The powers conferred by sub-section (1) may be exercised as often as occasion requires but not later than eighteen months from the time this Act is first published in the official Gazette.

43. (1) The State Government may for the purpose of removing any difficulties particularly in relation to the transition from the provisions of the Principal Act, to the provisions of that Act, as amended by the Amending Act, by order published in the official Gazette : —

- (a) direct that the Principal Act, amended as aforesaid shall during such period as may be specified in the order take effect subject to such adaptations whether by way of modification, addition or omission, as it may deem to be necessary or expedient ; or
- (b) direct that till such time, not exceeding eighteen months from the commencement of the Amending Act, as the University Authorities are constituted or appointed under and in accordance with the Principal Act, amended as aforesaid, the powers, duties and functions, exercisable or dischargeable by such University Authorities shall be exercised and discharged by the corresponding Authorities established on the date immediately before the commencement of the Amending Act ; or
