TO ORDINANCES

1. Amendments to Ordinance XXII-D vide Appendix VIII relating to Terms and Conditions of Service and Conduct Rules of non-academic employees of the University. (E.C. 4-9-1977).

(i) Original Rule 35 (a):

“35. (a) Right to leave:

Leave cannot be claimed as a right, and when the exigencies of service so demand, leave of any description may be refused or revoked by the authority empowered to sanction leave.”

Amendment approved:

Add the following as Para 2 to the Rule 35(a) :

“In case an employee is recalled to duty before the expiry of his leave, such recall to duty shall be treated as compulsory in all cases.”

(ii) Original Rule 35(d)

“35. (d) Grant of leave beyond the date of retirement and in the resignation :

“No leave shall be granted beyond the date on which an employee must compulsorily retire : provided that the authority empowered to grant leave may allow any employee who had been denied earned leave in whole or in part on account of exigencies of service, the whole or any portion of the earned leave so denied even though it extends to a date beyond the date on which such an employee must compulsorily retire.

* * * * *

Amendment approved:

Substitute the following for the above :

“No leave shall be granted beyond the date on which an employee must retire : provided that the authority empowered to grant leave may allow any employee who had been denied earned leave in whole or in part on account of exigencies of service, the whole or any portion of the earned leave so denied subject to a maximum of 120 days even though it extends to a date beyond the date on which such an employee must retire.

(iii) Original Rule 35(f):

“35. (f) Joining the duty on return from leave on medical grounds :

An employee who has been granted leave on medical grounds shall be required to produce a medical certificate of fitness before resuming duty.”

Amendment approved :

Add the following as Para 1 to the Rule 35(f) :

“35. (f) Leave on medical grounds and resumption of duty.

The authority competent to grant leave may in its discretion, waive the production of a medical certificate in case of an application for leave for a period not exceeding 3 days at a time on medical grounds. Such leave shall not, however, be treated as leave on medical certificate and shall be debited against leave other than leave on medical grounds.”

(iv) Original Rule 35(1):

“35. (1) A leave account will be maintained for each employee in the prescribed form.”

Amendment approved:

Add the following as Para 2 to the Rule 35(1) :

“The order sanctioning earned leave/half pay leave to an employee shall hereafter indicate the balance of such leave at his credit.”

(v) Original Rule 37(i) (a) :

“37. Earned Leave:

(i) Earned leave admissible to employees:

- (a) Each employee's account of leave should be credited with 30 days and 31 days earned leave in alternate leave years. This should be done in two instalments, 15 days on the 16th of July and 15 days on 16th of January of the following year except that on the 16th July of an even year (ending with 2, 4, 6, 8 or 0) the credit shall be 16 days e.g. the credit on the 16th July, 1976 will be 16 days and on 16th January, 1977, 15 days while on 16th July, 1977 and on 16th January, 1978, 15 days and so on.”

“37. Earned Leave :

- (i) Earned leave admissible to employees :
 - (a) Each employee’s account of leave should be credited 15 days earned leave on the 16th of July and 15 days earned leave on 16th of January of the following half year.”
- (vi) Original Rule 37 (i)(e) :

“37. Earned Leave :

- (i) Earned leave admissible to employees :
 - (e) If a University employee has taken any leave other than earned leave in a half-year, the credit to be afforded to his leave account at the commencement of the next half-year shall be reduced by 1/11th of such leave e.g. if a University employee has taken 11 days’ half pay leave or 11 days commuted leave or 11 day’s extra ordinary leave, the credit to his leave account will be reduced by 1 day, i.e. 1/11th of the 11 days half-pay leave or commuted leave or extra ordinary leave.”

Amendment approved :

Substitute the following for the above :

“37. Earned Leave :

- (i) Earned leave admissible to employees :
 - (e) The credit afforded under Clause (i)(a) above, shall be reduced by 1/10th of the period of extra-ordinary leave only availed of during the previous half year, subject to a maximum of 15 days.”
- (vii) Original Rule 37 (ii) :

“37. Earned Leave :

- (ii) Limits of accumulation and grant :
 - (a) A University employee shall cease to earn the earned leave under (i) (a) when the earned leave due amounts to 180 days.
 - (b) The maximum amount of earned leave that can be granted to an employee at a time shall be 120 days. Earned Leave may be granted for a period not exceeding 180 days, if the entire leave so granted or any portion thereof is spent outside India, Bangla Desh, Bhutan, Burma, Sri Lanka, Nepal and Pakistan. Provided that where earned leave exceeding 120 days is so granted, the period of such leave spent in India shall not in the aggregate exceed 120 days.”

Amendments approved :

(1) Substitute the following for the above :

“(ii) Limits of accumulation and grant :

- (a) A University employee shall cease to earn the earned leave under (i) (a) when the earned leave due amounts to 180 days.
- (b) The maximum amount of earned leave that can be granted to an employee at a time shall be 120 days.

Provided Earned Leave taken as Leave preparatory to Retirement can be availed of up to a maximum of 180 days.

Earned Leave may be granted for a period not exceeding 180 days, if the entire leave so granted or any portion thereof is spent outside India, Bangla Desh, Bhutan, Burma, Sri Lanka, Nepal and Pakistan.

Provided that where earned leave exceeding 120 days is so granted, the period of such leave spent in India shall not in the aggregate exceed 120 days.”

(2) Add the following as (c) after sub-Clause (ii) (b) :

“(c) Prefixing/suffixing of holidays to leave :

Prefixing and suffixing holidays to leave, other than leave on medical certificate, shall be allowed automatically except in cases where for administrative reasons permission for prefixing/suffixing holidays to leave is specifically withheld. In the case of leave on medical certificate, if the day on which an employee is certified medically fit for rejoining duty happens to be a holiday, he shall be automatically allowed to suffix such holiday(s) to his medical leave and such day(s) shall not be counted as leave.”

(viii) Original Rule 39 :

“39. Commuted Leave :

Commuted leave not exceeding half the amount of half-pay leave may be granted on medical certificate to a permanent employee subject to the following conditions :

- (a) When commuted leave is granted, twice the amount of such leave shall be debited against the half-pay leave due.

- (b) The total duration of earned leave and commuted leave taken in conjunction shall not exceed 240 days provided that no commuted leave may be granted under the provision unless the authority competent to sanction leave has reasons to believe that the officer will return to duty on its expiry.”

Amendment approved :

Substitute the following for the above :

“39. Commutated leave :

Commutated leave not exceeding half the amount of half-pay leave may be granted on medical certificate to a permanent employee subject to the following conditions:

- (a) When commuted leave is granted, twice the amount of such leave shall be debited against the half-pay leave due.
- (b) No commuted leave may be granted under the provision unless the authority competent to sanction leave has reasons to believe that the officer will return to duty on its expiry.
- (c) Where a University employee who has been granted commuted leave resigns from service or at his request is permitted to retire voluntarily without returning to duty, the commuted leave shall be treated as half-pay leave and the difference between the leave salary in respect of commuted leave and half pay leave shall be recovered.

Provided that no such recovery shall be made if the retirement is by reason of ill-health incapacitating the University employee for further service or in the event of his death.

Note : Commuted leave may be granted at the request of the University employee even when earned leave is due to him.”

(ix) Original Rule 40 :

“40. Leave ‘not due’ :

1. Save in the case of leave preparatory to retirement, leave not due may be granted to a University employee in permanent employ subject to the following conditions :
- (a) The authority competent to grant leave is satisfied that there is reasonable prospect of University employee returning to duty on its expiry ;

- (b) Leave not due shall be limited to the half pay leave he is likely to earn thereafter ;
- (c) Leave not due during the entire service, shall be limited to a maximum of 360 days, out of which not more than 90 days at a time and 180 days in all may be otherwise than on medical certificate ;
- (d) Leave not due shall be debited against the half pay leave the University employee may earn subsequently ;
- (e) The authority competent to grant leave obtains an undertaking from the University employee that in the event of his resigning or retiring voluntarily from service, he shall refund the leave salary paid to him.

2. * * * *

Amendment approved :

Add the following as proviso under sub-Clause 1 of Rule 40 :

“Provided, however, in order to mitigate the hardship of the temporary employees who are suffering from T. B., Leprosy, Cancer, or mental illness, leave not due may be granted to such employees for a period not exceeding 360 days during entire service subject to the fulfilment of conditions in clauses (a), (b) and (d) above and also subject to the following further conditions :

- (i) that the employee has put in a minimum of one year's service ;
- (ii) that the post from which the employee proceeds on leave is likely to last till his return to duty; and
- (iii) that the request for grant of such leave is supported by a medical certificate.”

(x) Original Rule 43:

“43. Maternity Leave:

- (i) Maternity leave may be granted to a woman employee on full pay for a period which may extent up to the end of 3 months from the date of the commencement or to the end of 6 weeks from the date of confinement whichever is earlier. Maternity leave may also be granted in cases of miscarriage, including abortion, subject to the condition that the leave applied for does not exceed 6 weeks and the application for leave is supported by medical certificate.
- (ii) Maternity leave may be combined with leave any of other kind, except casual leave, but the leave applied for in continuation of maternity leave may be granted only if the application is supported by a medical certificate.”

Amendment approved:

Substitute the following for the above :

“43. Maternity Leave:

- (i) Maternity leave may be granted to a woman employee on full pay for a period of 90 days from the date of its commencement.
 - (ii) Maternity leave may also be granted in case of miscarriage, including abortion, subject to the conditions that the leave applied for does not exceed six weeks and the application for leave is supported by a medical certificate.
 - (iii) Maternity leave may be combined with leave any of other kind, except casual leave, but the leave applied for in continuation of maternity leave may be granted only if the application is supported by a medical certificate.
 - (iv) Leave in continuation of maternity leave may also be granted in case of illness of a newly born baby, subject to production of medical certificate to the effect that the condition of the ailing baby warrants mother's personal attention and that her presence by the baby's side is absolutely necessary.”
- (xi) Original Rule 45 (iii):
- “(iii) Except in case of a permanent employee the duration of extra-ordinary leave on any one occasion shall not exceed the following limits :—
- (a) Three months.
 - (b) Six months in the case of an employee who has completed three years of continuous service on the date of expiry of the leave admissible to him under the rules, and his application for such leave is supported by a medical certificate.
 - (c) Eighteen months when the employee is suffering from tuberculosis or leprosy and undergoing treatment in a recognised clinic or under a specialist.
 - (d) The authority empowered to grant leave may commute retrospectively the period of absence without leave into extra-ordinary leave.
- Note :—The power of commuting retrospectively the period of absence without leave into extra-ordinary leave is absolute and not subject to any conditions.”

Amendment approved :

Substitute the following for the above :

“(iii) Except in case of a permanent employee the duration of extra-ordinary leave on any one occasion shall not exceed the following limits :

- (a) 3 months without medical certificates ;
- (b) 6 months with medical certificate for common ailments; and
- (c) 18 months on medical certificate for Cancer, mental illness, pulmenary tuberculosis or pleurisy of tubercular origin, tuberculosis of any part of the body and leprosy.

Provided that for grant of extra-ordinary-leave as at (b) or (c) above, the employee should have put in a minimum of one year’s continuous service.

(iv) The authority empowered to grant leave may commute retrospectively the period of absence without leave into extra-ordinary leave.

Note : The power of commuting retrospectively the periods of absence without leave into extra-ordinary leave is absolute and not subject to any conditions.”

(xii) Original Rule 47 (A) (5) :

“(5) A University employee who is permitted during leave preparatory to retirement, to take up any other service or employment under an employer other than the University, his leave salary shall be restricted to the amount of leave salary admissible while on half pay leave.”

Amendment Approved :

Substitute the following for the above :

“(5) No permission for private employment during leave preparatory to retirement shall be granted hereafter. If, however, an employee on leave preparatory to retirement is permitted to take up an employment with public sector undertakings, the leave salary shall no longer be restricted to that admissible during half pay leave.”

- (5) (a) Conditions of Award: In case the awardee is a Ph.D. student, the award shall be effective from the date of the issue of award letter or from the date he/she reports for research work in the Department of University, whichever is later. In case, the awardee is a M.Phil. Degree Course student the award shall be effective from the date of his/her admission to the said course.
- (b) The fellow shall do whole-time research work and shall not accept or hold any appointment paid or otherwise or receive any emoluments; stipend etc. from any other source during the tenure of the award. The research fellows may be required to undertake up to four hours a week teaching assignment i.e. assisting in tutorials, evaluation of test papers, laboratory demonstration work, etc. which would help them in future as teachers.
- (c) The fellow shall present to the University through his/her Supervisor(s) half-yearly reports of his/her work for the period ending June and December each year. He/she shall, before the expiry of the fellowship, present to the University a comprehensive report of the work done under the award and an abstract of thesis.

- (d) If a fellow wishes to leave the fellowship before the expiry of the normal tenure it shall be done with the prior approval of the University. No fellow shall join any other course leading to a degree or appear in any competitive examination after commencing his work under the fellowship.
 - (e) If it should appear at any time to the University that the progress or conduct of the fellow has not been satisfactory his/her fellowship may be suspended or withdrawn by the Academic Council.
- (6) Leave: (a) Leave for a maximum period of thirty days in a year, in addition to general holidays, may be taken by a fellow with the approval of the Supervisor(s). The general holidays, however, do not include the vacation period, i.e. summer, winter and autumn vacations. No other leave with fellowship will be admissible to a fellow. The women awardees would be eligible for maternity leave at full rates for a period not exceeding three months, once during the tenure of their award.

(b) The fellow may, in special cases, be allowed by the University leave without fellowship upto one academic year during the entire tenure of the fellowship for purpose of accepting teaching assignment on a temporary basis, provided the post accepted by the fellow is in the same department of the University or in any of its Colleges; in other cases, not exceeding three months during the tenure of the award on the recommendations of the Supervisor(s) and Head of the Department concerned. The period of leave without fellowship will be counted towards the tenure of the fellowships.

(7) Procedure of Selection:

- (a) The research fellowships shall be awarded on All-India Basis.
- (b) The awards shall be made by the Academic Council, whose decision shall be final, on the recommendations of a Selection Committee, one for each subject, consisting of the following members :

1. The Head of the Department concerned.
 2. One or more Senior Member (s) of the Department.
 3. One outside expert in the subject who shall not be connected with the University.
- } To be appointed by the Head of the Department concerned.

(8) Payment: Payment of the fellowship will be made to the fellows by the University in the first week of every month.

21. Amendments to Ordinance XXII—D vide Appendix VIII relating to Terms and Conditions of Service and Conduct Rules of non-academic employes of the University. (E.C 13-1-1978).

Original Clause :

“35(d) Grant of leave beyond the date of retirement and on resignation:

No leave shall be granted beyond the date on which an employee must retire ; provided that the authority empowered to grant leave may allow any employee who had been denied earned leave in whole or in part on account of exigencies of service, the whole or any portion of the earned leave so denied subject to a maximum of 120 days even though it extends to a date beyond the date on which such an employee must retire.

Provided further that an employee, who is re-employed in the interests of the University service, beyond the date of his retirement may be granted earned leave as under :—

- (i) During the period of re-employment any leave due in respect of the period of such re-employment and to the extend necessary earned leave which would have been granted to him under the preceeding proviso, had he retired on the date of retirement;
- (ii) After the expiry of the period of re-employment :
 - (a) The earned leave which could have been granted on him under the preceeding proviso had he retired on the date of retirement, diminished by the amount of such leave as availed of during the period of re-employment ; and
 - (b) Any leave earned during the period of re-employment as has been formally applied for as leave preparatory to retirement prior to final cessation of his duties in sufficient time during the period of re-employment and refused to him on account of exigencies of University service ; and

- (iii) In determining the amount of the earned leave due during the periods of re-employment, the earned leave, if any admissible under the preceding proviso shall be taken into account.

Note : 1 For the purpose of this paragraph an employee may be deemed to have been denied leave only if in sufficient time before the date on which he must retire or the date on which his duty finally ceases, he had either formally applied for leave and been refused on the ground of exigencies of service or has ascertained in writing from the sanctioning authority that leave applied for would not be granted on the aforesaid ground.

- 2, If any employee resigns he shall not be granted either prior or subsequent to his resignation any leave due to his credit provided that the University may, in any case, grant terminal leave to an employee prior to his resignation which may extend beyond the date in which the resignation becomes effective, if in the opinion of the University the circumstances justify such grant of leave.”

Amendment approved :

The portions underlined above be deleted and the amended Clause to read as follows:—

“35. (d) Grant of leave beyond the date of retirement and on resignation:

No leave shall be granted beyond the date on which an employee must retire; provided that an employee may be paid cash equivalent of leave salary in respect of the period of earned leave at his credit at the time of retirement on superannuation subject to the following conditions:

- (i) The benefit under this rule shall be admissible to an employee who attains the age of superannuation on or after 30.9.1977.
- (ii) The payment of cash equivalent of leave salary shall be limited to a maximum of 180 days earned leave.

- (iii) The cash equivalent of leave salary thus admissible will become payable on retirement and will be paid in one lump-sum as a one-time settlement.
- (iv) The cash payment will be, subject to (v) below, equal to leave salary as admissible for earned leave and dearness allowance admissible on that leave salary at the rates in force on the date of retirement. No City Compensatory Allowance and/or house rent allowance shall be payable.
- (v) The cash amount worked out in accordance with (iv) above will be reduced by the amount of pension and pensionary equivalent of other retirement benefits for the period for which cash equivalent is payable.
- (vi) The authority competent to grant leave shall, suo-motu, issue order granting cash equivalent of earned leave at credit on the date of retirement.
- (vii) An employee can also avail of, as leave preparatory to retirement, a part of earned leave at his credit. In that case, he will be allowed benefits of this rule for the earned leave that remains at credit on the date of retirement in accordance with the terms and conditions stipulated in this rule.
- (viii) The benefit of this rule shall also be admissible to the employees who attain the age of retirement on or after 30.9.1977 and are granted extension of service after that date. In such cases, the benefit shall be granted on the date of final retirement on expiry of extension, to the extent of earned leave at credit on the date of superannuation plus the earned leave earned during the period of extension reduced by earned leave availed of during such period, subject to a maximum of 180 days.
- (ix) An employee already on leave preparatory to retirement who has been allowed to return to duty shall also be entitled to benefit under this rule on the date of retirement.
- (x) The above benefits will not, however, be available to those who attained the age of retirement before 30.9.1977 and were on extension of service thereafter.
- (xi) The above benefits will also not be available in the cases of premature/voluntary retirement.

Persons who are compulsorily retired as a measure of punishment under the disciplinary rules will also not be covered by this rule.

In the case of an employee retiring prematurely/voluntarily, he may be granted leave due and admissible to him which may extend beyond the date on which he retires or is retired from service, but not extending beyond the date on which he attains the age of retirement;

Provided that an University employee, who is retired by the University by giving him Pay and allowances in lieu of notice may apply for leave within the period for which such pay and allowances were given, and where he is granted leave, the leave salary shall be allowed only for the period of leave excluding that period for which pay and allowances in lieu of notice have been allowed.

Provided further that an employee, who is re-employed in the interest of University service, beyond the date of his retirement may be granted earned leave as under:

- (i) During the period of re-employment any leave due in respect of the period of such re-employment and to the extent necessary earned leave which would have been granted to him under the preceding proviso, had he retired on the date of retirement.
- (ii) After the expiry of the period of re-employment, the earned leave which could have been granted to him under the preceding proviso had he retired on the date of retirement, diminished by the amount of such leave as availed of during the period of re-employment.
- (iii) In determining the amount of earned leave due during the periods of re-employment, the earned leave, if any admissible under the preceding proviso shall be taken into account.

If any employee resigns he shall not be granted either prior or subsequent to his resignation any leave due to his credit provided that the University may, in any case, grant terminal leave to an employee prior to his resignation which may extend beyond the date on which the resignation becomes effective, if in the opinion of the University the circumstances justify such grant of leave.”
